

State Department, who is the functionary through whom these little formalities are carried on. The President was in his office talking with Secretary Proctor on the Indian situation. The Secretary of War, the Private Secretary, Halford and Brown, formed a little group around the President as he looked the paper over and then, taking up a pen from the desk, affixed his signature. Just as the clock indicated 1:30 the President, after making his signature, handed the pen to Halford with the suggestion that perhaps Fred. W. Peck, of Chicago, might desire it as a memento and directed that it be mailed to Mr. Peck.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.

Following is the complete list, by States and Districts, of the members elect of the next House of Representatives, compiled especially for the NEWS. The Democrats are in Roman, the Republicans in Italics, the Farmers' Alliance members in SMALL CAPITALS. In cases where the Democratic candidates were supported by the Alliance, the fact is indicated by the letter a following. Nearly if not all the Alliance members were supported by Democrats. The figures on the left of each column denote the number of the District:

Minneapolis, Dec. 28.—A farmer named Hallowmand in Maska County, Iowa, today found a solid gold nugget weighing seventy ounces, on the edge of a small creek on his farm, and it is believed a heavy deposit of the precious metal will be found on investigation.
