Special Notices.

It Can Not Be Denied.

DOOLLEY'S BAKING POWDER has not only attained the position of the best, but the cheapest baking powder now in use. Strictly pure in its combination, and so exactly proportioned, that there is no trouble in making light, sweet biscuits, rolls, pastry, &c., every time. It is the cheapest to consumers, as one pound will go further in the culinary department than two pounds of any others in the market. Try it and be convinced. For sale by all grocers.

A. A. Fuller, of Boston, says, "I used Burnett's Cocoaine and Kalliston for Dandruff which would cover my coat collar like a shower of snow, and the Dandruff and Irritation ceased."

Gentlemen, after shaving, who suffer from the smarting effects of soap, will find instant relief in the use of Burnett's Kalliston.

Burnett's Extract of Vanilla is free from Tonka Bean, or other impurities.

Burnett's Florida Water, in millions of homoeopathic atoms, seem to have been combined in this delicious perfume.

Whitecomb's Asthma Remedy in all cases will most surely and quickly afford relief.

BAD BLOOD.—The Red Jacket Stomach Bitters are the best blood purifier in existence. They cleanse the stomach, produce appetite, and consequently remove dyspepsia, mental depression, fevers, &c., &c. They are for sale by druggists and general dealers.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY.

A HOAX.—Handbills have been recently stuck on the walls, around the city, announcing that fifty carpenters were wanted to work on the Union Pacific Railroad, and that parties wishing to engage were to apply at the office of Sharp & Young. Messrs. Sharp and Young, having had several applicants in response to this call, wish us to state that they have nothing to do with the said bills; they do not want carpenters, and when they do, they will advertise through the columns of the newspapers as white men should do.

RETURNING MISSIONARY.—Elder Chas. Wilden, of Beaver City, who left to go on a mission to England, on the 16th of last June, arrived at Ogden last Thursday evening and in this city on Saturday; he left Liverpool on the 20th ult. He was released to return home on account of ill health. He had in his charge from Liverpool to this Territory nine members of the Church from Scandinavia, the last of the present season's emigration.

DEPARTURE.—President Young, accompanied by Hons. John Taylor and Jos. A. Young, left this city this morning for Ogden. They will proceed as far as Kaysville in their carriages, and thence to Ogden and back by rail. They expect to be back tomorrow.

ACCIDENT TO THE ST. CLAIR PARTY.

A letter from Mr. St. Clair, dated Kelton, on Pacific Railroad, Nov. 13, says that shortly after the party left Boise city, last week, the leaders of Mrs. St. Clair's carriage took fright and ran, completely demolishing the carriage, but fortunately inflicting no further injury; the party came on by stage. Mrs. St. Clair will lecture at Brigham City and Farmington this week, and in this city next week, en route through Utah and the Northwest.

INDIANS ATTEMPTING SUICIDE.

The Indians, recently convicted, at Omaha, of the murder of Mr. McMarty, do not relish the idea of being hung, and have made several attempts to commit suicide. Their last exploit in this line took place on the 10th inst., when, according to the Herald of the 11th inst., they, in some manner procured some sharp sticks, with one of which Horse Driver attempted to stab himself in the chest, the novel weapon penetrating quite a distance, but doing no material injury. The Wolf again attempted the experiment of running a stick down his throat, but was equally unsuccessful with his companion in putting an end to his life, and opening the door of the happy hunting grounds of the spirit land.

They were attended by Dr. Tilden, and afterwards placed in irons by the marshal, in order to prevent any further attempts of a similar nature.

The same paper contains an account of the destruction, by fire, on the 10th inst., of the Trinity Episcopal Church, erected two years ago. The organ, altar, communion service, bishop's chair, baptismal font, pulpit, reading desk and the greater portion of the carpet were also destroyed, the entire loss being estimated at $18,000.

A defective flue in the furnace was supposed to have been the cause of the fire.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY.

ARRIVAL AT OMAHA.—A telegram from Hon. W. H. Hooper to President Young, received this afternoon, announces that he and friends had reached Omaha all well.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Ezekiel L. Pratt, recently arrived from Mississippi, would like to learn the whereabouts of his relatives and friends in this Territory. Address, Salt Lake City.

THE LATE FIRE AT HELENA.—The following particulars of the recent fire at Helena, Ma., are from the Helena Gazette, of the 9th inst. The fire broke out shortly before two o'clock on the afternoon of Sunday, the 7th inst., in the dressing room of the Wood Street Theatre, and as the wind was blowing strong at the time, and the building was composed of combustible materials, it and several buildings adjoining were soon consumed. The whole of the wardrobe and scenery of the Theatre, and the musical instruments of the members of the orchestra, were also consumed. The value of the property destroyed is estimated at $20,000, about half of which belonged to the Theatre. None of the property was insured. The fire was believed to be the work of incendiary.

The citizens of Helena promptly tendered a complimentary benefit to the losers at the Theatre.

PUT UP BOXES.—Now that the evenings are long and the winter advancing, it would be well for all our subscribers to place boxes in which their evening paper may be safely deposited by the carriers.

The weather is getting bad, the evenings often stormy, and the carriers anxious to get over their rounds; and to have to shout "paper" at the house of every subscriber, and then throw the News over the fence on to the ground, would neither be convenient nor pleasant, hence the necessity of placing a little box at the entrance of their lots in front of their dwellings. The very slight trouble required will be amply repaid by the convenience of a clear dry paper every evening.

LETTERS.—There are letters lying at this office addressed to Mr. Wm. Steers and Mr. Simeon Wicker, which can be had on application.

INTERVIEWED.—We had a very pleasant interview, to-day, with Sir Michael Beach and J. F. Cheetham, Esq., English gentlemen travelling for pleasure. They left England towards the end of last Summer and are now en route for the East, whence they will make a tour through the Southern States.

THE VIRGINIA AND TRUCKEE RAILROAD.—The rails were laid on this line of railroad as far as the city of Gold Hill last Friday, and, judging from the account published in the Nevada Territorial Enterprise, of Saturday, the people of Gold Hill had a high old time in celebrating the event. On entering the town of Gold Hill, the rails, laid across the Crown Point Ravine, are 83 feet in height. As the first engine neared this point flags were unfurled from all the mills, hoisting works and public buildings in the town, all the steam whistles began to screech, the brass band played, cannon fired, and a most unearthly din was made, and for half an hour, the local of the Enterprise says, the whole place was worse than his worst ideas of hell. After the trains had passed over the bridge, into the town, and halted, all hands partook of champagne, lager, etc., and the speeches commenced, but the din was so great that he, the Enterprise reporter, though possessing a full share of ear, and very attentive, could not hear a word. When the steam whistles were turned loose those of Virginia joined the chorus, and for an hour and a half, it is said, there was the most infernal howling along the Comstock range that ever was heard. The rails would reach Virginia City early this week, when another celebration, "more diabolical" than that at Gold Hill, was to take place.

The same papersays that during this week the last spike of the Virginia and Carson Railroad would be driven in Virginia City. The spike is of silver and would be driven with a silver sledge weighing fifty ounces.

STAGE ACCIDENTS.—Two stages, running from the terminus of the U. P. R. R. to Salt Lake City, met with accidents on Saturday which, though not resulting very seriously, were not pleasant to those who participated in them. The roads have been and still are in a very bad condition, as all who travel between here and Ogden well know. In many places there are deep washes and chuck-holes. In going over one of these the afternoon coach was capsized; no limbs, however, were broken, and, save a little fright, the passengers sustained no injury; and in a short time the coach was again on the road.

When the evening coach came along, it, too, performed the same feat, though probably not at the same part of the road. Several of the passengers were more or less bruised, but none seriously, except one gentleman, a Mr. H. J. Rogers, of Cheyenne, whose leg was badly sprained. No broken or dislocated limbs are reported.

KNITTING MACHINE.—The Fifteenth Ward Female Relief Society have imported a knitting machine, called the American Family Knitting Machine, which is said to be a very excellent one. A little girl thirteen years of age has learned to use it, and can supply stockings for the million, at cheap rates. Mrs. Sarah M. Kimball, president of the Society, is agent for the sale of this machine, and any parties desirous to see it operate can do so by going to the Fifteenth Ward Co-operative Store. The price is only $25.

HORSE STEALING.—We have received the following per Deseret Telegraph line:

BEAVER, Nov. 16, '69.

Ed. Deseret News:—On Friday, the 12th inst., Wm. Allred, of this place, found that one of his horses had disappeared from the east field. After searching some time he got on the horse's track, leading over the mountains to the Sevier. On Saturday morning he started on foot from Beaver, armed with a double barreled shot-gun and a revolver, and having with him three days' provisions. He followed the trail, and on Sunday morning, about 8 o'clock, came in sight of his horse, which was grazing in an open space about forty miles from Beaver, on the east side of the mountains, between Circleville and Marysville. He then took a circuit around, got ahead of the trail and ambushed himself behind some rocks close to the trail, knowing that an Indian had the horse as he had seen his foot prints and camp fires. In a short time the Indian came along mounted on the horse, and when within about twenty or twenty-five yards from bro. Allred, the latter fired one barrel of his shot-gun, loaded with five revolver bullets, which settled the account with Mr. Indian. He was a strange Indian and wore a Navajo blanket. Bro. Allred took his horse with the Indian's saddle and bridle rope and came home, arriving here on Sunday evening at 9 p.m. The Indian had marked his trail all along, and is very likely one of the Navajos that have been raiding South lately.

A NEW DRUG STORE.—Zion's Wholesale Co-operative Mercantile Institution will open, in a few days, another branch of their establishment for the sale of drugs, perfumery, and everything in that line. They have purchased the stock of the Messrs. Bauman, which, in addition to that they have imported, will make the largest and best assortment in the Territory. The drug store will be in the building one door south of the Overland Telegraph Office, East Temple street.

B. LINDEROTH, if in the city, will oblige by calling upon Geo. Q. Cannon at this office.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY.

DEATH OF MISS ANNIE LOCKHART.—It is with extreme regret that we are called upon to record the demise of Miss Annie Lockhart, who for several months past has appeared prominently before the public of this city as an actress at the Salt Lake Theatre. She has been indisposed for a considerable time past, but not so as to cause alarm in the minds of her friends. Shortly after her arrival in this city she had an attack of Mountain Fever, and has never been so well since as before; but her health has been sufficiently good to permit her to attend to her professional duties. On the morning of Monday last, while at rehearsal, she was taken suddenly ill, and was unable to appear on Monday evening as announced, inflammation of the bowels having set in. Medical assistance was procured for her, but it proved unavailing, and she gradually sank and died at 5 o'clock this morning.

Although Miss Lockhart has played at the Salt Lake theatre, and was on terms of intimacy and friendship with the ladies and gentlemen of the establishment, yet little that is authentic is known of her early life or history. She is supposed to have been born in Derbyshire, England, but spent a great part of her life in London, emigrating from there to Australia about ten years ago. While in Australia she adopted the stage as a profession, and rapidly attained a high degree of proficiency. In 1865 she left Australia and came to San Francisco, playing at Maguire's Opera House, the Metropolitan and other theatres in California.

She came to this city on the 8th of last February and made her first appearance on the 10th as "Parthenia," in "Ingomar." Since that period she has occupied the position of leading lady in the Stock Company, and appeared for the last time on the evening of Saturday last as "Jeanne Pujol," in "Claude Marcel, or the Idiot of the Mountain."

She was a very accomplished lady and a clever actress, and was much esteemed and respected by the ladies and gentlemen with whom she associated in the Theatre, and by her circumspect course and deportment since residing here she had gained the respect of our citizens generally.

Her funeral obsequies will take place at the 13th Ward Meeting House at 10 o'clock to-morrow.

MONKI'S CIRCUS.—The Morning Call, San Francisco, of last Sunday, says that Monki's circus has been drawing immensely in that city for the past few days. The entire troupe consists of Signor Manageri, Signor Grindero, leader of the orchestra, consisting of a hand organ, and Signor Monki. They perform on any convenient spot in the streets, and though they do not make so much show as Castello's circus, they draw well and do a good business.

THE CHURCH LANGUISHING IN DENVER.—The Colorado Tribune, of last Sunday (Nov. 14), publishes a feeling appeal to the citizens of Denver, to be more liberal in support of the Christian Churches and pastors in that city. It says that Denver has 6000 inhabitants, prides itself on being civilized, claims to be the centre of talent, commerce, religion, beauty, literature, enterprise, etc., and yet it, the Tribune, doubts if, with all these pretensions, there are above 400 out of the 6000 inhabitants who regularly attend any place of worship. Half of these, at least, never contribute to the support of the churches they attend, except occasionally dropping a torn ten-cent shin-plaster into the contribution box when it is put under their noses and they cannot help themselves.

The Tribune thinks every woman in Denver ought to be interested in rendering aid for the support of the churches, and that it is disgraceful that any of the Protestant churches there should have to ask aid from the headquarters of their churches in the East.

These remarks of the Tribune are not very flattering to the status of the citizens of Denver as Christians, and for their own credit they had better give heed to its well-timed suggestions.
