

Special Business Notices.

WM. JENNINGS, SONS & SADLER announce the arrival of new goods, and that the Eagle Emporium is the cheapest place in town to buy good goods at wholesale or retail. They have notions, staple and fancy dry goods, boots and shoes, hats and caps, staple groceries of all kinds, fancy groceries of divers kinds, confectionaries, pickles, to-bacco, cigars, clocks, crockery, glass, wood, willow and hard ware, coal oil at 30 cents a gallon, and everything in the way of general merchandise. Read their new advertisement.

Mr. M. AYERS, of D. M. Ayers & Co., of Auburn, N. Y., Mower and Reaper manufacturers, is now in the city and will remain a few weeks. He reports the Utah farmers as being good pay, and his very large collection account as being rapidly closed up. His company is now a permanent fixture in Utah, with able managers, and our farmers may feel assured of honorable dealing. In return the company expect the usual prompt payment of notes given their agents, as the money is needed in their very large business. d&w

The Relief Society Woman's Mercantile Association is opening a store for the sale of home manufactures in the building lately occupied by the Woman's Centennial Territorial Fair, known as the Old Constitution Building, opposite Z. C. M. I. store.

We are now ready to receive home-made useful and ornamental articles of all kinds, which we will sell on commission. Many of our citizens have felt the want of a place devoted exclusively to Utah productions, and now that we are, in accordance with the wishes of President Young, uniting our humble efforts in this direction, we confidently trust that we shall not only have the support of all branches of the Relief Society throughout the valleys of the mountains, but also of our brethren and all others who feel an interest in the future welfare and prosperity of Utah.

Commencing as we do without capital, we wish it distinctly understood that at present we can only sell on commission.

THE RAPID popularity gained in this Territory by the OLIVER CHILLED PLOW during the short time it has been introduced here is something marvelous. This splendid plow has distanced all competition, and now stands at the head of the list, unequalled by any implement of the kind ever brought to Utah. With the Oliver Chilled PLOWING can be done QUICKLY and EASILY and WITHOUT LABORING, no matter how hard and dry the soil. It is offered on the most favorable terms by Howard Seabree, at the Bain Wagon Depot, one-half block south of Theatre. d285

PRICE OF GOLD.

Corrected daily by Deseret National Bank, SALT LAKE CITY, November 2, 1876. Buying at 11:00; Selling at 11:10.

Local and Other Matters.

Thermometer 52 degrees F. in the shade at 1 p.m. today. Fine, some clouds.

Lecture.—This evening, commencing at half-past seven, Judge Alex. C. Poyer will deliver a lecture at the 12th Ward School house. Subject—"Grecian Mythology." Free to everybody.

Benefit Ball.—Before us is an invitation to a ball to be given in the 12th Ward School-house, Friday evening, complimentary to Elder Samuel Mallin, who will soon leave on a mission abroad.

To Europe.—The missionaries called at the late Conference to go Europe are expected to meet at the Historian's Office, Salt Lake City, on Monday, November 6th, at 2 p.m., preparatory to leaving on their missions the next day.

JOHN ROWBERRY.

For the Southern States.—We are requested by Elder Henry G. Boyle to announce, for the benefit of the missionaries destined for the Southern States, that they are expected to be ready to leave Salt Lake City on Monday morning, November 20th.

Departure.—Elder Thomas G. Webber, late Secretary and Treasurer of Zion's Co-operative Mercantile Institution, left this morning for England, to which country he goes on a mission. A host of warm friends in this city and Territory will, with us, wish him abundant success.

Errata.—Under the heading "City Council," in yesterday's NEWS, concerning the price of land purchased east of the Cemetery, for "$12 an acre," read "$10 an acre." In the article headed "The Sale," concerning the price at which a wagon was sold, for "$27.50," read "$27.50," and so on.

Woman's Exponent for Nov. 1 contains "Twilight Reveries," "The Japanese Altar of Dallwitz," "Speech," "Hearken to Counsel," "A Word About Women," "Sensitive People," "Correspondence," "Spelling in Old Times," "Dr. A. Wells on Commercial Depression," etc.

San Bernardino.—Mr. A. Rodenre severs his connection with the San Bernardino Times, as editor and proprietor, having disposed of his interest in the establishment to Mr. John Isaac, who continues the publication of the paper.

Mr. Rodenre gives the following as his reasons for the change:—"I consider the East a better field for newspaper enterprise, and the prospect more encouraging for the investment of capital than at present offered in California. The want of enterprise, steady decline of business, and other discouraging features, render San Bernardino all but a desirable point for a permanent business location, especially for a newspaper."

Come Eastward.—This morning Hyrum B. Clawson, Esq., departed eastward, on a business trip. For a considerable time Z. C. M. I. has determined to go out of the business of trading in hides, pelts and wool, wagons and machinery, and has lately consummated that intention. Mr. Clawson has gone into these lines of business, and his present eastern trip is in the interest of his new enterprise. The gentleman has had a long experience in connection with Z. C. M. I., as the Superintendent, and other mercantile houses, giving him an unusually comprehensive experience, which, together with his natural aptitude for business, will doubtless enable him to make this personal enterprise a success.

Sericulture.—The Deseret Silk Association met at the Firemen's Hall, yesterday, Wednesday, Nov. 1st. Mrs. Zina D. Young presiding.

Mrs. Young said that the reel had arrived and was now being worked in Logan by an Italian lady, who, previous to coming to Utah, had worked at the business from early early years. She was a first-class reeler, also, that Miss Mary A. Rockwood had gone from this city to take lessons, so as to be able to reel the silk here and teach others, and thus extend it all through the settlements in the Territory. Mrs. Young was in hopes that she would have some specimens of silk at our next meeting. Now was the time to plant out our trees or cuttings. She urged those who were doing so to put out a few more than they needed for themselves, as there might be others that would want some, and thus keep extending this branch of home industry.

Mrs. Barney said that she had got a good foundation laid, and hoped that she would keep on building until it became a mighty structure. She felt satisfied at what had already been done, and said it was reported that the society were only giving one dollar per pound for cocoons, which was a mistake; they were giving two dollars per pound. Mrs. E. Barker said that she was used to working among silk, and could teach seven branches from the cocoon. The question was asked, Where can we get our trees and cuttings? Mrs. Zina D. Young said that she had been informed that Mr. John Reading, of this city, could furnish them at very reasonable prices. Meeting adjourned until the first Wednesday in December, at this place. R. SIMPSON, Secretary.

Gone to Rest.—In another part of the paper will be found an obituary notice of Lavinia Walker, daughter of the late Patriarch Hyrum Smith, and sister to Patriarch John Smith and Apostle Joseph F. Smith. She was greatly esteemed as a worthy woman and faithful Latter-day Saint.

In the Hands of the Marshal.—Most of the property of President B. Young, sold by the sequestrator yesterday, is now in the custody of the Marshal, by virtue of the sequestration proceedings.

Use and Abuse of Law.—We all know what laws are instituted for the benefit of the community, and every man's hand should be against his neighbor, so that no one could enjoy that which he has obtained by whatever means so long as a more powerful man desired it. Law enforces a wholesome restraint upon the strong and covetous, while it extends a helping hand to the timid and weak; the law does this, when it is permitted to pursue its proper course, but, as any engine for good can be made as powerful for bad as otherwise by turning it in the wrong direction, so the perversion of the law the most pernicious evil which can or does afflict the human family. It is now an open question as to whether the law is administered for the purpose of dealing out even-handed justice, or whether its functions and purposes are not all or nearly all swallowed up in the one object of yielding support to a class of men styled attorneys, those who observe the most closely generally deciding in favor of the latter proposition. It is a plain fact that cases brought before a bar of so-called justice are not infrequently determined by the skill and readiness in legal technicalities of the lawyers, while the defrauded client, upon whose side rests every vestige of merit which the case possesses, is forced to content himself with the rigid consolation that "the law" has gone against him.

The time was when Utah sustained and promoted a system of arbitration, by which all kinds of disputes and controversies between fellow citizens were amicably adjusted and full justice was rendered; by this method of procedure the merits of the cases were brought into consideration, and the formalities of law excluded. When the arbitrators made their award, the parties generally felt that substantial justice had been rendered, and that was fully as gratifying, and was no long bill of costs, no attorney's fees, nor anything of the kind to settle with. If one party was in the wrong, he was so, by that method, brought to sustain heavy losses. That system was almost universally satisfactory, because it was a sort of home-spun, honest, unobtrusive method, and every man's hand was against it. The special marshal made a mistake yesterday, and a daughter, eleven years of age, of Thomas H. Thompson, who died, instead of a son of James Shipley.

With profound regret we record the death of Mr. George Place this morning about half-past ten o'clock. Mr. Place was well known and respected in this city, as an industrious and honorable man, and his death will cause universal sorrow.

While suffering from a bad cold, he was taken from his bed a few days ago, in the temporary absence of his attendant, and attempted to leave the house. It is probable that the sudden chill, as the night was very cold, was the immediate cause of death. As soon as his attempt to leave the house was known, his brother Edward obtained an additional male attendant to assist in nursing and caring for him.

Fire Alarm.—There was an alarm of fire about noon to-day. The cause was in the house of Mr. Barnes, 11th Ward. The Fire Brigade turned out, but the flames were extinguished, with small damage, before the brigade reached the spot.

Another Judicial Summons.—One of those peculiarly inexplicable judicial summons which are beyond the comprehension of the ordinary and perhaps even the extraordinary mortal was performed yesterday, in connection with the arbitrary sequestration proceedings against President Young.

The latter's agent, Mr. James Jack, made an effort to replevin the property from the purchasers, but Judge Schaeffer forbade the deputy clerk of the Third District Court to issue and file the necessary papers for the U. S. Marshal to take possession of and hold the property, pending the determination of the several suits in replevin. We are hardly prepared to believe that the Judge would have gone so far as that, unless he had been laboring under a misunderstanding. At least we give him the benefit of that belief, for it would be little short of an exhibition of the most unwarrantable, unjudicial, and illegal despotism to keep a litigant out of court. This would be carrying the policy of denouncing the aggrieved party, of means and opportunity of redress to an extent that would constitute it most unqualified outrage, unsurpassed in the history of modern judicial affairs.

His honor relented from this absurd determination, and, this morning, directed the clerk to issue the papers, and probably ere this some if not all of the property is in the hands of the U. S. Marshal, unless some of the purchasers cover it by counter-bond, which some of them may not be likely to do, as the recovery is, of course, sought at the real and not at the purchase value, and some of the suits can therefore be taken to the Supreme Court of the United States if necessary, the amounts being over that which is required to have a suit adjudicated there.

Our Country Contemporaries.

Ogden Junction, Nov. 1—

One more flag taken down to-day. This is good news. But that which follows is bad. Willie Thompson, son of Mr. Wm. Thompson, on the bench, died this morning. An account of Mr. George Horrocks' death appears elsewhere. So many fatal cases occurring makes Ogden gloomy and sad.

The special marshal made a mistake yesterday, and a daughter, eleven years of age, of Thomas H. Thompson, who died, instead of a son of James Shipley.
