The adobe building at 165 south State street, occupied by the Eclipse Livery stable, has been condemned by City Ruilding Inspector F. W. Lewis as being unsafe and the owners will be compelled to either furnish a bond to the city to protect it argund such dam. the city to protect it against any dam-age which might be caused by the falling of the building or they will have to tear it down. The inspector will en-deavor to have the council amend the building ordinance so as to prohibit the use of adobes in any buildings inside The passengers on a north bound Ashton avenue car were deeply moved yesterday afternoon, by the distress of a young mother with an apparently dying babe in her arms. The anxious mother alighted at Third South street, where she made a record run for the Mercantile block. While waiting in a doctor's office for relief, a lady also waiting, took in the situation, and explained to the mother that her child was suffering from colic, and told her what to do. The simple remedy was secured at a drug store, it "worked to a charm." and the babe was laughing and crowing in a few moments there-
