She Gave the Girl the Gun With Which the Murderous Deed

Seattle, Wash, July 12:-Esther Mitchell shot and instantly killed her brother, George Mitchell, a short time after 4:30 o'clock this afternoon in the walting-room of the Union depot. The shot was fired just as Mitchell rose to take the evening train for Oregon The brother, who was acciquited Tuesday of killing Franz Edmund Croffield. the leader of the "Holy Rollers," dropped in his tracks. Esther Mitchell was at once arrested.

SHOT HIM DEAD.

The Mitchells, George, Perry and Fred, were sitting with Esther on a bench in the hig waiting-room, talking together and apparently on the best of terms. When the Oregon train was announced George Mitchell rose and started forward. His sister stepped to his side, and pressing the revolver close to his head, pulled the trigger before any one realized what was hap

RECONCILIATION WITH FATHER

Last night Charles Mitchell, the father of the family, and his daughter, Esiner, reacting as the girl refused to see her father. Hearing that he was about to return to his home in Illinois, she consented to an interview, at which all the rest of the family except George Mitchell, were present.

Esther Mitchell and Mrs. Creffield widow of the deceased "Holy Roller." today announced their intention of making Seattle their home. The two women took small apartments here sold their witness certificates to raise funds, and apparently had made up their minds to remain in Seattle.

The three brothers were en route to back to work. Directly after the shooting Perry Mitchell and Fred Mitchell were arrested as witnesses. They were found together on a beach in the depot sobbing on each other's shoulders. SISTER HAD THREATENED.

"Well, she threatened it," said Sheriff Lou C. Smith today when the news reached him of Mitchell's murder at the hands of his sister. "She said that she had been present when Mitchell shot Creffield, and it she had had a gun, she would have killed him," said the sheriff. "I do not statement, but it is a known fact that she has practically said she would kill

"She was evidently so infatuated with Creffield, so crases by her brother's deed, that the chance to kill him was sought, and she took it." Esther Mitchell made the following statement this evening:

THE GIRL'S STATEMENT,

"Mrs. Creffield and I talked over the matter of killing George. The one that had the best chance was to do it. Mrs. Creffield bought the gun at Second avenue and Union street. We were at the room about 4 o'clock this afternoon, and I thought that I would have a better chance to do it than Mrs Creffield, as my broher wanted to see me, and believed that he would think Then Mrs. Creffield gave me the gun and I was to do it. We agreed that it was to be done as soon as possible Mrs. Creffield had been out once o twice looking for George, and if she had got the chance she would have done it, and I would have done the

TOOK FIRST CHANCE,

"The first that got a chance was I The first that got a chance was to do it. I would have done it before if I had got a chance. I took the gun yesterday, and my brother Fred Walls, ed with me down to the depot when my father went away. They wanted me to see George then, and I did not want to, because I could not get the want to, because I could not get the gun unwrapped. I had the gun wrap-ped up and concealed, and I refused to see George. When I went home I took the gun and placed if under the mattress. Then I took it out about noon today and kept it with me. My noon today and kept it with me. My brother Fred was up to my room to-day, and said that Perry and George, were going to Portland today at 4 o'clock. I went to the depet and saw Perry get his ticket, and I followed him. At the last I saw George, and I shook hands with him, and I was walking to the door with him. He and Perry were walking in front and Fred and I were walking he hind.

Hrs. Willadsen Tells How She Tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Just

Mrs. T. C. Willadsen, of Manning, Iowa, writes to Mrs. Pinkham: Dear Mrs. Pinkham :--

I can truly say that you have saved my afe, and I cannot express my gratitude to you in words.

"Before I wrote to you, telling you how I felt. I had doctored for over two years steady and spent fets of money on medicines besides, but it all failed to help me My monthly pe-riods had ceased and I suffered much pain, with fainting spells, headache, backache and hearing-down pains, and I was so weak I could hardly keep around. As a last resort I decided to write you and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so thankful that I did, for after following your instructions, which you sent me free of all charge, I became regular and in perfect health. Had it not been for you I would be

There was no visible motion in her during the time she was speaking, unless it was one of clation at the accomplishment of her plan for the destruction of her hus-band's slayer. "I talked with Esther after the trial, and told her that I did not think I was going to get a chance to kill him. LOST COURAGE.

"Sometimes," said she, "my courage was work and then the papers came out and praised him. I got courage again and made up my mind to do it. Today, when Esther left me she left with the understanding that if she got a chance if the depot she would kill him."

Why did she become determined to kill him, was it an understanding be-tween her and you that he was to be illed by either of you?" asked Detec. is Rennedy, who was taking the man's statement in shorthand. 'Not until after the trial," replied Mrs. Creffield, "Before the trial I was determined that I would do it." Here the details of the shooting, she showed no sign of sorrow at any time.

POLICE TAKE HER IN CHARGE. As soon as news of the murder was received at police headquarters, de-tectives were detailed to lock up Mrs. Creffield. Less than an hour after the killing she telephoned to headquarters stating she was at the grocery 4 North Breadway. Detective George rown was at once despatched there She stated that she had heard of the murder as she was going out to the cemetery on the street car and realized that Esther had accomplished the deed. She walked to the street car with the officer calmly and without murmuring went to police headquarters and told her part in the tragedy. CREFFIELD'S CLOTHES FOUND.

Shortly after the arrest of Mrs. creffleld Detective Philbrick was sen the residence of the woman where Esther had been stopping. Upon search of the rooms he revealed a box of 38 callber cartridges and the ciothing of Creffield was also discovered where it had been carefully kept by his wife. The two women had been stopng at the Pretoria house, room 27 Sixth avenue and Pine streets.

After telling the officers all regard-ing the shooting which knew Mrs. Creffield was sent to the county jail, where she will be held as an accessory before the fact. After a long talk with the woman

Chief Wappenstein has arrivel at conclusion that she is insane. Esther Mitchell is also crazy, in the opinion of the officers.

THE BROTHERS' STATEMENT.

In the statement of Fred and Perry Mitchell, the two brothers of the young man murdered by his sister, Mrs. Creffield, widow of the "holy roller" leader. who was killed by George Mitchell, and Frank Hurt, brother of Mrs. Cref-field, are blamed for the tragedy.

The two brothers were brought to the police station a few minutes after the arrest of Esther. Perry, the younger, was aimost in convulsions, but Fred was more collected, although he freof Mrs. Creffield and Frank Hurt.

BLAME MRS. CREFFIELD..

"Mrs. Creffield is to blame for the entire trouble," said Fred Mitchell, i making the statement for himself and his brother Perry, "and only for her Esther would have been satisfied and reunited with George.

Esther is not to blame. Don't treat her too hard for she did not know what she was doing. I believe the act was done at the instigation of Mrs. Cref-field, who has her as completely in her power as "Joshua" held his victims. I can't believe that my sister was in her right mind and committed this awfur crime. Her mind has been broken down by the influence which Creffield held over her, and this followed by the kill-ing of him, and the constant companionship of Mrs. Creffield since she came to Seattle must have caused the loss of

At the conclusion of their statement to the newspapers the two brothers called for Captain Sullivan and asked that Frank Hurt be placed under ar-rest. They stated that Hurt was living in Fouth Seattle and declared in the killing of Creffield's slayer.

After making this demand Perry Mitchell was hardly able to walk alone as he was taken from the room to the fall. He talked brokenly to himself and is mutterings were of Mrs. Creffield

"It is unfortunate when a man unquestionably deliberately violates the laws of the state and kills a human being in diaregard of those laws that he is triumphantly acquitted by a jury.

Such action on the part of a jury tends to bring all the first contents. tends to bring all law into contempt and to substitute the passion and the prejudice of the hour for the law, which ought to be our protection as well as the punishment for our misdeeds. The report that Miss Mitchell has taken the haw into her own hands by killing her brother is only what we may expect if courts and juries refuse to enforce the laws of the land. Mitchell, in killing Creffield, was unquestionably guilty o premeditated murder, whatever justifi cation he may offer for the act. As the law of the courts refuses to recognize that fact, his sister.
