LOCAL NEWS.

Meat Curing.—Brother Thomas C. Crawford, late from Glasgow, Scotland, associated with Fred J. May, is starting a new home industry on the latter's premises on East Temple Street. It is the curing of meats according to the method used in the Old Country, a business with which Mr. Crawford is thoroughly conversant in all its details. He will make beef, mutton and pork hams. The work will be done in style both in smoking and pickling, and the meats will be with or without bones, in the form of rolls and otherwise. As Mr. Crawford expects to keep prices down, the business is likely to develop into considerable proportions in course of time.

People vs. Hewlett.—The case of the People vs. Walter J. Hewlett, indicted for murder in the first degree, has been continued for the term. It was expected to come up to-morrow, but on the representation of Mr. J. L. Hawkins, attorney for the defendant, that his client was suffering from epileptic fits and at present was being attacked with as many as three or four in a day, and Mr. Dickson the prosecuting attorney consenting, the continuance was ordered by Judge Zane.

Hewlett and Joseph Morris are charged in the indictment, found on February 1883, with assisting, abetting and killing one Richard Connors on the 22nd of September, 1882.

The crime is alleged to have been committed at Bingham, Connors being Hewlett's brother-in-law. The case against Morris was yesterday dismissed, leaving Walter J. Hewlett as the remaining and only defendant in the coming trial.

A Faintest Friend.—A young woman calling herself Mattie Blythe, but with more aliases than a cat, has been going around the city representing herself as a canvassing agent for Mrs. B. S. Long, in the hairdressing business. This Miss Blythe or Miss Hall, or whatever else she calls herself, is a fraud, pure and simple. Her method of deception is to bargain for ladies' hair, promising to return a portion of it in switches and keep the remainder for her fee, or to accept cash if she can get it, in advance or by giving time. Of course she never returns the hair, and having given the name of Mrs. Long as her reference, has succeeded in cheating scores of unsuspecting ladies out of their hairdressing savings, by her plausible manner and fair promises.

Mrs. Long is highly indignant that her name has been so used and abused. We understand that the female fraud has lately attempted to leave town, having gathered up several large sacks of hair and shipped it away in advance. She has operated, it is said, in Ogden also, and there fell into the clutches of the law through her nefarious practices. Further, a gentleman from New York says she once carried on her stealing trade in that great city and got away with some $400 worth of hair before coming west to prey on the unsuspecting of her sex in these parts.

She was arrested yesterday under the name of Emma Hall, together with her sister and accomplice, and they had a hearing before Justice Spittler this morning on a charge of petit larceny, or embezzlement of hair. Each was fined $45. The prosecuting witness was a lady who had been defrauded. Miss Blythe-Hall, etc., is a young woman of very dark complexion, and her sister is the same. Look out for them, and give them the law, and go.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

SUMMARIZED FROM LATEST EXCHANGES.

Two men on Tongue River, M. T., recently, while removing a rusty carriage from the chamber of a Sharp's one losing an eye and the other a portion of the thumb of his right hand.

The District Court at Laramie last Tuesday issued an order to Sheriff Miller to proceed to carry out the sentence heretofore pronounced by it in the case of Wyoming Territory vs. George Cooper, and that the execution take place on the 12th day of December, 1884, between the hours of 11 o'clock a. m. and 3 o'clock p. m.

On the 19th inst., a grown up son of Mr. Mark Smith, of Heber City, accidentally shot himself in the lower part of the stomach. He had been handling an English bulldog pistol, 22 calibre.

The ball struck the hip bone and glanced upward, lodging under the heart, about an inch below. Dr. H. B. Sharp, a traveling dentist, and an old army surgeon, happened to be visiting Brother Smith at the time, and in a short time succeeded in extracting the ball. The young man appears to be doing well, and bids fair to speedily recover.

The Manti Temple is provided with one of the most complete steam wood-working establishments in the Territory. It is situated on the corner of 1st and 2nd streets, and is a fine example of modern mechanics, that could be used in the carpentry of such a vast building as the new Temple.

This efficient steam auxiliary, running at a constant speed, is now in the year, it is estimated that the carpenter work will occupy almost two years; without the machinery the same job would have taken three times as long. When the Manti Temple is completed, all this new steam machinery will, it is said, be brought here to aid in finishing the Salt Lake Temple.

On Thursday morning last, Miss Lillie Moulding, while out horseback riding on the flat below Park City was thrown from her horse and very seriously hurt. She was riding across the field to the race track and the horse was going at a pretty good gallop when it either stumbled or stepped in a gopher hole, throwing the young lady to the ground with such violence as to render her insensible. She was immediately taken up and put in a wagon and conveyed home where she has since been lying in a comatose state. Dr. E. H. Moulder, the attending physician, says that she was suffering from concussion of the brain and that she is in a very critical condition, the chances for life and death being about equal.

Some ancient thief "went through" the special train a week ago Sunday on the O. S. L., and took quite a number of valuable articles. The occupant, H. H. Hinkley, assistant to president Charles Francis Adams; W. B. Doddridge, general superintendent of the O. S. L.; J. W. Hinkley, assistant to president; Frank Readon, M. M. They returned to Shoshone from a trip of inspection to Huntington and the new bridge; then visited Wood River points as far as Ketchum, arriving at Shoshone at noon the 19th inst. A liberal reward will be paid for the recovery of the following articles, stolen from the special car, viz: About $30 in coin and currency; a leather case containing a lot of passes marked "H. Hinkley"; a silver hunting case watch, Appleton, Tracy & Co. movement, initials "R. B." engraved on outside; a plated link watch-chain, with an apple chain made in the form of a link from the Bickensider; and a gold hunting case watch, Elgin movement, nickel works, from W. B. Doddridge. Any information leading to the conviction of the thief and the recovery of the articles will be properly recognized.

Last Thursday evening the driver at Aschew's store, Park City, on going to the stable to see to his horses, discovered a man lying back of the store, as he thought, in a drunken slumber, but on examination found that there was something else the matter with him, and had Dr. Cropper summoned, who when he saw the man, knew that he was suffering from an overdose of laudanum. He, with the assistance of others went to work and used all the means in his power to resuscitate the man, but although they worked over him until three o'clock of the morning, they were unable to save him. On Friday morning a coroner's jury was summoned, Joseph M. Connelley acting as coroner, and returned a verdict that the deceased came to his death by an overdose of laudanum administered by his own hand. The deceased was the deceased was Dennis F. McNulty. He has been working at the Sampson for some time past. It seems that he had been in the habit lately of taking laudanum a great deal to cure dysentery and it is supposed that he made a mistake and took an overdose this time. His relatives at present were being notified of his death and sent word to have his body embalmed and sent to them and their wives were notified to have the body forwarded.

MORE POLYGAMY TRIALS.

CASES OF THE UNITED STATES VS. CONNELLEY AND EVANS.

The case of the United States against John Connelley and that of the same plaintiff vs. Joseph H. Evans, both defendants indicted for bigamy, are set for trial in the District Court this week; the former to-morrow and the latter for Saturday. Following is the gist of both indictments: In Connelley's case, the grand jury of the September term, 1883, found and presented that John Connelley, of the Third Judicial District, on a day between the first day of January, 1882, and the first day of April, 1883, at the City of Salt Lake, in the County of Salt Lake, in the Territory of Utah, unlawfully and feloniously did marry and take to wife one Anna Gallant, the said John Connelley at the time of said marriage having a lawful wife living, other than said Anna Gallant, to wit, one Elizabeth Connelley, formerly Elizabeth Connelley, from whom the said John Connelley had never been divorced and who had not been absent from him, said John Connelley, the five years next previous to said marriage to said Anna Gallant, etc.

L. E. Hall, Foreman of Grand Jury.

The indictment in the Evans case, which was found October 17th, 1883, is in effect as follows: That Joseph H. Evans, late of said district, on the 5th day of May, 1880, at the County of Salt Lake, in the Territory of Utah, unlawfully and feloniously did marry and take to wife one Joseph H. Evans and one Harriet Parry, at the time and place last aforesaid, unlawfully and feloniously each to the other were married, he said Joseph H. Evans at the time of said marriage, having a lawful wife then living, other than said Harriet Parry, to wit, one Sarah Evans, whose maiden name is the grand jury unknown, from whom the said Joseph H. Evans had not been divorced, and who had not been absent from him, the said Joseph H. Evans, the five years next previous to said marriage to said Harriet Parry, and so the grand jury considered it to be the duty of the said Joseph H. Evans with the purpose to know about your business, trade or profession.

E. Hall, Foreman of Grand Jury.

Funeral Services.—The funeral services over the remains of Sister Amy Bean will take place at the Eleventh Ward Assembly Rooms to-morrow (Wednesday), at 2:30 o'clock p. m. Friends are respectfully invited to attend.

A Little Gem.—Martin Lenz, our esteemed fellow-townman, has just completed a beautiful little gem in fruit painting which he has seen in Joshua Midgley's show window, Second South Street. It is a bunch of grapes, executed on a sheet of Japanese silk, and enclosed in a handsome gilt frame. It is a most striking likeness; the fruit is so natural and luscious looking as to almost tempt one to snatch it with the pleasure of the artist dived venture out with it, without a strong guard. The leaves are finely tinted with the delicate hues of Autumn, and curl up at the edges as natural as life. The grapes are light-colored and the originals, we understand, were raised in the 25th Ward.

Severe Accident.—On the morning of the 8th inst., as young John Cowenover, son of John Cowenover, of Springville, was driving his cows to the town pasture, he was suddenly thrown from his horse and fell upon his head, rendering him insensible. A little boy who was with him went and told Oscar Mower, who hurried to the scene and found the injured lad apparently dead, with the cows standing around him. Brother Mower did all in his power to help him with the means at hand, and sent for help to take him home. Seeing the boy so low, he laid him upon his back and called upon the Lord to at least spare his life until his mother could see him once more alive. His mother was soon brought to his side, and finding him dead, she was heart-broken. As soon as a conveyance arrived they lifted him in and took him home. Dr. Campbell was called, who did all in his power to revive the seemingly dying boy. Greatly to their joy his pulse began to beat, and he was able to speak. His father, however, was so overcome by the loss of his son, that he was unable to leave his home, and the boy's grandfather, being sent for, came and besought the Lord in the injured boy's behalf.

Dr. Campbell pronounced it a severe case of concussion of the brain. The boy's father was in Park City, but was sent for at once, and upon reaching the city, and was glad that they receive it.

Open from 10 to 12 in the morning; 2 to 5 in the afternoon, and from 7 to 10 in the evening.
