

head, should be authorized to reach, to hear, and to determine all those causes." (Page 1804.)

The words "for violating the act of Congress," the remarks of Mr. Bayard on page 1802, "I do not know what is the value of this amendment if it be restrained to merely capital causes, because I am not aware of any capital cases that could occur under the provisions of this act;" again, "I do not think there can be any capital cases under this act;" also those of Mr. Sherman (page 1804), "I think the cases that may arise under this law are exceptional, and I should be glad indeed if some mode could be pointed out by which an exceptional tribunal could be provided to try all these cases of a semi-political character;" all clearly show that at least three Senators were legislating with intent to apply exclusively against polygamy, and, doubtless, that was insidiously represented as being the intent of the framers of the bill. It is not so expressed, however, but, on the contrary, the bill is general in its applications, being, "a bill in aid of the execution of the laws in the Territory of Utah and for other purposes," and it is open to that grave objection, as are all the other Utah bills now before Congress, that while they are ostensibly aimed at polygamy, they are not so limited, but provide for the selection of jurors in all cases whatsoever, civil and criminal, to be tried in the District Courts both in United States and Territorial business.

This is an objection, because, for all general purposes, the mode of selecting, impaneling and summoning jurors has been already provided for by local legislation under the Organic Act as in other Territories, and it is not claimed, only by inuendo without foundation in fact, that the power so conferred has ever been abused.

Suppose the legislature have erred in providing that the Probate courts shall exercise civil and criminal jurisdiction concurrent with the District Courts, would not the true remedy be for Congress, which has impliedly approved that law for twenty-two years, to legalize the past acts of those courts, and declare the jurisdiction they may exercise hereafter? But to deprive the people of Utah of the right to sit on juries, on that account, would be in the nature of an act of vengeance.

Again, every allegation made, that "crime goes unpunished in Utah," applies chiefly to those Federal courts which Federal judges have locked up. Should the people be denied representation in the jury box on that account?

It is predicated of the people of Utah that they will not convict of polygamy, and a necessity for special legislation is thus created; but why should that legislation extend beyond the limits of that necessity? Should the people, therefore, be denied the right of the jury box in every class of cases?

VERITAS.

TO BISHOPS AND OTHERS.—For the benefit of those who desire a complete and faithful record of their families, when born, blessed, confirmed, etc., in their respective wards, and with a view of securing uniformity of information under suitable headings, a Bishop's Record has been carefully compiled by the authority and sanction of the bishops and the leading men in Israel, and, as such, is recommended, hoping the bishops and brethren of wards will avail themselves of a correct record that may be handed down to posterity.

Respectfully yours,
