

"Hurra" is a Slavic word, which may be heard from the shores of Dalmatia to Behren's Straits, when men are called upon for any proof of courage or valor. The original of the word is from the primitive idea that every man who dies bravely for his country will go directly to Heaven (hurra)—to paradise. Thus: Allah—God—among the Turks, is always heard resounding; each one encouraging himself to forget earth and despise death, by the hope of an immediate reward.

A Roman Catholic Priest, some time since, in Germany, on entering the pulpit, took a walnut into it! He told the congregation that the shell was tasteless and valueless—that was Calvin's church—the skin was nauseous, disagreeable and worthless—this was the Lutheran church. He then said he would show them the holy Roman Apostolic church—he cracked it and found it ROTTEN.
