LOCAL BRIEFS.

Shrimps Stop Over—A number of New Jersey Shrimpers were in town yesterday, taking in the sights. They left for home last midnight.

Goodhue Funeral—The funeral of Justin A. Goodhue who died suddenly from apoplexy at the Alta club Thursday evening, will be held at 4 p. m. tomorrow from the Masonic Temple under the auspices of the Mt. Moriah lodge of which the deceased was a member, with interment at Mt. Olivet.

Funeral of Ole Hansen—Ole H. Hansen, who died Thursday morning from tuberculosis, was buried today, services being held at the establishment of Joseph E. Taylor, commencing at 10 o'clock. The deceased was a stone mason and resided at 153 South Fourth East street. A widow and two children survive him.

Newcomer in Thomas Home—A fine baby boy of the buoyant and bounding type made its initial appearance in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Thomas this morning. The arrival of the youngster, the first child of the couple, is heartily welcomed by the Thomas family, the day being the anniversary of the birth of his paternal grandfather, Jenkin Thomas.

Begin Work Monday—Monday morning excavation will commence on the premises at No. 8 West North Temple street, preparatory to the erection of an apartment house for Joseph William Taylor. The structure is designed to cost $25,000, and will be put up by the contracting firm of Miller and Jensen, Dallas & Hodges being the architects.

Narrow Escape in Lake—Mrs. J. Parley White had a dangerous and unpleasant experience while at Salt Lake Thursday afternoon. She was bathing when a sudden and violent wind arose, and it was fully 15 minutes before she could reach the pier, so fierce were the buffeting she received from the waves. But for the fact that she is an expert swimmer and kept her composure during the trying ordeal, it is doubtful if Mrs. White would have reached shore.

REQUEST BY SHIPPERS

Ask Presidents of Eastern Roads to Confer With Them on Rate Increase.

Chicago, July 25.—Shipping interests of the entire country, represented by a committee specially appointed at a general conference of the shippers held recently in Chicago, decided at a meeting here today to ask the presidents of eastern railroads to meet them to discuss the proposed increase in freight rates. It was the unanimous opinion of the committee that before beginning a fight against the increase it would be wise to hold about such a meeting with the railroad officials, if possible, at the same time asking them to put no advances in effect until after the conference had been held.

PROTEST AND APPEAL.

While action on the rate situation was in progress a long protest and appeal to the interstate commerce commission was being formulated by the National Industrial Traffic league, composed of a score of influential manufacturing and shipping organizations at Manitou Springs, Colo. The appeal was for relief from the proposed increase in rates to Texas, and called attention to the fact that in August, 1905, the interstate commerce commission declared a similar increase to be contrary to the provisions of the Sherman anti-trust act.

RULING OF COMMISSION.

The increase in question was made in 1903, and it is maintained that the same conditions prevailed with reference to the present proposed increase to Texas points. In the former case the commission ruled that "when the persons who control these properties (the railroads) can determine in New York what rates shall be advanced and notify their subordinates in the southwest, who these subordinates can determine upon the amount of such advances and the time when they shall take effect; when in addition the persons who control the condition concomitant corresponding advances from the Atlantic seaboard, it can hardly be said that competition plays a large part in determining whether that advance is possible."

THROUGHS FLOCK TO THE RESORTS

Estimated That 22,000 People Left the City for Twenty-Fourth.

LARGE CROWD AT SALT LAKE

Lagoon, Wandamere, Salt Palace, Liberty Park and Emigration Each Have Large Quota.

Salt Lake's population in greater part left the city yesterday for a day's outing at the local resorts. By 4 o'clock in the afternoon the streets were almost deserted, and not until late in the evening were there many people to be found in town. The weather man sent out a forecast of partly cloudy with local showers, but this did not scare a bit and by 1 o'clock every resort was filled and overflowing with a merry throng of pleasure seekers. All anxious to get away from the heat of the city, but those who visited Salt Lake and Lagoon found it but little, if any cooler at these two resorts. So many were the crowd at both places that dancing was almost impossible. Nearly everyone took out a lunch and to find a table was a hard matter. The local parks were crowded and the street car company was taxed to the limit of its capacity. It is estimated that fully 22,000 people were at the various resorts yesterday.

CROWD AT SALT LAKE.
Salt Lake probably had the largest crowd, the management claiming 10,000 visitors at the beach during the afternoon and evening. Of this number about 5,000 took a dip in the brine. The races were well attended as were the other attractions about the beach. Count many went to the races. Just to get a few hours rest.

LAGOON HAD 7,000.

Lagoon was next in line with a crowd of about 7,000, most of whom were present at the league baseball game played in the afternoon. The fresh water bath is becoming more popular each day and several hundreds of people were in bathing during the afternoon.

FIREWORKS AT WANDAMERE.

Wandamere was in the swim and had a crowd of about 2,500 people who enjoyed the day, boating, dancing and in the evening witnessing a beautiful display of fireworks. Large crowds were also present at the horse races and baseball games held in the afternoon.

BAND AT LIBERTY PARK.

At Liberty park Held's band played a concert from 4 to 6 o'clock. There was a baseball game between two amateur teams.

BALLOON AT SALT PALACE.

The Salt Palace was in with the others but their crowds did not begin to arrive until time for the evening's races. Prof. Austin made a balloon ascension at 7:30 o'clock, which was witnessed by hundreds of people. Not at any of the resorts yesterday was there an accident of any kind to mar the pleasures of the day and everything passed off successfully.

ELDER ADMITTED TO THE BAR.

Missionary of the Church Honored in South Carolina.

A letter to relatives in this city states that Elder C. A. Callis was admitted to the bar of the supreme court of South Carolina on the 14th inst. The motion for his admission was made by one of the leading attorneys of Columbia. In response to a question from the chief justice, the attorney who made the motion stated that Mr. Callis bore a letter of introduction from Major Richard W. Young, a prominent attorney of Salt Lake City, to influential business men of Charleston, friends of Major Young. In this letter Mr. Callis was highly recommended for admission to the bar of South Carolina, and his appointment was endorsed by a number of business and professional men of Charleston. The oath of office was then administered to Mr. Callis and his certificate signed by the chief justice and the three attorneys who made the motion. Elder Callis is a member of the bar of the supreme court of Utah, and the bar of Florida. He is the first attorney from Utah to be admitted to the bar of South Carolina or the bar of Florida. Elder Callis is residing over the South Carolina conference.

Look out for a second bond issue next year.

The American crew figures that the income and expenses of the City for 1908 show an estimated shortage of over $100,000. What is the end to be?

DEATH OF ISAAC GOFF.

Old and Respected Resident of West Jordan Passes Away.

Isaac Goff, an old and highly respected resident of West Jordan, died at his home at that place at 12:30 o'clock on the morning of July 24, from asthma. Mr. Goff had been suffering from this complaint for several years. He leaves a wife and two sons, Frank Goff, of Sandy, and J. H. Goff, of Idaho, also two daughters, both of the latter being married. His wife, Mrs. Mary Goff, died in 1882, and he has since been married to Mrs. Sarah Bicker of Salt Lake and Mrs. Emma Naylor of Sandy, England. He emigrated to Utah in 1882, settling in West Jordan, where he has resided ever since. On March 9, 1888, he married Ann Sisan, and was the father of four children, two sons and two daughters, both of the latter being dead. He was well known throughout the country, and had a host of friends.

Do you want your children and children's children to pay for the extravagance and incompetent management of "American" party officials?

BRIGHTON NOTES.

A member of the Deseret News staff telephoned from Brighton this morning that there was an enjoyable celebration on Pioneer day at that place yesterday. All day long and far into the night explosions of giant powder and dynamite made the hills resound. A ball was given in the hotel during the evening, and at night there was a big bonfire celebration, attended by nearly one hundred people, in front of the Grant cottage, Heber J. Grant being among the number. Around the bonfire were singing and instrumental music. Refreshments were passed by the several Misses Grant, and a dozen young ladies who have been their guests during the week. During the day a high flag pole, taller of the ground between the Gates' and Grant cottages, and the flag sent up to the top of the pole with appropriate ceremony.

All the cottages are now open and receiving daily parties. The Grant cottage is a perfect bee hive of industry, as, in addition to the large number of young ladies who are there as guests, Mrs. Grant's club has also arrived. The members are Mrs. S. Kingsbury, Mrs. Wilcox, Mrs. Alfred Benson, Mrs. Nellie Little and Mrs. R. K. Lyman.

At R. W. Young's cottage, Mrs. Julia Taylor, Miss Young's, Mrs. and Mrs. Joseph Howell, Jr., are guests.

At the Ritter cottage are Mr. and Mrs. Ritter and family and Miss Lucy VanCott. George and Odell was guest on the Twenty-fourth.

Among other cottages which have been opened lately are the Moyles', ex-Mayor Morris', and the Odell, Brooks, Golbe, Powers, and several others. Mrs. Charles S. Sisson and Miss Rheban Spencer returned to the city on the Twenty-fourth, owing to Mrs. Newman's ill health.

At Governor Wells and family will be up today to occupy the Mont Perry cottage.

Miss Lillian Wells and Miss Grace Mead will be guests of Miss Marion Wilcox during the week.

Miss Maude May Babcock and Miss Hancock are expected today at the Gates cottages.
