

SOCIAL CHAT

At the Country club on Thursday Mrs. P. S. Perry entertained at lunch. In honor of her guests, Mrs. Kirby and Mrs. Baker. The table was brightly with yellow dahlias and woodbine in scarlet autumn tint, and the affair was in every way delightful. About 25 guests enjoyed the event.

On Thursday Mrs. W. G. Sharp and Mrs. T. B. Davis entertained at a double function at the Alta club, their guests enjoying a bridge contest, followed by a luncheon. For the latter the gold room was used, and the table was beautifully decorated in American Beauty roses and similar. About 20 guests were present, including the following: Mrs. O. J. Salisbury, Mrs. Hoyt Sherman, Mrs. Ellsworth Duggett, Mrs. George M. Downey, Mrs. S. M. Faber, Mrs. George X. Wallace, Mrs. Robert Harkness, Mrs. Hubbard Reed, Mrs. Ferdinand J. Fabian, Mrs. J. D. Thompson, Mrs. R. H. Harkness, Mrs. Hanauer, Mrs. R. H. Chamling, Mrs. F. S. Hanson, Miss Stella Salisbury, Miss Sherman, Miss Laura Sherman, Miss Katherine Judge and Miss Hanauer.

Mrs. C. S. Williams of Denver was guest of honor at an informal luncheon on Wednesday, given by Mrs. H. C. Edwards.

Mr. A. F. Holden entertained a number of friends at a dinner at the Alta club on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. C. B. Pearson was hostess at a luncheon at her home on Wednesday, given in honor of Miss Esther Coleman of Denver. The table was prettily decorated in autumn flowers, and covers were laid for 10.

On Tuesday afternoon the anniversary of the founding of the Cleafan was celebrated in a delightful luncheon given at the home of Miss Emmeline Wells. The table was artistically decorated in the club colors, and a program of toasts was rendered. Mrs. Edna W. Sloan acted as toastmistress, and Mrs. Clara M. Clawson as chairman. All present responded to the toasts which comprised a number of subjects of interest to club women. The affair was successful in every way.

On Wednesday Miss Anna Ligan was hostess at a delightful luncheon, given in honor of Mrs. John McLenna of Des Moines. The affair took place at the Commercial club, the table, which was prettily decorated in red asters, being spread in the private dining room. Miss Ligan's other guests were the Misses Stella and Myrtle Reilly, Ethel and Margaret Macdonald, Margaret Ligan, Essie Beemer and Ethel Woodmansee.

The Council of Jewish Women will give a dancing party at Unity hall on Monday night.

Mrs. J. A. Miner will give a luncheon next Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Truman of Michigan.

The Bridge club was entertained by Mrs. McGee and Miss Lane yesterday.

The Fenchibles gave the initial dance of the season at Christensen's on Thursday night, the affair being altogether enjoyable. The hall was decorated in flags, and tents in red, white and blue were put up in the corners, and punch served in army cups from a tin bowl. The arrangement committee were C. B. Peck and H. A. Kelly, and the reception committee were: A. H. Hoffman, J. H. Hardy, F. L. Walter, J. Durand, A. Gemmill, T. R. Brimley, H. G. Shafer, R. S. Folland, H. H. Madsen.

Miss Anna McCormick entertained at a pretty luncheon at the Country club on Thursday, the table being decorated in autumn leaves and flowers. The guests were Mrs. R. H. Channing, Mrs. John E. Woodward, Mrs. William Bayly, Jr., Mrs. William H. Cunningham, Mrs. Ernest Bernberger, Mrs. Calaghan, Mrs. Benner X. Smith, Mrs. David S. Murray, Mrs. Katherine Judge, Miss Katherine Geddes, Miss Sherman, Miss Laura Sherman, Miss Dorothy Kinney, Miss Jessie Anderson, Miss Stella Salisbury and Mrs. D. C. Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Perry gave a box party at the Theater on Thursday night in honor of their guests, Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Kirby. Others in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Montague Perry, Mr. and Mrs. David Hempstead, Mrs. Heber M. Wells and Mrs. Frank Jennings.

Among the delightful affairs of the week was the luncheon given by Mrs. C. J. Salisbury on Tuesday for Mrs. W. G. Sharp and Mrs. T. B. Davis. The table was decorated in red dahlias, and the place cards tied with ribbons to match the flowers. Present besides the guests of honor were Mrs. S. M. Faber, Mrs. George M. Downey, Mrs. Robert Harkness, Mrs. R. H. Harkness, Mrs. J. E. Woodward, Mrs. Benner X. Smith, Mrs. Gaylord, Miss Katherine Judge and Miss Anna McCormick.

Mrs. G. Y. Wallace entertained the members of St. Mark's Guild at her home on Wednesday.

Miss Gertrude McGrath was hostess at a luncheon at the Country club on Wednesday.

Miss Addie Zane entertained the Bridge club on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George K. Fisher entertained at a dinner at their home on Tuesday.

Mrs. C. W. Filied entertained at luncheon on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cunningham gave a box party Thursday night in honor of Miss Jessie Anderson, and later entertained at a chafing-dish supper at their home.

Next Monday evening Mrs. Francis S. Bascom will entertain in honor of Mrs. Sharp and Mrs. Davis.

Miss Stella Salisbury entertained informally at an evening party on Wednesday in honor of Miss Katherine Judge.

On Wednesday Miss May Anson and Mr. J. Fred Daynes were married, the ceremony being performed in the Temple and a reception being held in the evening, at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Anson. Red and green were the decorations used in the parlor, streamers of red ribbon being intertwined with smilax and strung to the four corners and forming a canopy for the bridal pair. The library was done in green and the dining room in yellow—flowers, ribbons and candles—rhodas in the bright hues making a pretty picture. The bride wore a handsome gown of white crepe over tulle, trimmed with applique and lace. A large number of friends were present to extend good wishes. Mr. and Mrs. Daynes will be at home after Oct. 1, at 955 Second street.

On Wednesday Miss Fannie Hunter and Hyrum Macerott were married at the bride's home, Bishop Sedon of the Fifth ward performing the ceremony. The rooms were prettily decorated, and a supper was served later to the friends and relatives.

Another of Wednesday's pretty weddings was that of Miss Laura Bunting and Dr. A. J. Helton. The ceremony being performed at the home of the bride by Rev. C. E. Perkins of St. Paul's church. The parlor was done in white and green, a bower being formed with vines and ferns mingled with dahlias and carnations, for the bridal party. Red and green were in the hall, and in the dining room, yellow predominated with charming effect. The bride party entered the room to the strains of "Lohengrin." Rev. Perkins coming first, followed by the groom and his best man, D. C. C. Gleason. Then came the bridesmaid, Miss Grace Bunting, and then the bride, leaning on the arm of her uncle, Mr. Daniel Wolsenholme.

FALL WALKING GOWN

After the ceremony, a bridal supper was served to about 30 guests. The bride was charmingly gowned in white chiffon over tulle and the bridesmaid in blue. Dr. and Mrs. Helton have gone to their new home in Scotland.

COMING AND GOING

Mrs. Ella Squires leaves next Tuesday for New York, where she will spend the winter with her son, Clyde Squires. She expects to visit the fair on her way.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hansen have returned from their eastern trip.

Mrs. G. E. Culmer leaves for Chicago early next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson C. Smith and their daughter, Mrs. C. C. K. Culmer, spent a pleasant week visiting relatives and friends in Provo.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith depart for their home in Pittsfield, Maine, Oct. 10.

Mrs. Sharp and Mrs. Davis leave on Tuesday for the east. They will stop in Missouri to visit friends and the exposition.

Miss Rebecca Morris has returned from Denver.

Leut. and Mrs. Easton will leave in a few days for Columbus, O. Mrs. Easton's sister returned to San Francisco several days ago.

Miss Florence Robinson left Wednesday evening for New York, where she will continue her musical studies.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Glendinning and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Pearsall will leave on Monday for a tour of the east, including St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Walker have returned from the east.

Mrs. R. Savage and family have returned to the city.

Mrs. G. Ives Fitchie has returned to her home in Crockett, Ark., after a four months' visit with the Berkhoel family.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stowe are down from Park City to visit their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard B. Stowe.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Fenton are now in Atlanta, Ga., spending a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Woolley, Jr., left yesterday for St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Miles are now at home at 35 Seventh East street.

F. Clement Schramm has returned from a trip to New York and other eastern cities.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Baker are now at home at 122 East Brigham street.

Mrs. George H. Wood has returned from Ogden, where she was the guest of Mrs. George Hanson.

Miss Bessie Meeker of Chicago was the guest for a few days of Miss Agatha Berkhoel.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin D. Katz left this week to visit the fair and other points in the east.

Clarence Gaines has returned from St. Louis.

Miss Caroline Paine is now at home at the Keith apartment house on Brigham street.

L. C. Snelaker left Tuesday for Illinois to visit his mother and sister. He expects to be gone a month, returning by way of St. Louis to see the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hirsch and Miss Hirsch of Philadelphia are in the city

ing a few days with Mrs. Clarence War-

Yale Henry has gone east on a short visit.

Charles W. Lawrence has returned to the city.

Miss Blanche Burke has returned to Chicago to resume her hospital work.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

OGDEN.

The banquet, reception and ball given Thursday evening at the Fifth ward amusement hall by the Ogden tabernacle choir in honor of the presidency of the city wards was a most enjoyable event. There were present over 200 guests. President L. W. Shurtliff was master of ceremonies, and Judge H. H. Rolapp toastmaster. A number of toasts were given, a sumptuous banquet served, and dancing enjoyed until after midnight.

A pretty home wedding took place Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William McClure, 115 Twenty-third street, where their son Archie was married to Miss Bertha M. Crowl. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. E. Carver in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends, after the extending of congratulations the guests sat down to an elaborate repast. The bridesmaid was Miss Kate McClure, and David Morley acted as best man. The parlor was prettily decorated with cut flowers and evergreens. Mr. and Mrs. McClure are among Ogden's most popular young people. They will be at home to their friends at 122 Twenty-fourth street after Oct. 1.

Dr. and Mrs. Back returned home this week from an eastern pleasure trip.

Mrs. W. G. Dulympie entertained the ladies of the Congregational church at her home Thursday afternoon.

Miss Mary A. Morley, one of Ogden's popular young ladies, was married Wednesday evening to Daniel J. Christensen, a prominent young man of Evanston, Wyo., where they will make their future home.

Arthur L. Lauder, a well known employee of the railway mail service, and one of the best known young men in the city was wedded Thursday night at Oakland, Cal., to Miss Sophie Hansen, a charming young California lady. They will spend a two weeks' honeymoon touring the coast, returning to Ogden to make their home.

On Wednesday evening at the pretty home of the bride's mother, on Grant avenue, Miss Marian Boyle was married to Frank L. Fretwell, Rev. Alfred W. Brown officiating. The guests were present only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Fretwell are among Ogden's best known and popular young people. They will make Ogden their home.

Mrs. Archie Bowman has gone to Logan to reside for the month.

Mrs. H. C. Wood had as her guest this week Mrs. J. D. Wood of Salt Lake City.

Miss Pearly Snyder's dramatic recital was a literary treat seldom enjoyed by an Ogden audience. Miss Snyder's rendition of some choice character literature was dramatic and artistic. Prof. Charles Kent and Mrs. Kate Bridwell Anderson rendered several choice solos during the evening, and Miss Dolt Pett presided at the piano.

Miss Genevieve Chase, one of Ogden's most charming young ladies, and a leader in society, was wedded Wednesday evening at the home of her parents on Washington avenue to Mr. John W. Durkin, a well known young railroad man. After the ceremony a reception was given to their friends. Mr. and Mrs. Durkin left Thursday for a month's visit in Colorado and at the world's fair.

PROVO.

Provo—One of the pleasant events of the week was the china shower given by Miss Hazel Taylor, Monday afternoon in honor of Miss Vera Hardy. The decorations throughout the house were artistically arranged. Particularly beautiful was the arrangement of the luncheon table. The pink color scheme was carried out, both in table decorations and service. The place cards were heart shaped, with the picture of cupid hand-painted on each. Each guest also received a photo of the bride, to be. From the table center piece, (which was a large bunch of pink tea roses) tiny ribbons were tied, the other end of the ribbon being attached to pink candles and placed at each plate. With the pink candelabra, dishes and embroidered linen, the table presented a pretty picture. The guests were served from dainty china cups, which were, after the luncheon, presented, by those present, to the guest of honor. The invited guests were Vera Hardy, Misses Ada and Lorena Dusenberry, Jennie Thompson, Hattie Pike, Birdie Cuff, Jennie Jones, Margaret Thurman, Emily Whitney, Florence Gay, Thea Hardy, Ida Snoot Dusenberry and Mrs. Thompson.

The ladies of the Leocadia club are anticipating, with pleasure, the opening season of the club, which will be held at the home of the president, Mrs. Rob Irvine, next Wednesday afternoon.

The latest addition to literary circles is the organization of a "Sunshine" club. It was with no small degree of amusement that the writer, from a side window, witnessed the organization, last Monday evening. The club met with Miss Annie Taylor. The oldest member, being but 10 years. Each in turn presented reasons why she should be chosen president, and it was with much difficulty officers were found for all present. Those present were Margaret Dusenberry, Lall Irvine, Anna Taylor, Renon Kling, Leah Snow, Grace Saxey, Eva Kuler, Zola Roberts, Jessie Oliver and Nannie O'Graine. The club adjourned to meet with Miss Margaret Dusenberry in one week.

The Misses Beniah and Lena Bachman entertained at a dinner party last Sunday evening. Covers were laid for six. Fall leaves and flowers were used for decoration. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Schwab, Mr. Ben Schwab and Mr. Felix Bachman.

At the last meeting of the Nineteenth Century club, held at the home of Mrs. Sam Schwab, on Academy avenue, Mr. Whitcomb delivered an instructive and interesting lecture, subject, "Shakespeare's 'Hamlet.'" A number of invited guests were present who were pleased with the privilege of listening to so profitable a lecture.

A reorganization of the Myrtles' club was effected Thursday afternoon, at the kindergarten rooms, of the Normal training school building. Miss Berlie Walsh was chosen president, with Bortha Barney vice president, Leona White secretary, Theresa Maser, corresponding secretary, and Annie Sharp, treasurer. The members of the club comprise the young ladies taking kindergarten normal training, and judging from the energetic spirit manifested, so far, the success of the Myrtles, from a social and intellectual standpoint, is assured.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant C. Bagley were visitors at the capital on Wednesday.

Mrs. Clark Newell of Eureka is visiting her parents, in Provo, for a few days.

Mr. A. J. Evans of Lehi was a Provo visitor on Monday.

Prof. Lund and Anderson gave a most successful concert in College hall, B. Y. university, Friday evening. This event was complimentary to Mr. Willard Andelin who expects to leave for Europe some time this month, to continue his musical studies.

Mrs. Reed Snoot and daughter Annie were Salt Lake visitors Tuesday.

Judge W. A. Dusenberry and daughter Jennie attended the Democratic celebration in Salt Lake City Wednesday.

Maxey and Mrs. Roylance spent Wednesday in Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Ida Snoot Dusenberry was the guest of Mrs. Rebecca E. Little in Salt Lake City last Sunday.

Miss Florence Gay who has been visiting friends in Provo for the past month, returned to her home in Salt Lake City Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Richards are visiting friends in Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Reed Snoot was hostess at a pretty arranged Kensington tea in honor of the Ladies' Republican club Thursday afternoon. Fall leaves and French marigolds were the decorations used throughout the house. A dainty luncheon was served carrying out the color scheme of red, white and blue, while each napkin was folded and fastened with a Roosevelt pin. The members were Mrs. Mrs. Gladys Hatherbrook, McBride, Hodson, Stewart, Vincent, Hardy, Homer, Clove, Moore, Bachman, Cheever, John, Brerton, Chappel, Stewart, Saxey, Armstead, Wilson, Ward, and Mrs. C. A. Glazier. The Misses Armstead, Ward and Brerton. The guests were favored with several vocal selections by Miss Eva Ward.

Lieut. Green of Fort Douglas spent Sunday with friends in Provo.

Mr. Tom Giles and Walter Poulton of Salt Lake City were Provo visitors during the week.

The event, around which has centered interested attention during the past week, was the marriage of one of Provo's most beautiful daughters, Miss Vera Hardy, to Mr. Alfred Van Dyke of Salt Lake City. The ceremony was performed Wednesday, at the Salt Lake Temple by President Winder. Thursday evening a pretty arranged reception was given at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Hardy. Autumn leaves, entwined with fall flowers were effectively arranged throughout the different rooms, presenting a very pretty picture. The luncheon table was in green and white, the center piece being a wedding cake surrounded by green candles. There were many beautiful wedding presents, together with congratulations and best wishes for the happiness of Mr. and Mrs. Van Dyke. They will leave soon for San Francisco where they expect to make their home.

LOGAN.

Logan—Mrs. Capt. Styer was the hostess at a very delightful card party on Wednesday afternoon. The house was prettily decorated with autumn flowers and a most delicious lunch was served. The prizes were won by Mrs. George W. Thatcher, Jr., and Mrs. Walter Mattinglin. Those present were Messadmes G. H. Champ, A. M. Flemming, C. I. Goodwin, W. J. Kerr, W. S. Langton, George W. Thatcher, Jr., Bartlett, Ostien, Clark J. Shepherd, A. Thompson, J. A. Whitsoe, L. A. Merrill, Bexell, Engle, T. W. Naylor, V. L. Preston, Jr., Dunbar, L. Ward, W. McLaughlin, Misses Flora Chamberlain, Nora and Jennie Ellison.

A very pleasant social event of the week was the linen shower given by Mrs. Prof. Whitsoe and Miss Holmgren in honor of Mrs. Genevieve Eckert whose marriage to Mr. Jack Chase of Centerville, occurs in October.

Mrs. George W. Thatcher spent the week in Salt Lake visiting with Mr. and Mrs. George E. Blair.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Flemming are at home again after a very pleasant visit at the St. Louis fair.

Mr. Leo Campbell has returned from Salt Lake.

Hon. C. W. Nibley and daughters Rea and Julia have returned from Europe and report a most enjoyable time.

Eddie Hahn is in Logan again after having spent the summer in Europe.

Mr. Sumner Hatch who has been out with a surveying party this summer has returned home.

The first meeting of the A. C. Woman's club was held on Monday afternoon. A most interesting paper on "Egyptian Architecture" was read by the president, Mrs. Ostien. The subjects to be taken up this year are architecture and household decoration.

President F. M. Lyman and Apostle Hyrum Smith were in attendance at the Hyrum stake at Millville, Sunday and Monday and returned to Salt Lake Tuesday.

Col. G. B. Squires of Salt Lake spent Monday in Logan.

Paul Henning of Mexico City spent Sunday in Logan and returned to Salt Lake Monday.

Mr. Enoch Amussen spent Friday and Saturday in Salt Lake on business.

Miss Maggie Smith has resigned her position with H. G. Hayball and is now with the Logan Knitting factory.

Clark J. N. Larson spent the early part of the week in the county distributing registration supplies.

Mrs. Mary Guild is here from Piedmont, Wyo., visiting with Mrs. Lucy Cardon and other relatives.

Mrs. C. C. Amussen and daughters are at home with Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Amussen awaiting the completion of their new home in Salt Lake.

Mrs. M. S. Ormaby and family are now located in the Amussen home on Center street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Langton left during the week for Rexburg where they will reside. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Langton regret their departure from Logan very much.

Mr. George H. Champ is in Idaho on business.

Judge William H. King and Hon. George Barber held a political meeting in Richmond the first of the week.

Miss Carmie Thatcher has returned to her home in Salt Lake after a pleasant visit with Miss Veda Thatcher.

Miss Veda Thatcher is visiting friends in Salt Lake.

Mr. C. W. Nibley, Jr., left during the week for Star valley.

Maj. R. W. Young of Salt Lake is in Logan on business.

Mrs. John B. Thatcher, Jr., of Star valley is in Logan visiting with relatives and friends.

The marriage of Mr. Wallace Thatcher of Bedford, Wyo., and Miss Estha Hatch of Chesterfield, and Mr. Estha Hatch and Miss Veda Call of Chesterfield, were solemnized in the Logan Temple on Wednesday.

LEHI.

Lehi—Mr. John Y. Smith left last Saturday for the St. Louis fair, Chicago and Boston.

Miss Blanche Cherry of Salt Lake City was visiting Mrs. H. E. Snelaker.

Hon. Thomas R. Cutler was a Lehi visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. C. H. Clayton of Provo was visiting friends here last week.

Mrs. John Y. Smith left for Portland, Or., Saturday, for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Queen Carter.

Miss Ada Williams of Provo was visiting friends here the first of the week.

Mrs. James H. Gardner left for Portland, Or., Saturday, for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Queen Carter.

Mr. Thomas Ansell of Rexburg, Ida. was making hands with friends here the first of the week.

Mrs. John P. Cutler returned from Park City Sunday after spending a few weeks there with relatives.

Mrs. M. J. Snow of Provo is visiting with Mrs. William Cox.

Mrs. S. L. Wells was visiting relatives in Salt Lake City all of last week.

Hon. George Ansell went to Garland Tuesday on business.

Mrs. Frank Beckstead of Garland is visiting here.

Mr. Ray Bone is down from Canada.

Mr. Monroe Wilson of Soda City was a visitor here the first of the week.

Last Friday a very enjoyable dance was Banks' MILLINERY.

116 Main St.
Some Extra Specials!
On While They Last.
Velvet Toques, Turbins and Hats, all Colors, regular $6.00 and $7.50 Values (each)—
$3.75 and $4.75
Suit Hats, Made of Broadcloth, fine felts, Stylishly Trimmed, all Colors in the New Shapes (each)—
$1.75 to $4.50
Some Special drives in Trimmed Hats. They may Suit You. All that Commends them to us is their Exceptional Values (each)—
$1.25 and $1.50
Any of our fine Patterns Shown at the first opening will be offered at reduced prices of 1-3 to 1-2 off the original price. The early Purchasers Monday Morning can get rare bargains and an Excellent variety to Select from.
116 S. Main Street.

NOW IS THE TIME FOR FURS AND Glosz's The Place
NOTHING BUT FURS. EVERYTHING IN FURS.
FOR LADIES', GENTLEMEN and Children. Remodeling, Repairing and Redying of Furs. Garments made to order and perfect satisfaction guaranteed. Mail orders promptly attended to.
I. C. GLOSZ,
EXCLUSIVE FURRIER.
270 MAIN STREET.