

PRESIDENT PRAISES TAFT AND HUGHES

One in Nation, Other in State
Stands for High Governmental Efficiency and Honesty.

BOTH INFLEXIBLY HONEST.

Represent What is Best in American Citizenship—Have Broadest Sympathy for Their Fellow Citizens.

New York, Oct. 28.—President Roosevelt has sent to C. B. Wolfman, editor of the New York Herald a letter praising William H. Taft and Gov. Hughes and predicting the success of Taft and the governor's re-election. The letter, which was made public here, is as follows:

"Washington, Oct. 27, 1908: 'My Dear Mr. Wolfman: I thank you for your remembrance of my birthday. Will you let me take this opportunity to thank you in return for the admirable work you are doing for clean and honest government by your support of Taft and Hughes? I have profound faith in the good sense and conscientious devotion to duty and to high ideals of my fellow Americans of German birth or German parentage. I am certain that they will go right to the facts as they are presented to them, and thanks largely to your efforts, the facts are thus being clearly presented.

"Mr. Taft stands in the nation and Mr. Hughes stands in the state for that high standard of governmental efficiency and that high standard of governmental honesty, the union of which is absolutely essential in order to secure good government.

"Each adheres, and has always adhered, in public and private life, to the most inflexible standard of honesty and fair dealing as between man and man. Each represents what is best in American citizenship. Not a word of any kind can be truthfully said against the private or public character of either.

"Each has the broadest sympathies for his fellow citizens—for I hardly need say that the accusation that Gov. Hughes is a narrow and illiberal man is preposterously false. I believe that the victory of one in the nation and the other in the state is assured by overwhelming majorities, and I thank you for the way in which by your efforts you have contributed to bring about this result.

"With all regard, believe me, Sincerely yours,

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for over a year, and can say that it has never failed to cure the most stubborn cough or cold. I can recommend it to any family as a sure and safe children's cough remedy.—Andrew Schenck, Ayton, Ont. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

HOW POWDER TRUST
EXTERMINATED RIVALS

New York, Oct. 28.—How the Dupont Powder company cut prices in the south to put the Chattanooga Powder company out of business was brought out today at the resumption here of hearings in the suit of the government against the so-called powder trust. P. G. Waddell, district attorney, agent for the Chattanooga Powder company, of Huntington, W. Va., testified that he had instructions from the Dupont company to go down and "oust" the Chattanooga company regardless of prices.

"I located the trade supplied by the Chattanooga company," said the witness, "by the aid of the railroads and took it away from them."

"In 1895," he continued, "the Chattanooga company was sold out by the Dupont and the Laffin & Rand Powder companies. The Southern Powder company mills were sold to the same per-

During his testimony, Mr. Waddell described the "trade bureau" system maintained by the Dupont company, in which it kept in close touch with conditions throughout the country.

MYSTERIOUS DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

Greenfield, Mass., Oct. 28.—A double tragedy, surrounded by mysterious circumstances, occurred here, J. J. Gains, 29 years old, and Miss Mariette Mabel Wyling, 10 years younger, were found dying from bullet wounds at Miss Wyling's boarding house. Both expired without making a statement. The police expressed the opinion that Gains shot the young woman and then killed himself.

COST A CHILD HIS LIFE

TO PROVE HIMSELF A HERO

San Diego, Cal., Oct. 28.—The 8-year-old son of Joseph Miller, mate on the steamer Kea, proved himself a hero last night in a fire that cost the child his life, probably fatally injured his mother and destroyed the Miller home. The child, her five children were in the house when a gasoline stove exploded, filling the rooms with flames. Seeing that the children were on their way to safety, Mrs. Miller attempted to jump from a kitchen window, but her dress caught and she hung suspended above the ground. In the meantime, the 8-year-old Manuel, seeing his mother in danger, descended the stairs and ran from room to room seeking her. He finally entered the kitchen, which was blazing fiercely and when help arrived his body was burned to a crisp. Mrs. Miller was badly burned before being rescued.

"LORD" ARMAND GERON.

Is Mopping Floor of Harrison Street, Chicago, Police Station.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—"Lord" Armand Geron, who says he is heir to an English dukedom, and who manifested strange characteristics Tuesday night, when he indulged in a sumptuous dinner at a downtown restaurant, and then politely told the waiter he was without funds, is mopping the floor of the Harrison street police station this morning. Judge Gemmill sentenced him to spend a week helping to keep the police station clean.

Attired in a fashionably cut blue serge suit, trousers turned up, and a stock of the stylish London smoke color, fastened with a ruby stick-pin, "Lord" Geron told a story of being disowned after he had fallen in love with his sister's governess, of coming to America, becoming hungry, and landing in a cell.

SUFFRAGETTE DISTURBANCES

Cause Government to Close
Strangers' and Ladies' Galleries in House of Commons.

WILD SCENES WITNESSED.

When Officers Tried to Remove Boisterous Women from Gallery Found
They Were Chained to the Grill.

London, Oct. 28.—Suffragette disturbances have driven the government to the unusual course of temporarily closing the strangers' and ladies' galleries in the house of commons. This was announced by the speaker in response to a question from Premier Asquith and Mr. Balfour, the leader of the opposition, as parliament was adjourning to-night.

During the evening, while the house was discussing the licensing bill, a sensation was caused by the display of a placard and sudden shrill cries from the ladies' gallery, demanding votes for women. A man in the gallery, a bundle of handbills fluttered down from the strangers' gallery at the opposite end of the chamber, and a man shouted protests against injustice to women.

Attendants hurried to the galleries, and the male offender was unceremoniously ejected, but from the ladies' gallery sounds were heard of a desperate struggle. Two suffragettes, huddled together, were dragged from their posts, but only after portions of the grill were removed with them.

Ten minutes later, there was another dramatic scene, a man in the strangers' gallery throwing another bundle of bills down upon the house, and shouting: "Why don't you give women votes and relieve the unemployed?"

Attendants rushed upon him, but he resisted fiercely an attempt to carry him bodily from the gallery. After a desperate struggle, the attendants succeeded in ejecting the man. About the same time a large crowd of suffragettes made a demonstration outside the parliament building and 15 were arrested.

The removal of two militant suffragettes presented a comical scene to those in the corridors. Both of the offenders were laughing heartily when they were escorted by a posse of policemen, one of the officers carrying that portion of the grill to which the women were chained. They were conducted into a committee room, where the women were summoned to file off the iron from the chains, which were securely padlocked around the women's waists. It was found that the chains had been carefully padded to prevent noise and betray the suffragettes as they entered the ladies' gallery. The demonstration had been planned beforehand with great secrecy. One woman, who demonstrated outside the building, another in the lobby of the house and a third in the gallery. The gallery contingent numbered 15. It was attended by many passive sympathizers.

NEW YORK'S NEW MUNICIPAL BUILDING

New York, Oct. 28.—Plans of New York's new municipal building, which is to stand opposite the Manhattan approach to the Brooklyn bridge, have been filed with the building department. The building is to be 24 stories in height and the top of the tower will be 229 feet above the ground. It is to be built of brick and granite over a steel skeleton, will have reinforced concrete floors and the estimated cost will exceed $8,000,000.

SAVED HIS BOY'S LIFE.

"My three year old boy was badly constipated, had a high fever and was in an awful condition. I gave him two doses of Foley's Kidney Remedy and the next morning the fever was gone and he was entirely well. Foley's Kidney Remedy saved his life." A. Wolkush, Casimer, Wis. F. J. Hill Drug Co. EX-CASHER ARRESTED.

La Grande, Oct. 28.—Former Cashier I. W. Scriber, of the Farmers & Traders National bank, was indicted last night by a deputy United States marshal on a warrant issued out of the federal court charging Scriber with misappropriating $2,000 of funds of the bank. He was already under arrest on the charge of wrongfully appropriating $12,625, and was at liberty on $15,000 bonds. He was taken to Pendleton last night and will appear before United States Commissioner Bailey for commitment. No attempt will be made to give bonds on the second charge.

A FLOATING WHALING STATION.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 28.—A floating whaling station with one or possibly two steam whalers in conjunction, is to be brought to the British Columbia coast to engage in coast whaling off the three mile, according to information received by the Norwegian whalers on the steam whaler St. Lawrence.

Capt. Larson, who came to Victoria last summer to endeavor to obtain two licenses for whaling stations, is interested in the project for which capital has been subscribed. Arrangements are well under way for the dispatch of the floating whaling station to this coast.

AERONAUTS TO SAIL
OVER SALT LAKE BASIN

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 28.—Capt. A. E. Mueller and Capt. Horace B. Wild, who are to sail the two big balloons "United States" and "America" in the race across the continent, which is being arranged in Los Angeles, are preparing to make their first flight Sunday in this city. Both of the aeronauts took part in flights at St. Louis, Chicago, St. Paul and Columbus. They are enthusiastic over the prospects of the flight and believe they can make a world's record.

Capt. Mueller believes there is an upper current sweeping down the coast which will take the balloons into San Diego county, thence toward the Gulf of Mexico and then up the Mississippi valley and northeastward. Capt. Wild believes, however, that the balloons will cross the first range of mountains and then sail over the Salt Lake basin and then northeasterly into Canada.

WOULD MORTGAGE THE FARM.

A farmer on Rural Route 2, Empire, Ga., W. A. Floyd by name, says: "Buckley's America Salve cured the two worst sores I ever saw; one on my hand and one on my leg. It is worth more than its weight in gold. I would not be without it if I had to mortgage the farm to get it." Only 25c. at Z. C. M. I. drug store, 112-114 Main St.

ROCKEFELLER TALKS OF "SOME OLD FRIENDS"

New York, Oct. 28.—In the November issue of the World's Work appears the second chapter of John D. Rockefeller's reminiscences, which he entitles "Some Old Friends." In this chapter he tells of his early associations with John D. Archibald, H. M. Fliegler, S. V. Harkness and others familiar in the industrial and financial history of America.

Mr. Rockefeller says: "It is not always possible to remember just how one first met an old friend or what one's impressions were, but I shall never forget my first meeting with John D. Archibald, who is now a vice president of the Standard Oil company."

He then describes how about 30 or 40 years ago he was traveling about the country, talking with men interested in the oil industry. While at a hotel in the oil district he saw written on the register "John D. Archibald, $4 a barrel." This first attracted J. D. Rockefeller's attention to Mr. Archibald.

Mr. Rockefeller gives a somewhat lengthy account of his relations with H. M. Fliegler, for whom he expresses great admiration in speaking of the value of friendship he writes:

"These old men's tales can hardly be interesting to the present generation, though perhaps they will not be useless. If even these old stories make young people realize how above other possessions is the value of a friend in every department of life without any exception whatever."

He excepts from the rank of real friends those who when we come to them in time of need, say "I'd like to oblige you, but I can't explain why at the moment," etc. Once Mr. Rockefeller says he went to S. V. Harkness and told him that he might have to call for additional funds in furthering an enterprise, and was told "all right, J. D., I'll give you all I have got."

"In my early days I was always a great borrower," continues Mr. Rockefeller. Then he proceeds to tell how once when the question came up at a meeting of bank directors, what they should do in case more money was wanted, one of the directors, Stillman, said:

"Here, gentlemen, these young men are all O. K., and if they want to borrow more money I want to see this bank advance it without hesitation. As security Mr. Will offered to his fellow directors his own strong box."

Mr. Rockefeller as he passes to a discussion of some of his old favorite pursuits in life, including tree planting, explains, "If I were 40 years younger I should like to go into business again, for the association with interesting and quick minded men was always a great pleasure. But I have no death or interests to fill my days, and so long as I live I expect to go on and develop the plans which have been my inspiration for a life time."

MISS KATHERINE ELKINS.

Takes Out Fire Insurance Policy Covering Special Wardrobe.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—A dispatch to the Record Herald from Elkins, Va., says: Miss Katherine Elkins today took out a fire insurance policy covering a special wardrobe, which is believed to be her treasure. The amount of the policy is not made known, but it covers a wardrobe and jewels, and extends for only a month. It was the intention of Senator and Mrs. Elkins to return to Washington the latter part of next week, but on receipt of a cablegram today Mr. Elkins decided to remain here for some time longer.

To The People of Utah.

During the past two weeks the Inter-Mountain Republican, Republican speakers and Republican Campaign Managers have been and are wilfully and deliberately misrepresenting the Democratic party and its candidates and those charged with the conduct of the Democratic campaign.

The Inter-Mountain Republican during this time has repeatedly charged that a deal has been consummated by the Democratic party through its chairman, Samuel A. King, with the American party, by which the Democrats were to vote the American County, Judicial and legislative ticket in Salt Lake County, in exchange for votes for the State and National Democratic ticket. It has charged that the leaders of the Democratic party were bartering the votes of the Democrats within the state of Utah and were in league with the American party for the purpose of perpetuating trouble and contention within the State of Utah and for the purpose of making it possible to prosecute certain leaders of the dominant Church and to drive them from the state.

On behalf of the members of the Democratic State Central Committee, the members of the Democratic Executive Committee and of the Democratic Advisory Committee, we hereby denounce the statements as being wilful, malicious and deliberate falsehoods, originated, circulated and proclaimed for the express purpose of alarming the members of the dominant Church and inducing them to support the Republican ticket. We charge that the Inter-Mountain Republican, the managers and leaders of the Republican party, are responsible for these outrageous and malicious falsehoods; that they are being circulated and proclaimed by them, and each of them well knowing that the charges are absolutely untrue.

We charge that the Inter-Mountain Republican, the Republican managers and leaders are not only responsible for these falsehoods, but are also responsible for their circulation, and by such acts they become the enemies of the people of this state. Defeat awaits them in this election and their methods have become desperate. Though trouble and turmoil must result from their methods in the state of Utah, yet they think more of a few petty offices than they do of the welfare of this state and nation. We declare to the people of Utah that in this campaign, as in all campaigns the Democratic party stands for Democratic principles and the representatives of its party, and has no other object or purpose in view than the triumph of its principles and the election of its candidates.

The Democratic party, its managers or leaders, have never at any time or upon any occasion intimated, suggested or contemplated any agreement or combination with the American party, or any other party.

The Democratic party of Utah, its managers or leaders are not now and never have been a part of any scheme, combination or deal with any other party whatsoever and in this campaign, it demands justice at the hands of the people of Utah and asks the voters to rebuke at the polls such wilful, disreputable and malicious campaign methods as are being resorted to at this time by the Inter-Mountain Republican and the leaders of the Republican party in this state.
