EARTHQUAKES SHAKE OGDEN.

Three Distinct Shocks Were Felt
In That City Yesterday Afternoon.

Violent At West Weber.

Great Excitement Prevailed
Though no One Was Injured
And no Damage Was Done.

Course of the Quakes Was From North To South—People Much Frightened at the Shocks.

(Special to the "News.")

Ogden, May 25.—There were three distinct earthquakes in this city and county yesterday afternoon. The first occurred at 2:10, and it was followed by two others which came two or three minutes apart. The shocks were felt everywhere else, though they passed through the Fifth ward of Ogden and caused a great deal of excitement, though no damage was done, and no person was hurt. However, there was much excitement. Some San Francisco people who passed through the middle of their own city a few weeks ago were here and they were noticeably agitated.

At West Weber people who were at work in the fields were almost thrown from their feet. Dishes and furniture rattled in the houses and the tremors were most pronounced. The same may be said in Ogden.

Hooper was also visited by the same shocks that were felt in the other parts of the valley. So far as known there was no damage done anywhere but in each case the quake was so strong as to leave no possible doubt in the minds of any person as to what was the matter.

Mrs. W. E. Stoker was standing near her back porch when the first shock came. She said she could not think what was the matter, never before had she felt an earthquake. Near her on the porch stood a small washstand with a dish of water on it; the earth rocked so badly that the water was spilled and the dish thrown against the wall, and Mrs. Stoker experienced a peculiar sensation. Her son was working in the field about 40 rods from the house. When the first shock came he was bent over and felt as though he would be thrown to the earth; he raised up and looked around to see what was the matter, when the second rocking occurred, causing a dizzy feeling to come over him. He started for the house when he felt the third trembling of the earth. A lady was crossing a foot bridge at West Weber when the shock came, and she felt as though she was going to be thrown into the ditch. They state that a rumbling, cracking noise was heard. A lady who was in the San Francisco quake last month was at Mrs. Stoker's house, and stated that the earthquakes were ex-

OGDEN RAPID TRANSIT.

Track to Mouth of Canyon to be Rushed Through.

Ogden, May 25.—Assistant Superintendent J. W. Bailey of the Ogden Rapid Transit company, states that the company is having some delay in getting the laying of their track to the mouth of Ogden canyon. The entire distance is covered except about a quarter of a mile which will be rushed just as soon as the ties arrive. The company received a large shipment of poles this week, and has put their force of men to work placing them so that the electric wires can be strung, and in that way when the track is completed to the canyon the poles and wires will have been placed so that cars can be run over the line at once. The grading work is practically completed and the company expects to be able to run cars to the sanitarium in a very short time.

SAMARIA, IDAHO.

Rear River Valley Prosperous—S. S. Convention at Portage.

Special Correspondence.
Samaria, Idaho, May 22.—The country in the north part of the Rear River valley, and the Malad valley, never looked any better than it does now. Old settlers say never since this country has been settled have crops of all kinds looked any better. The abundant rains have made everything look beautiful, and the absence of any heavy frosts have made this an ideal spring. Farmers meet you with a smile and say the country does, indeed, look lovely. The hatch of new subscribers I send you today and the renewal show the farmers real jubilation, and the cash remittances prove it.

Fielding is a mile from Collinston and although the road was deep and the roads rough, and the new railroad is from three to eight miles from all the towns except Gardiner, Portage and Malad, yet we make it by stage or buggy, Plymouth, or as it is sometimes called, "Sourthern Town" is situated about seven miles from Fielding, and has little water, but new homes are springing up, and they hope they will have a canal, and then it will grow. It is a small town, with a large acreage. West Portage is also a very small town on the west side of the valley. Much good land and but little water. The dead trees all along the highway are silent monuments to the severity of water.

Twelve miles on a rumbling and shaky stage wagon bring us to Samaria, one of the most prosperous towns in the Malad valley. These people suffered for water for years, and hauled for 25 years or more, all the water they used for household purposes, but they have learned that under the earth is an abundance of water, and the men who have the means are sinking artesian wells, and are meeting with splendid success.

Samaria, Greenleaf and Pleasant View and near Malad are some splendid wells, and all it needs on all these dry valleys is money, pipe and machinery strong enough to sink to furnish water for much of the land that is now known as dry farming, and this water from below the surface is free from weeds and all kind of rubbish and is also a trifle warmer. Elder W. A. Mortenson of the Sunday School Union board held a Sunday school convention at Portage Sunday morning and afternoon and drove 12 miles to Samaria and held an evening meeting. He had a large congregation and in his usual spirited manner held his audience, and did so by the amount of good among the young people. Many of his friends were sorry he was going to Europe, as they believe in him among the young people of Zion are highly appreciated, and his easy and cheerful way of presenting the beautiful truths of the Gospel touch the hearts of the young people of Zion. The health of the people has been good all winter. There is a small amount of scarlet fever, but all are rapidly improving.

GRADUATION EXERCISES.

Interesting Address by President Kingsbury of the U. of C.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, May 25.—The public school graduation exercises held yesterday afternoon and evening in the opera house, were attended by immense audiences on both occasions. In the afternoon the children and in the evening by the parents and other adults. The 63 graduates, 31 boys and 32 girls, were grouped in a pleasing manner on the stage, and presented a beautiful appearance.

The exercises, as published in the program, were carried through in a manner that reflected credit alike on the pupils and the school. The exercises were thoroughly appreciated by the large audience, and elicited enthusiastic applause.

In the afternoon Judge Booth addressed the graduates on good citizenship, calling their attention to the cost in labor and means of their education, and encouraged them to repay this by becoming good and useful citizens.

In the evening President Kingsbury of the University of Utah delivered an able address on education, showing its growth and contrasting the condition of the graduates of the past and present.

CHAPTER ROYAL ARCH MASONS.

Degrees were conferred last night on members of Provo chapter No. 4, Royal Arch Masons, instituted in this city. The following officers were installed: High priest, H. M. Fredrickson; W. B. Starr, scribe; J. K. Brown, principal; James E. Hosmer, first.

LAKE TOWN.

A Former Resident Dead—Mrs. Burton's Birthday.

Special Correspondence.
Laketown, May 23.—Over the telephone came the tidings that Mrs. Martha Bishop, aged about 53 years, had died at the residence of her son, W. B. Starr, at Laketown, Utah, on the 22nd inst. Mrs. George Early of Round Valley (her daughter) and husband left the same afternoon. Her death was attended by the obsequies. The deceased was the widow of Elder Wm. Bushy and with him was one of the very early settlers of Laketown, and from here they went to St. David, Idaho, and all the time a few years ago, when they returned and spent the remainder of their lives chiefly with their daughter at Woods Cross, making some visits to their Bear Lake valley kin and friends.

Both were very highly esteemed by all acquaintances, and were ever known to be true to the Gospel.

Mrs. Ann Burton, known to all travelers throughout the valley as the genial proprietress of the Keart House here, a pursuit she has so capably followed for perhaps a third of a century; a resident of Utah, a pioneer of Grantsville and Laketown, and one of the earth's noble women, attained in good health and spirits the close of her seventh year on the 22nd inst. Her legion of kindred and friends, scattered from Canada southward, will wish that the useful life of the venerable matron will be gratifyingly prolonged.

The Scofield of Ogden were represented this week by Messrs. Hartog and Barnes, hustling orders respectively for the grocery and dry goods departments.

Bishops Isaac T. Price and Samuel Weston of Round Valley and Garden City wards were here on Sunday to attend the branch of their quorum's monthly meeting, and remained and addressed the people in the ward meeting, giving practical and valuable counsel.

Added to the meetinghouse erection, our men and boys, under the direction and co-operation of Bishop Robinson, are at work and will so continue the afternoon of each, during the public square grounds, erecting a substantial picket fence around the 10 acre plot of land. Civic improvement seems to be the all prevailing motto.

Messieurs Ketch and Stewart, representing the state organization, made an official call upon and talk to the local primary association on Saturday afternoon.

St. Sussner, the electrician of Paris, Idaho, was here a few days ago investigating the outlook for the establishment of an electric light system hereabouts. It is presumed that the days of the kerosene lamp in our habitations are numbered.

Lyman Early of Round Valley is home this week from Fielding academy, which he attended as a student the past season.

Availing themselves of the opening of the roads to Cache Valley, Messrs. Hyrum Nebeker and Geo. Stanton and Mesdames Joseph A. Hulme, L. P. Moomch, Jr., and Stanton went through the hills, on visit to kin and friends at Hyrum and Logan this week.

At this writing the general health is excellent—the air is fresh and cool and a gratifying harvest—a host of wagons laden with potatoes and other farm and dairy products are moving toward the Evanston and Kennerly markets. A feeling of content and prosperity is everywhere evident.

PEOPLE WHO LIVE LONGEST.

Certain physical characteristics are usually associated with longevity. Perhaps the most noticeable of these is carriage. Ninety-nine out of a hundred people have curvature of the spine. The octogenarian is the hundredth man. His spine is a straight line, his head erect, his chest broad and deep. This means that the vital organs are properly supported by the attachments provided by nature and that they do not rest on an uneven and crowded The heart, lungs, stomach, liver and kidneys are thus enabled to do their work unimpeded.

Another characteristic is the habit of slow, deep respiration. The oxygen is real food, for only the matter oxidized in the system becomes tissue. Deep, full breathing means an immensely increased amount of oxygen ingested and an equally augmented quantity of poison matter eliminated by the lungs. Mental quietude is essential to proper breathing. The excited person, the emotional individual who suffocates with joy, palpitates with enthusiasm, chokes with rage, gasps in astonishment, sighs from the intensity of his attachments—the individual who is every day in a hurry in his respiration abbreviates his life.

Another physical characteristic is ease and repose of movement. The old person—the hale, vigorous, healthy old man—moves easily, lightly, silently. He has always moved that way.

A fourth peculiarity of those who live long is that they are invariably small and thin. The heart, lungs, stomach, liver and kidneys are thus enabled to do their work unimpeded.

"Perhaps I am not warranted in saying it being I am only an innocent bystander, a mere passer-by, who has no part in the row," grimly observed the Grizzled Bachelor, "but it seems to me that the papers ought to tell what the bridegroom ate for breakfast, the same as they do when a man is hanged."

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN.

From the view point of the average man housework is very easy. The wife is right at home. She is her own mistress. She can sit down and rest any time. She can even go to bed for a nap if she feels like it. She can order her household affairs just to suit her own convenience. If she doesn't feel equal to doing work to-day, she can do it to-morrow. That's the beautiful theory of the average man.

Just suppose the Egyptian task-masters, when they made the required daily tale of bricks tax the uttermost of human strength, had said to the toiling slaves, "Don't hurry, take a rest every now and then—only don't forget that your tale of bricks must be all right at night or else there'll be trouble."

There's the fact. There are the day's duties to be got through, and the women who can rest may not. The woman, who, when she married, said, "Now, I'll be my own mistress," finds herself a slave to household cares and duties.

And oh! how much that woman needs rest sometimes. She brushes and scrubs, and rolls pastry, her temples throbbing, her back aching, her nerves quivering under the stress of pain. What she would give if she could just creep upstairs and throw herself on the bed in a darkened room and rest.

Rest would temporarily relieve the strain, doubtless, but it would be the same story over again to-morrow. The real need of weak, nervous women is strength, and that need is fully met and satisfied by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

It makes weak women strong and sick women well. It removes the causes of women's weaknesses, tranquilizes and invigorates the nerves, encourages the appetite and induces restful sleep. "Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorrhea, excessive flowing, painful menstruation, unnatural suppressions and irregularities, prolapsus or falling of the womb, weak back, "female weakness," anæsthesia, retroversion, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration of the womb, inflammation, pain and tenderness of the ovaries, accompanied by "internal heat."

"I am pleased to add my testimony in behalf of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Miss Earline Agard, Chapin, Patriotic Daughters of America, of 413½ Michigan Avenue, Lansing, Mich. "I cannot find language to express my gratitude and joy over the fact that I am well once more. Wearing my corsets too tight seemed to have brought on an extra abdominal pressure, weakening the ligaments and pushing the internal organs down. What do I know now, as no medicines I took seemed to help me."

"I had heard of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and determined to try it, as a last resort. Before the first bottle was used I began to feel better, but could hardly believe that this was permanent, but my improvement went steadily on, and within four months I was like a new woman. Now I have no more pains, am well and strong, and am extremely grateful to you."

There is nothing to conceal about the make-up of "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION." It is an absolutely pure medicine—made of native roots—Nature's own restoratives, compounded after a formula concerning which there can be no question, by skilled chemists and by thoroughly scientific processes. Doctor Pierce is perfectly willing to let every one know that his "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION" contains Blue Cohosh root, Lady's Slipper root, Unicorn root, Black Cohosh root and Golden Seal root. Every doctor knows that such a prescription is beneficial in the diseases of women and when properly compounded is certain to effect a cure in nearly all cases when given a fair trial. Every bottle of the "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION" which leaves Dr. Pierce's immense laboratories in Buffalo, N. Y., has plainly printed upon its wrapper all the ingredients of which it is composed. Thus Dr. Pierce proves to the world his own confidence in the remedy which for forty years has borne the name of which is known all through the United States and Canada, England, Australia, and in parts of South America, Africa and Asia, as a sovereign cure for those diseases which, unchecked, make our women old before their time.

It will be noticed that there is no alcohol in the "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION." Dr. Pierce never believed in using alcohol in the preparation of his famous household remedies. For it, he substitutes chemically pure glycerine which has wonderful properties for extracting the medicinal principles of roots and preserving them at their full strength, without any deleterious effect whatever.

In favor of Dr. Pierce's medicine is the frank, confiding, open, honest statement of their full composition giving every ingredient in plain English, without fear of successful criticism and with confidence that the good sense of the afflicted will lead them to appreciate this honorable manner of confiding to them what they are taking into their stomachs when making use of these medicines.

Dr. Pierce feels that he can afford to take the afflicted into his full confidence and lay all the ingredients of his medicines freely before them because these ingredients are such as are endorsed and most strongly praised by scores of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice as cures for the diseases for which these medicines are recommended.

Your druggist sells the "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION" and also that famous alternative blood purifier and stimulant, the "GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY." Write to Dr. Pierce about your case. He is an experienced physician and will treat your case as confidential and without charge for correspondence. Address him at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., of which he is chief consulting physician.

It is as easy to be well as ill—and much more comfortable. Constipation is the cause of many forms of illness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, two a mild cathartic. All dealers in medicines sell them.
