

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Correspondents writing for publication are requested to write on one side of the paper only. No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Correspondents' names must in all instances accompany their communications, and are not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of reliability.

THEATRICAL.—There was a full house and good playing last night, the gentlemen and ladies in the casts showing to the best advantage—not least advantage as a blunder in the types made us say one day last week. The games by Miss Olive were enjoyed. To-night the great sensation of "Under the Gaslight" will be repeated. There is no doubt but there will be a crowded house.

AFTERNOON MEETING.—This afternoon President George A. Smith delivered a powerful and interesting historical lecture, which was not concluded when our report closed.

QUEST.—Everybody has been so busily engaged during Conference that no time has been appropriated for disturbing the peace, or otherwise giving the police employment. Such good behaviour on the part of everybody is rather tough on local hunters, but we will try and get along with the calamity the best we can if the public can stand such procedure.

Since writing the foregoing one James Cox has been arrested, charged with drunkenness and disturbing the peace, stealing peaches, threatening to demolish anybody whose ideas were antagonistic to those of his own, profanity, and a general assortment of other petty deviltries too numerous to mention. James was a soldier, one of the noble blues, and being drunkly inclined when brought before the Doctor, he gave vent to a flood of second-class oaths, and notified the Territorial government of Utah to go very slow in his case. The Doctor eased him off with a fine of $35, which amount not being handy, James was thrown upon the charity of a city contract, where a little muscular and back-bending exercise may improve his health. Hugh G. Sibbet was also fined five dollars for importing a larger quantity of "taangle" than his corporation could properly distribute.

THAT MONSTER.—A very reliable gent from the country laid on our table this morning a sketch of Bear Lake with one of the monsters largely represented therein. It is said to be a very accurate cut of the "critter" considering it was created from remembrances of how he caught it on the dead run. It can be seen in the shop window of Savage & Outing.

WHOSE FAULT.—The proposal for a pugilistic fight, in yesterday's issue, through somebody's neglect went to the public without any signature. The document was signed "Saxxy" when it went from the sanctum "up the spout" into the human hand. The only conjecture we can reasonably arrive at is, that the fault lies somewhere from the foreman to the devil.

CALLS.—We have been honored with calls from our brethren from the Muddy to Bear Lake, a list of whom would fill a column. The general remark with all is that things in their respective localities are moving along admirably. Crops are better everywhere than could have been expected. Gentlemen, we thank you for giving us a call, and hope you may all live longer and fatter and better than your enemies.

CHANGES.—We thought we saw four of the recent Bachelor together today in consultation. This looks ominous, and we trust the drift of their remarks were in the direction of information. Our columns are open gratis for the insertion of their marriages, whenever the good Lord shall direct such consultations strong enough to stand the racket.

NEW BOOKS.—Messrs O. H. Elliott & Co., 44 Cooper's corner, have laid on our table copy of Bancroft's New Law and Form Book, now in its third edition, a general law book for the Pacific Coast. It is sold only by canvassing agents, and contains instructions in all ordinary business transactions, with forms of practical, every-day use, for lawyers and business men in matters of homestead, wills, leases, attachments, husband and wife, marriage and divorce, mines, corporations, jurors, schools, notaries, partnerships, deeds, mortgages, notes and bills, mechanics' liens, arbitration, apprentices, pre-emption, licenses, coroners, clerks, estrays and bonds. We quote the following from its announcement:

The success and popularity of the first and second editions of the Law and Form Book, unprecedented in the annals of book making upon the Pacific Coast, induced the publishers to subject the work to a careful revision, throwing out all antiquated and superfluous matter, inserting changes which have occurred, noting new decisions, adding references to the new and important laws of Nevada and Oregon, and bringing it all down to the present time.

The plan embraces a wide range of subjects; each division containing not only a practical treatise upon the subject, with appropriate forms, but also selections from the statutes and the adjudications of the Supreme Court, it being the design, not only to furnish the necessary matters of law requisite in the preparation of forms, but also to present an outline of our legal system, so far as useful to citizens generally in their various business pursuits.

STILL THEY COME.—As Conference progresses, the tide of human beings seems to ebb and flow through a stronger current. The roads to the city present a continuous line of vehicles from early morn till late in the evening, while the business parts of the city are jammed and crammed. The stores must be doing a heavy business, as everybody, no matter how much money, or something coming to them, or owes some one, or some one owes them, or trust, or tick, or credit, or some other modes operandi of doing a little business by way of laying in their winter supply of staple articles.

THE U. P. R. R.—The Rocky Mountain News of the 1st says that passengers were then being "transferred to and from the stages at Point of Rocks, forty-five miles east of Green River city. Point of Rocks is the nearest station on the railroad to Green River. We think the track is now laid to Green River, as the Index of the 2nd says it was then within four miles of the river. That point will soon be the next temporary terminus.

Special Notices.

FOR SALE.—A large family carriage; to be seen at Faust & Houtz's Stables.

MEAT MARKET.—The Butchers have concluded to open every day during Conference at 3 a.m., close at 10 p.m., and open again at 4 p.m. The public will please take notice.

WANTED.—At this office, clean cotton and linen rags. People in the city who wish to dispose of them will please bring them on Mondays and Fridays.

TEAMS WANTED.—To haul lumber from Little Cottonwood. Apply to Folsom & Ramsey.

WANTED.—A few cords of red pine wood at the Paper Mill.
