

The Emigration.—The following telegram was received at President Young's office this morning:

"CHEYENNE, 2.

"Pres. B. Young.

"Our company arrived here today at 3 p.m., all well; will be in Ogden on Wednesday evening.

"W. N. FIFE."

Broke His Arm.—Yesterday a little boy and girl were amusing themselves, in an unfinished house, belonging to Mr. A. H. Kelly, swinging on a plank, see-saw fashion, when the girl suddenly left her position, letting the little fellow at the other end of the plank drop a distance of several feet to the ground, the consequence of which being that his arm was broken, between the wrist and elbow.

Utah Southern.—Mr. Jesse W. Fox has two corps of surveyors on the extension of the Utah Southern railroad, from Provo to Santaquin, and as the line is being surveyed grading contracts are being let, and the work of grading has been commenced.

The time of the completion of this additional piece of road can not be accurately predicted, as the progress of the work will depend to a considerable extent on the state of the weather. Anyhow the work will be prosecuted as rapidly as weather and other contingencies will admit.

The Honor.—Some of the Beaver people seem anxious for that county and the Second Judicial District to have the honor of the first indictment for polygamy since the Poland bill became law, Bro. Wm. Fotheringham having been the gentleman so honored in Judge Boreman's court a few weeks back. We presume that the good people of this district will be content for Bro. Fotheringham and the Second District to be in the van in this class of prosecutions.

The News, in referring to Bro. Reynolds as being the first indicted on that charge, intended the remark to apply to this, the Third District.

Utah Iron.—Yesterday Brother Arthur Stayner exhibited to us a flat-iron stand, cast at the R. R. shops in this city, of iron made by the Great Western Iron Company, in Iron County. A stove plate was also cast, and taken out of the sand while red hot. It cooled off without a flaw, which the imported iron will not do, or is very liable to crack if tried. The workmen say the Utah iron "runs like dripping," is strong and is as good as the best imported iron, but a little harder. The general opinion of the quality of the iron was very favorable. It is to be hoped that stoves and other articles of the Utah iron will soon be made in the Territory.

Rumored Misappropriation.—It is freely rumored on the street today that R. T. Beal, post trader at Camp Cameron, near Beaver, and "Pony" Duncan, U. S. Deputy Marshal, have been manipulating government funds, amounting to $1,800, sent to Beaver by U. S. Marshal Maxwell for the payment of jurors' fees and other expenses of the 2nd District Court. It is reported that they have been buying up claims of parties holding accounts against the Court at a discount and giving them notes, payable at a given date, and in the meantime speculating with the money, which they failed to produce when called for. Mr. Duncan was the Governor's appointee for Territorial Marshal.

Imaginary Bargains.—Imagination does considerable for some people on the wrong side, particularly that class of people who think that everything they purchase at a second-hand store must be a bargain. This is a fallacy, however, that has been frequently exploded. That's what a hard-working, industrious young woman thinks now, who saved enough money from her earnings to send to England for her mother. In anticipation of the early arrival of her maternal relative she bought a second-hand stove, at one of those trading stores, paying for it $25, which was a little over $20 more than its value, it being dilapidated and nearly useless.

A business establishment in this City wanted three stoves with which to heat up their premises. The proprietors, having an eye to economy, visited several second-hand stores, the result of their investigations being that they priced three stoves that would suit them at one of those places at $10 each, and then went to a regular dealer and bought new ones, of exactly the same pattern, make and style, at $7.50 apiece. It is probable that the experience in the article of stoves shows how the matter stands with regard to other things.

Rich and Racy.—The champion telegraphical fabricator is still at work, as will appear from the following sent westward over the wires last Saturday, and which appeared in the Alla California of Nov. 1st—

"Salt Lake, Oct. 31st.—At the Brigham Convention this morning, Mr. Geo. M. Norton, assayer, in a quarrel shot and fatally wounded Dr. Bredemeyer, superintendent of the Neptune mine.

"The first iron ever manufactured in Utah was shipped East today.

"A warrant was issued this evening for the arrest of George C. Fates, ex-U. S. District Attorney, for making two assaults on Leo Hollander with a pistol, one to force the payment of a promissory note, the other for publishing the facts of the first assault."

What the "Brigham Convention" alluded to is, to us is a puzzle. Dr. Bredemeyer was shot at Bingham on Saturday.

The ignorance of this dispatcher is delectable; "the first iron ever manufactured in Utah." Why the first iron ever produced in Utah was made many years ago, and no Utah iron was shipped east on Saturday. The paragraph about ex-district attorney Bates is rich, considerably rich.

A Hunt and Capture.—Yesterday afternoon, about four o'clock, a young man, who, we understand, is a herder, behaved in a most outrageous and disgraceful manner. He rode about the principal streets for some time on horseback, whooping, yelling, and flourishing a six-shooter, which he fired off. After this he went to a gunsmith's and had the weapon re-loaded, saying subsequently that he was going to hunt a man. He rode to the job wagon stand, where he stated that he supposed the police were hunting for him, but that he was hunting for the police. He rode to the Exchange Buildings corner, where he flourished his pistol, pointing it at a crowd of people thereabout, saying he intended to run the town, and otherwise acted "Bombastes Furioso" style. A young Danishman, who appeared to be acquainted with him, stepped up to speak to him, when he thrust the weapon towards his face and, with a foul epithet, threatened to shoot him. The police officers went after him, when his bravery seemed to vanish in an instant, and he struck out as fast as his horse could go. Pursuit was useless without horses, so two were procured and officers Alex. Burt and W. J. Hooper mounted and started out to capture the young fellow, and a long and hard chase they had. They found him at the foot of the Big mountain, Emigration Canyon, twenty miles from this City, after travelling over a road, a large portion of which is very rough, being torn up and plowed in gullies. They reached the City with the man in custody between two and three o'clock this morning, considerably jaded.

The energy displayed by the officers is commendable. People who engage in rowdiness, threatening and menacing the lives of peaceful citizens and disturbing the general peace, should be taught to respect the laws and the rights of others.

This young man was taken before Justice Pyper to-day, fined $100 and sentenced to two months imprisonment.

NEWS NOTES.

The people of Paris will soon present to Queen Victoria an illuminated address thanking England for her manifestations of sympathy at the conclusion of the siege.

A new street lamp, constructed on the Caloptric principle, has been successfully tested in London and Cheshire, England. It is officially pronounced to produce fifty per cent. more light than the common lamp.

In spite of the law for the suppression of religious orders in Italy, the Italian Bishops have, says the Gazetta di Milano, approved the rules of no fewer than thirty-four religious communities which have been established during the present year.

"Oh, come now," says the Cleveland Herald, "this won't do. Here are the democrats quarrelling among themselves because they didn't carry a few more Congressional districts. Hogs."

"Is New York liable to a great fire?"—World. Sodom and Gomorrah were liable, and we don't know any reason for excepting New York. —Cincinnati Times.

The Baroness Burdett Coutts recently instituted another horse and donkey show at Torquay, the object being to promote humanity among carters, wagoners, cabmen, and donkey drivers. These shows have been followed with most satisfactory results, and they are always very interesting.

The Arcadian says that a Western man who visited the Fifth Avenue Theatre and saw the "School for Scandal," expressed himself to the effect that if Sheridan wrote any more plays like the one he had witnessed he would soon knock Boucicault "higher than a kite." He also observed that "the way the play hit off that Brooklyn muss was a sight to see."

Dr. Wm. Parker, of Connellsville, Pa., was arrested at that place by Isaac Meyers, a special agent of the Post Office department, charged with using the post office for the purpose of defrauding certain persons in London, England. His scheme was to write to wealthy people in England, telling them their relations were here in indigent circumstances, and that he was taking care of them, and requesting money for their use.

A Spanish paper published in the city of Mexico says that the "United States are made up of the scum of the world." The Two Republics, an able paper published in that city in the English language, and edited by Maj. Geo. W. Clarke, a well-known Confederate officer, returns the compliment by saying that "the scum of Spain goes to Mexico, and is the fruitful source of the most of the evils which afflict that country."

An English clergyman in Calcutta (the Times of India says) has announced his intention of forming an anti-evil-speaking society. He considers that the shameful habit of evil speaking which prevails ought to be entirely done away with. By way of practicing what he preaches, the reverend gentleman, in the course of his sermon, avowed his intention to abstain henceforth from scandalizing his neighbors. Such societies are much needed in other places than India.

Hon. Samuel S. Cox, in his speech accepting a renomination at the hands of his Democratic friends in the Sixth New York District, quietly remarked, "My votes against the salary bill and the return of the money degraded me from my proper position on committees and in the House. I trust that those who enjoyed my discomfiture and rendered my last session, socially and personally, uncomfortable, because of the salary bills, have had a pleasant time among their constituents. Most of them remain at home to gild the calm current of domestic bliss."

To BISHOPS AND OTHERS. — For the benefit of those who desire a complete and faithful record of their families, when born, blessed, confirmed, etc., in their respective wards, and with a view of securing uniformity of information under suitable headings, a Bishop's Record has been carefully compiled by the authority and sanction of the bishops and the leading men in Israel, and, as such, is recommended, hoping the bishops and brethren of wards will avail themselves of a correct record that may be handed down to posterity.
