DELEGATES ARE NOW SELECTED

Republican Primaries Held Last Night Throughout Salt Lake County.

JUDICIAL CONVENTION.

Complete List of Those Chosen to Select Candidates at Big Political Gathering on Saturday.

For the Republican delegates convention May 7 and the judicial convention May 9, delegates are now selected, they having been chosen at Repupblican wimaries held last night throughout Salt Lake county.

The primaries were the subject of much preliminary speculation on account of the clause at the end of the providing that only Republicans who had an intention of supporting the icket should be admitted. However no practical use of the clause was made ne practical use of the clause was made in challenging votes, and a large number of people aattended each primary, sending in delegations with the backing of a considerable number of votes. The list of judicial convention delegates is the net result of a fight in which J. J. Whitaker has sought a place on the district bench, with the present four judges seeking renomination. Whitaker forces made some invoats upon both Judge Armstrong and Judge Lewis. Judge Morse and Judge Ritchie being sure of renomination. Job Lyon, in the race against Fred C. Loofbourow for the district attorneyship comes out of the primaries with a fighting chance, but Loofbourow has a great percentuage of bourow has a great percentaage of friends in the delegation, and is helped by the possibility of a sentiment for solidly renominating the present judical ticket gaining possession of the abated. Last evening the home of James Eager, 261 south Fifth East street, was ntered by thieves who pried a window open with a "jimmy" while the family was open with a 'jimmy' while the family was away. The robbers ransacked the house thoroughly, turning everything up side down and got away with jewelry and clothing valued at $150. Among the missing articles there are a pair of opera glasses, an old silver watch, a gold brooch, a fountain pen, a gold locket, a new suit of clothes, a pair of shoes and about $6 in cash. The robbery was not discovered until about 11 o'clock when the family returned.

ROBBED WHILE AT PRAYER.

A sacriligious thief last night robbed E. McAdams of a purse containing $4 in money and a check for $7.50 while Miss McAdams was kneeling $7.50 while Miss McAdams was kneeling in prayer at St. Mark's church. Miss McAdams, who lives at the Metropole hotel, entered the church early last evening and noticed a strange man on a seat near her. When she knelt in prayer she observed that the man remained on the seat but was restless. The fellow seized her purse and made his way out of the church, attracting considerable attention by reason of his clumsiness. After the fellow had gone Miss McAdams discovered the loss of her purse. The police were notified and were given a description of the fellow.

Been Deceived By the Cook?

Many men have, and many women have deceived themselves.

When Cook sends in a weak, tasteless cup of drivel to fill your order for Postum you have a right to protest loud and hard.

She has ignored the directions on the pkg. and boiled it only a minute or two.

Demand that it be boiled full 15 minutes after boiling commences, then you will have a breakfast drink with the dark, deep seal brown color, which turns to a rich, golden brown when the cream is added.
