

PREST. CLOWRY ON CAUSE OF STRIKE

Operator Who Deliberately Delayed Messages Discharged Reinstatement Refused.

STRIKERS' STORY DIFFERENT.

Natl. Prest. Small Declares That the Western Union Has Not Lived Up to Agreement.

New York, Aug. 9.—Col. Clowry, president and general manager of the Western Union Telegraph company, today gave out the following statement in relation to the strike at Los Angeles and Chicago:

"On July 23 an operator at Los Angeles was charged with maliciously delaying traffic. A careful investigation, which occupied several days, showed conclusively that he was guilty of deliberately obstructing traffic on important circuits, he was discharged. A petition signed by other employees of the office, requesting his reinstatement was thereupon presented to the superintendent and when the signers were advised that the company would not tolerate the malicious delaying of important messages and that the discharged man would not be re-employed, the majority of the operating force went out without notice. Operators were sent to take their places from nearby points, and at 11 o'clock last night the operators in the Chicago office employed on the western circuits, acting in conformity with resolutions understood to have been adopted by the local union, refused to work with the non-union men at Los Angeles, and when this was insisted upon, they quit work in a body.

"The Chicago operators have presented no grievances and the present movement is an attempt to force the closed shop rule, which if successful, would take control of the company's affairs, and of its own hands, such a condition as has been repeatedly shown is inimical to the confidential and responsible character of the company's relations with the United States government, and to the public."

WHEAT STATEMENT.

Tonight President Ahern of the local union said:

"We have tried for the past three weeks to secure the reinstatement of nine persons, five men and four women, who were suspended on account of union affiliation some months ago. Under the agreement made by President Clowry of the Western Union Telegraph company and the Labor Commission, these members were to have been reinstated.

"The Western Union officials have refused to reinstate these persons. Our members in the main office and in the several branch offices throughout the city have grown restless under this shabby treatment. We have done everything in our power to get the management to reinstate them. When an investigation is made something extremely sensational will come out.

"The strike is spreading. We have advised that the operators in Los Angeles, Chicago, Helena, Mont., Cleveland, Cincinnati, Salt Lake, Kansas City, Birmingham, Ala., New Orleans, Denver and Butte, Mont., are these represent about 2,000 operators.

"Oakland operators want to go out, but we are holding them back. We expect, however, that the whole trouble will be settled in two or three days. President Clowry of the Western Union Telegraph company will have the facts before him in 24 hours and may settle it by agreement. We cannot say anything about our demands, for everything is in a chaotic condition at present.

"I have nothing to say regarding the outlook beyond that the department of commerce and labor has not yet set into motion. Mr. Stewart arrived here today and will look into the San Francisco and Oakland situation. He will immediately confer with the Commissioner of the Western Union, Charles F. Neill at Washington and the whole matter will be adjusted quickly. President Clowry instructs his subordinates to treat the San Francisco and Oakland operators humanely."

ON CONVICT'S TRAIL.

That That Got Away from Vancouver, B. C., Still at Large.

Bellingham, Wash., Aug. 9.—A special to the Herald from Vancouver, B. C., says:

Up to 1 o'clock today not a word has been received from the parties on the trail of Bill Miner and the other convicts who escaped from the provincial penitentiary yesterday. Guards were on the trail five minutes after the men disappeared in the bush, according to a boy who saw them disappear. All returned after dark last night with no trace of the men. This morning at daylight a posse, 20 guards, police and trackers, took the trail with a bloodhound which took the scent and started off into heavy timber. No report has been received from this party. Miner is in the dense bush between New Minister and Barradale. Every avenue is watched by available men. Telegraph, telephone and horses, automobiles, boats, prison pigeon post, everything in sight was used and the authorities declare Miner cannot get away. His escape was the highlight in the history of the penitentiary.

He had been confined in a cell until 10 days ago when on account of ill health he was allowed to work in the brickyard.

The direction in which the convicts disappeared is heavily wooded with dense undergrowth and unless the bounds find them the party might be hidden for days, but might have trouble in getting food.

SHOT FOR THROWING BAKER.

San Francisco, Aug. 9.—W. H. Baker, a member of the carmen's union, was shot in the leg by Inspector Beauregard Young of the United railroad this morning. He was taken to the harbor hospital, where the wound was found to be superficial. Young was arrested because he refused to pay $5,000 bail, furnished by the company.

Young claims that Baker, who has been driving a bus since the strike, called him a vile name as he passed him at the corner of Third and Market streets, where Young is stationed. He says he told Baker he had a mind to arrest him for using vile language, whereupon Baker threw a brick at him and then received the bullet. Baker denies this and says Young shot him without provocation.

U. S. JUDGE JONES ON ALABAMA RY. CASE.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 9.—In accordance with the agreement made between the state and the Southern Railway yesterday, by which the license of the latter in Alabama was reinstated, lawyers for the Southern Railway today appeared before federal Judge Jones and asked a modification of his injunction heretofore granted against the state restraining it from enforcing laws while litigation was pending, in modifying his order Judge Jones reviewed the case at length and said if the state law were enforced it would blot out the road almost as completely as if the rails were torn up and the roadbed dismantled.

"Aside from the direct consequences to the public, the statute would practically confiscate the right of the carrier to do domestic business. If it attempted to carry on its local business, as it is obliged to do by the obligation under which it acquired its property, and which is not changed by this statute, which has not constituted validity, and the state authorities attempted to enforce the statute, it would render the efforts to do a domestic business worse than useless. Agents of the carrier would be liable to arrest and imprisonment for their local transactions.

"It would be deluged with suits. Engineers and conductors and ticket agents would be snatched from their posts at any points to the delay and injury of the traveling public. The arrests would necessarily interfere with interstate commerce and delay United States mail.

"The lives of men, women and children upon the trains would be imperiled for the only movement of their trains would no longer depend upon the train dispatcher, but rest upon the community of constables or sheriffs as to the time of an arrest at any stopping place along the route.

"Does any one who really loves this people of Alabama believe the court should have allowed such a state of things to be brought about? It is not the principle of the courts, and often declared by the courts of this country, the action of the court in these cases, in the discharge of sworn duty has been savagely assailed, some times said to say, by men whose duties make them defenders and not defamers of the court, as an interference with the rights of the state and an unwarranted meddling with local affairs."

Judge Jones showed the authority under which the court acted, and continued:

"It is a wicked thing to excite the passions of the people against the authority of the courts, and whatever the end sought to be obtained thereby, it is procured by covering them or preventing the execution of their orders, that end is accomplished at fearful cost and inflicts a fatal stab upon the liberties of the people."

ED. GOSSEN ARRESTED.

Portland, Or., Aug. 9.—A special to the Oregonian from Pendleton, Or., says:

Ed Gossen, wanted at the Dalles on a charge of murdering Ernest Bonomi, early Monday morning last was arrested here today by Sheriff Taylor. He was betrayed by Mrs. Bonomi, who it is alleged, had arranged to marry Gossen in case Bonomi was killed. Gossen came here from Silver City, Ida., a couple of weeks ago. He worked a few days and then went to the Dalles. He returned to this neighborhood a day or two ago and came into town today. Not suspecting anything he called at the postoffice for his mail. The officers were notified and he was under arrest.

ARABS TOOK THEIR REVENGE

After Bombardment of Casa Blanca They Plundered, Killed and Burned on All Sides.

JEWS SPECIAL AVERSION.

French and Spanish Soldiers Performed Many Acts of Heroism—Moorish Losses Heavy.

Tangier, Aug. 9.—Horrible details of the slaughter of Jews, the maltreatment of women and the pillage and burning of shops at Casa Blanca are told by passengers who arrived here last night by steamer from that port. They say that after the bombardment of the place began the Moorish soldiers and the Arabs revenged themselves upon the inhabitants, plundering, killing and burning on all sides.

They sacked the best houses and burned a large part of the city, whose streets are filled with decomposed bodies.

Among the Jews killed was a man under the protection of the British consulate. His sisters were assaulted and carried off by Moors.

French and Spanish soldiers by many feats of heroism both are reported.

Tranquility has been restored at Casa Blanca upon the west coast of Morocco and the families and hostile tribesmen who invaded the city had been driven out when the French cruiser Forben, which arrived here this morning, led that port. Casa Blanca is in complete possession of the French and Spanish forces.

All the foreigners and others who sought refuge on the steamers in the bay have landed and returned to their homes. Much of the city of Casa Blanca is practically in ruins as a result of the bombardment, even the European quarter being extensively damaged. The bodies of those killed in the recent fighting have since been piled up in the streets and are being burned as quickly as possible.

In response to an urgent request of the British consul at Mazagan a short distance southwest of Casa Blanca, a steamer was today sent from here to that port.

Further particulars of the bombardment of Casa Blanca show that when Admiral Philibert's squadron arrived off that port the armored cruisers Conde and Gloire, and the battleship of the city, while the Jeanne d'Arc shelled the Arab quarter.

So soon as the foreign legion landed the gates were barred, the soldiers took possession of the ramparts and the streets were cleared by the infantry with the use of rapid-fire guns.

The Du Chayla before sailing for Mazagan, asked for some troops to land there, but Admiral Philibert declined, saying he was unable to spare them. He sent Admiral Aube to reinforce the Du Chayla. The French warships Conde and Galliee are at Rabat and the Du Chayla is still at Mazagan.

Admiral Philibert has issued a proclamation at both places warning the natives that the least act of hostility against Europeans will result in the town being completely destroyed.

The sinking of Cape Juby occurred July 30.

News has been received here that Arab tribesmen who had gathered from the surrounding country to the number of 5,000 or 6,000 swept down upon Gen. Drude's camp outside Casa Blanca yesterday afternoon. They were driven off with a loss of 100 men. Later they renewed the attack and again were repulsed. The French troops are in splendid condition and spirits.

The warships supporting them during the attack by keeping up a steady shell fire on the horsemen. When the French consul from Casa Blanca arrived here today he received a letter from Mulay Amin, the military governor of Casa Blanca, officially approving the action of the French forces and asking the aid of France in inflicting punishment upon agitators.

The latest advices received here do not confirm the reported bombardment of Mazagan. Advices from Megador dated Aug. 7, say every day there is fighting and the trouble was apprehended unless European complications resulted from the bombardment of Casa Blanca. Morocco City is quiet along the route.

FROM ADMIRAL PHILIBERT.

Paris, Aug. 9.—A report here today from Admiral Philibert of Casa Blanca, Morocco, probably forwarded from his flagship by wireless telegraph, and dated at 2 o'clock yesterday, says:

Another cause is the weakening or polluting of this life-stream from hereditary taints, or from the effects of a long spell of sickness, leaving disease germs in the system. When the blood in this condition a sore cannot heal because the impurities with which the circulation is filled are being constantly discharged into the place to irritate and inflame the tissues and further disease the surrounding flesh.
