Presidents Jeseph F. Smith and L. W. shurtliff Listen to Sweet Music.

A pleasant surprise was given Saturday evening on Presidents Joseph F. Smith and L. W. Shurtliff at the lat-ter's home, where the Ogden tabernarie choir assembled and gave a serenade in their honor. There were about 150 members of the choir present. At 9:45 the choir gathered on the laws in members of the choir present. At 9:45 the choir gathered on the lawn in front of the president's home. They sang, "Oh. Ye Mountains High." The beautiful singing brought the presi-dents on to the porch. C. J. Ross, in behalf of the choir, thanked President Smith for his support to the choir, es-pecially in his assistance in making the Portland trip possible by financial ald. The choir sang, "We Thank Thee, O God, For a Prophet."

President Smith expressed his appre-lation to the choir for the mark of ciation to the choir for the mark of kindness shown him in giving the sere-nade, and his gratitude for the loyal support given him, and encouraged the members in their work. He praised their work done at the Portland fair. President Shurtliff also expressed his deep appreciation, and after handshak-ing with the presidents, the choir with-drew.
