Hatch, Idaho, Dec. 19.—The weather here is delightful at present, and the finest sleiphing possible prevails, but we need more snow yet to insure the more show and cold weather this we're had for years so although many are illy prepared for it, never a murmur is heard of the inconvenience, future pros-pects enabling a patient endurance. Last night a most enjoyable time was had by the members of the Deacons morum at a dancing party given by necessary water supply for next summer. MUCH SICKNESS.

There is much sickness here and in our neighboring town of Chesterfield. At the latter place there were These deaths in one day recently. These were Edna, daughter of Chester and Mary Call, and Brother Ruger; both were buried the same day. On the day
