BREVITIES.

Kansas College has among its students eight Indians.

A gigantic hotel, to cost $1,000,000 is to be built in Chicago.

"Divinization" is what the French say the Pope asks.

Vienna has 620,000 inhabitants, and with the suburbs 813,000.

The heat in Natal was so great that oxen dropped dead at their work.

New York has enough outcast children to make a procession, in double file, eleven miles long.

The Alaska Mcktoncutzoats live in Arcadian simplicity on the Autuca-coolachargut river.

In Liverpool, a boy of 11 years, earns a living by delivering carbstone phrenological lectures.

Louis Napoleon calls the 45,000 schoolmasters of his realm "the pacific army of France."

The leaves of the coffee plant are now proposed as a substitute for tea. In Sumatra the natives cultivate the plant almost entirely for the leaves.

An Iowa woman, on receiving a decree of divorce in the court-room, found a new husband awaiting her, with a license in his pocket at the door.

"Seventy-five cents per gal!" exclaimed Mrs. Partington, on looking over the price current, "Why, bless me, what is the world coming to, when the gals are valued at seventy-five cents!"

The French prelates in attendance on the Ecumenical Council in Rome, say that the Eternal City is the worst place in Europe, as far as living and comforts are concerned.

The hottest day in Calcutta, India, during 1869, was the 6th of April, when the thermometer reached 101 degrees in the shade; the coldest was the 30th of December, when it fell to 57 degrees.

Mark Twain thinks that soda water is not reliable for a steady drink. It is too easy. The next morning, after drinking thirty-eight bottles, he found himself full of gas and as tight as a balloon.

He had an article of clothing he could wear, except an umbrella.

The following recipe, from the London Lancet, will really cure the most maddening toothache: One drachm of Calvert's carbolic acid. A gelatinous mass is precipitated, a small portion of which, inserted in the cavity of an aching tooth, invariably gives immediate relief. Observe, this is for the teeth only, not for the ear.

The Russian aristocracy, which formerly imitated the French manners and customs, and even preferred the language of that country to their own, have now adopted the habits of the English and Americans, and at St. Petersburg there are now said to be more people belonging to the higher classes that are able to speak English than French.

A New Orleans paper reports that one of the Louisiana State Senators was given a check by the friends of a railroad measure, to be cashed if he voted for the bill and the bill passed. Opponents of the bill gave him another check, if he voted against the bill and the bill was lost. He voted no, but the bill was passed, and the Senator now looks upon the transaction as an unlucky stroke of business for him.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, at the funeral of a New York journalist, spoke of the daily newspaper offices as the slaughter-house of journalists. Good editorial writers, as a general rule, are nearly always overworked men. They stand the strain well enough for a few years, but most of them break down at an age which is called the "prime" of life. Editorial service on the first-class daily newspaper, has come to be the most exacting of all mental work. A few are wise enough to take periodical rests, but the greater number go on with the drudgery until they are killed.

—The Pacific.

Ah, this beautiful world! I know not what to think of it. Sometimes it is all sunshine and gladness, and Heaven itself lies not far off, and then it suddenly changes, and is dark and sorrowful, and the clouds shut out the day.

In the lives of the saddest of us, there are bright days like this, when we feel as if we could take the great world in our arms. Then come gloomy hours when the fire will not burn on our hearth, and all without and within is dismal, cold and dark. Believe me every heart has its own secret sorrows, which the world knows not of, and oftentimes we call a man a cold man when he is only sad.—Longfellow.

A Liverpool paper having published an account of a visit to Mr. Gladstone's house, the London Daily News makes the following comments:

"The Premier will not grudge us a peep at him in his private life. One day we find him with his son and nephew, busily engaged, by way of recreation, in cutting down a beech tree near Hagley that measures fourteen feet in circumference. The process of felling the great tree takes three days of three hours each. Another day we visit him at Hawarden in company with the Archbishop of Syra and Tenos, and we discover him in the act of sawing planks for a job of joiner's work which he has undertaken and nearly finished. Mr. Gladstone has the reputation of being the hardest working man in England. Few men can work so hard as he, and still fewer can in the same amount of time accomplish as much, and we are sure that if he takes to clearing wood or sawing planks he will do it with a will. Even his amusements will be energetic, and he cannot be surprised at the curiosity of the people who like to see their great men at play when they throw off their official robes and airs, and become ordinary men.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Privilege—Bills Introduced.

On the motion of Sherman, the privilege of the floor was extended to the members of the Ohio Legislature.

Bills were introduced and referred, to incorporate the Pacific Submarine Telegraph Company, authorizing the South Minnesota Railroad Company to connect their line with the Northern Pacific.

The subject of the mail steamship service between San Francisco and Australia, was discussed; the main feature was whether postage or commercial importance in the enterprise take precedence. In referring the bill, Casserly gave notice of his intention to move for a joint committee.

The Senate took up the Northern Pacific Railroad bill, pending an amendment of Harlan, to strike out the additional land grant, allowing the company to make up its present deficiency from sections on each side of the road, ten miles beyond its present limits. It was discussed by Corbett, Casserly, Wilson, Ramsey and others and finally rejected; yeas 10, nays 41.

HOUSE.

Post Office Appropriations—Bills introduced—Vote on Sypher's claim.

Beaman, from the committee on appropriations, reported the Post Office appropriation bill. It appropriates twenty-four million, four hundred and ten thousand from the Post Office Revenues, and seven hundred and twenty thousand out of the Treasury.

A bill was introduced for the improvement of water communication between the Mississippi river and Lake Michigan, via Wisconsin and Fox rivers.

Sargeant offered a resolution instructing the committee on coinage to inquire into the expediency of directing an issue of Nevada silver coin; adopted.

A bill was reported, granting pensions to certain soldiers and sailors, engaged in the war of 1812; recommitted.

Paine introduced a bill to reduce the duties on imports; referred to the committee on ways and means. It provides for a reduction of ten per cent, after the thirtieth of June next, on all imports to the United States, except spirits, malt, wines, liquors, tobacco, cigars and snuff.

The House then proceeded to vote on the resolution to admit J. H. Sypher to a seat, as representative from the First Congressional District of Louisiana; the vote was announced, yeas 78, nays 73. Sypher came forward and took the oath. Brooks objected, on the ground that he was a resident of Pennsylvania, but he was overruled by the Speaker, under the action of the House. Fitch offered a substitute, declaring that no valid election was held in the First Congressional District of Louisiana, that neither Sypher nor Martin were entitled to a seat; the substitute was lost and the resolution was adopted.

A bill to consolidate and amend the statute, relative to patents and copyrights, was discussed and amended.

The Senate substitute to the census bill was non-concurred in and went to the committee of conference.

The Senate substitute on the Georgia bill came up. Butler moved its reference to the reconstruction committee.

The appointment of Trimble to the Pacific Railroad committee places Van Trump on the post office committee in place of Trimble.

Butler, of Mass., asked leave to introduce a joint resolution to annex the Republic of Dominica (laughter). Brooks, of New York, objected.

The House then adjourned.

WASHINGTON.

Visitors—Supreme Court sees Adjourns.—Cholera in Zanibar.

WASHINGTON.—The Ohio visitors to the Capitol paid their respects to the President this morning. The east room of the Executive mansion was filled.

The Supreme Court has unanimously allowed the withdrawal of two legal tender cases, and decided not to rehear the argument remaining over, namely, Hepburn vs. Griswold; the decision therein remains as heretofore made.

Chief Justice Chase announced that the Supreme Court will adjourn, for this term, on the 30th of April; no arguments will be heard after the 29th.

The amount of gold required to pay the interest on bonds falling due in May is about twenty-five and a half millions. It is unofficially reported, to-night, that payments will be made next Monday without rebate.

The Ohio Legislature visitors called on the President this morning and were introduced by General Sherman. There were no speeches. The reception concluded without any show of formality.

CONNECTICUT.

High Water.

HARTFORD.—The streets near the river are submerged; there have been two persons drowned.

ILLINOIS.

The Legal Tender Case.

CHICAGO.—The Chicago Journal's Washington special says the counsel of Latham in the legal tender case before the Supreme Court asked that the case be dismissed, which motion was approved by the Attorney General and granted by the court, which also directed the dismissal of the other case on the docket. So the former decision stands.

The Post's special says the Attorney General was opposed to the motion.

OHIO.

Distiller's proposition.

CINCINNATI.—The Western Distiller's Association this p.m. authorized their attorneys to propose to Collector Delano to remit all deficiency and per diem taxes, accruing under the forty-eight hours' rule, until the first of May, the distillers agreeing, after that date, to run under that rule, unless Congress orders it changed.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Burlingame's remains—More freshets.

BOSTON.—The remains of Burlingame have arrived and to-morrow will be deposited in Farwell Hall, which will be open on Friday to the public. A guard of honor will pay military respects. The funeral will take place on Saturday.

Freshets are reported in the Merrimack, Saco and Roanoke Rivers, doing considerable damage and partially interrupting railroad travel.

KANSAS.

Defaulter Shears' case.

LEAVENWORTH.—The investigation of the affairs of Shear, Ex-collector of Internal Revenue, of the District of Kansas, progresses. From the evidence it appears that he was defaulter in a hundred thousand dollars. The matter was unearthed by Supervisor Marr and is being prosecuted by Collector Anthony, in whose hands the claim has been placed for collection. On the other hand a great effort is being made by Shears' bondmen here and at Washington to have the proceedings stopped and the matter covered up. Sidney Clark, who is said to be on Shears' bond, is laboring to have all the revenue officers, who are cognizant of facts against him, removed, and others appointed.

INDIANA.

No Woman Suffrage—A Bold Farmer.

TERRE HAUTE.—The House rejected, by 133 to 69, the proposed amendment to the Constitution, enabling women to vote.

Sixteen thousand dollars in money, stolen from the Treasurer's office, in Vermillion County, was recovered last evening from two men, who were ordered to halt, by a farmer, who suspected them; they ran, but were so closely pursued that they jumped into a river and threw away the package, which was recovered. The robbers escaped.

FOREIGN NEWS.

FRANCE.

Offensive Publication—Strikes in Earnest.

PARIS.—The trial of M. Garberet, director of the Marseillaise, is concluded. The offense was the publication in that journal of an address of a woman of Lyons to the women of La Crezot. He was convicted and sentenced to six months imprisonment and a fine of four thousand francs.

The long threatened strikes here begun at the Earrest foundry; the men and mechanics, about 15,000 strong, struck; as did also the tailors. The house painters are expected to strike to-morrow.

The sugar refiners and hatters have joined the strike.

An Irishman, who had been for some time on a fishing excursion, met one of his friends, who inquired of him what luck he had. "Oh!" he replied, "we had a most illegal time entirely."

"Who were of your party?" asked his friend. "There was five of us," was his answer. "There was myself, one; the two Scrogginses, two; Terry Toole, three; and Jim Kasin, four. There were five of us. There was Terry Toole, one; myself, two; the two Scrogginses, three; and Jim Kasin four. There certainly were five of us. There was Jim Kasin, one; Terry Toole, two; myself, three; and the two Scrogginses, four. It's very strange I can't remember who the fifth man was! There was myself, one; Jim Kasin, two; the two Scrogginses, three; and Terry Toole, four; upon me honor I can't recollect who the fifth man was."

A Turkish recipe for a cement used to fasten diamonds and other precious stones to metallic surfaces, and which is said to strongly unite even surfaces of polished steel, although exposed to moisture, is as follows:

"Dissolve five or six bits of gum mastic, each of the size of a large pea, in as much spirits of wine as will suffice to render it liquid. In another vessel dissolve in brandy as much isinglass, previously softened in water, as will make a two-ounce vial of strong glue, adding two small bits of gum ammoniac, which must be rubbed until dissolved. Then mix the whole with heat. Keep in a vial closely stoppered. When it is to be used, set the vial in boiling water."
