

WANTS TO EXAMINE COMPANY'S BOOKS

George S. Kimball Files Application in the Third District Court to That End.

IN CONTINENTAL LIFE CASE.

Judge Ritchie Issues Order Citing
John Dorn and Other Officers
To Appear on May 8.

George S. Kimball filed an application yesterday afternoon in the Third district court for a writ of mandamus to compel the officers of the Continental Life Insurance company, of Salt Lake to allow him to make an examination of the company's books.

Judge Ritchie issued an order citing John Dorn, president; H. C. Edwards, vice president and general counsel; W. H. Cunningham, general manager; W. S. McCornick, treasurer; and W. V. Rice, secretary, against whom the writ was sought to appear in court on May 8 and show cause why the writ should not be granted.

It is alleged that in the papers filed by Kimball that on March 29, 1909, a circular was issued by the Western Securities company of Arizona, the board of directors of which he alleges, controls the Continental Life Insurance company. The circular makes it appear that the Continental company intends to release to the Arizona company, an indebtedness of $120,123.24 said to be due the insurance company. The Continental company, it is further stated in the circular, has relinquished securities given to secure the payment of $95,830 agreeing also to assume a debt of the Arizona company of $38,569 in consideration of an assignment of notes and cancellation of certain contracts.

The complaint states that if the transaction which is alleged is carried out, it will work an injury to the stockholders and policyholders in the insurance company. Kimball also states that he has been unable to ascertain the value of the notes of the company assigned unless he is permitted to look at the books. He says that he has made several demands but each time has been refused.

BREACH OF TRADEMARK.

Gray Bros., the local clothing firm, have filed papers in the federal court complaining against the use of the word "Chesterfield" by the P. W. Thatcher company of Logan, which is held by them to be a breach of the federal Trademark laws. Gray Brothers state that the word Chesterfield has been registered by them, as they are the exclusive agents for that line of clothing. Deputy United States Marshal H. P. Myron left last night for Logan to serve the papers.

CLAIMS HEART FAILURE.

An answer was filed yesterday in the Third district court by George Kinsman to the suit of his wife, Mrs. Sarah E. Kinsman, on the ground of non-support. On account of heart failure, Kinsman says that he was unable to perform manual labor, and for this reason was unable to support his family. He states that his wife deserted him on April 6, 1909. He declares that he will provide for his wife and daughter, to the best of his ability, if she will return. They were married in Salt Lake on September 15, 1906.

DAMAGE SUIT DISMISSED.

Edward Simpson's suit against the city to recover $255 for personal injuries from Salt Lake City, was dismissed yesterday afternoon in Judge Ritchie's court, the jury finding that there was no cause of action. Simpson alleged that his horse became frightened at a hole in the Ninth North street bridge and backed him and his family over the railing dumping them into the Jordan river. The city proved, to the satisfaction of the jury that there were no holes in the bridge.

SECOND TRIAL STARTS.

The case of Italian Hudson against the Denham Bottling company was called for trial yesterday in Judge Ritchie's court. The plaintiff asks for $10,000 for personal injuries sustained on August 27, 1908, while employed in the bottling works. A bottle burst and his left eye was put out and the sight of the right eye impaired. The first trial of the case resulted in a disagreement.

WIDOW GETS $870.

By stipulation Mrs. Augusta Gibson and her children secured judgment against the Tinted Stock Line company for $870 for the death of her husband, William Gibson, who was crushed to death in the company's mine at Thupite, Tropic county, on Dec. 31, 1908. The judgment was entered in Judge Ritchie's court yesterday afternoon.

COURT NOTES.

Mrs. Clara Stephenson asks for a divorce from William Stephenson on the charge of desertion. She asks for the restoration of her maiden name, Clara Howard. They were married on April 5, 1908. Since her husband deserted her year ago, she has been compelled to work for a living.

UNIVERSITY NEWS

Tomorrow afternoon there will be a meeting of the student body to nominate officers for the coming year. A voting machine will be secured later and the election will take place some time next week.

The last meeting of the year of the German club is in session this afternoon. Among the features of the program are an address by Harry Nelson on the life and works of Goethe, a piano selection by Ethel Connelly, and readings from Goethe by Lyle Smith.

Tomorrow's chapel exercises will be devoted to music. The choir of the music department under the direction of Squire Coop will sing the "Hallelujah Chorus." A number of other features will be presented.

MALONE PLEADS NOT GUILTY.

Preliminary Hearing of Man Who Shot Nels Paulson Due May 14.

J. S. Malone, who attacked Nels Paulson with a revolver on April 8, appeared in Judge Bowman's court this morning and entered a plea of not guilty to the charges of assault with intent to commit murder and assault with a deadly weapon. His preliminary hearing was set for Friday, May 14, and as the bond of $5,000, fixed on Wednesday, has not yet been furnished, he was remanded to the custody of the sheriff.

The complaint against Malone was read to him yesterday when he was formally arraigned, and this morning brief proceedings consisted in the question by the court, "Are you ready to plead?" Do you plead guilty or not guilty?"

"Not guilty," was the response of Mr. Malone, given in a quiet but firm voice. The date for the hearing was agreed upon by C. H. Diehl, counsel for the defendant, and Asst. County Atty. Bowman.

GREEK COLLECTS BILL.

Gus Tages, a Greek, undertook this afternoon to collect a bill in a novel fashion which proceeded landed him in jail. Gus claims that one "Greek John," the keeper of a shoe-shining emporium, owed him money. Accordingly he repaired to John's establishment and abstracted $2 from the cash register, smashed a mirror and then departed.

BUSINESS AND REALTY

Tuttle Bros. company report these sales: T. R. Ellerbeck to M. Billings, with rods, with brick residence, Fifth avenue and I street, $4,000; M. S. Woolley to W. P. Holley, 24x33 rods, with brick residence, 614 Third avenue, $4,000; L. W. Simpson to Albert J. Allen, 25x33 rods with brick residence, Seventh avenue and K street, $3,500.

WELL STARTED IN CRIMINAL CAREER

With a cool, boasting bravado seldom met with in even the most hardened, two criminal prodigies, Blaine Rydman, aged 12 years, and James L. Powell, only a little past 11 years of age, sat in police headquarters last night and confessed to a list of petty thefts and burglaries that astonished even the police.

The arrest and confession of these two youthful would-be desperadoes solved the mystery which has been puzzling the police for the past three weeks, and accounts for the almost nightly petty burglaries that have been reported to headquarters. In addition to the list checked off at the station by the admission of the boys, they volunteered their guilt in a number of other thefts that had not been reported, and almost naively, but with a show of pride, said that there had been still some more but they had forgotten the names of the places.

THIRTY ONLY REBERT.

About the only regret shown by the lads was that they had been caught just as they were preparing to put in to effect a plan to rob the Salt Lake Hardware company, so that they might secure guns and ammunition, which are the leaders of the "Jesse James Highway Robbers' Gang," they felt they needed.

The theft of a horse and buggy, belonging to John Wagstaff, Tuesday night led to the arrest of the two boys in Murray by Marshal Mauss last night. The youths a few days ago had been confined in the Utah Reformatory school, from where they escaped Tuesday night. They found the horse and buggy near the 15th grade depot, and after committing two small thefts, drove to Murray. Marshal Mauss had been notified to look out for both the buggy and the boys, and ran across both late yesterday afternoon.

Probation Officer Guardello Brown was notified, and went to Murray to secure the boys, bringing them to Salt Lake and turning them over to the custody of the police.

Rydman and Powell said that it had been their plan to remain in Murray until after dark last night and then drive into Salt Lake, where they intended to rob the Salt Lake Hardware company and obtain some guns.

Under the questioning of Lieut. Shannon the boys freely told the story of their depredations. About three weeks ago they had broken into the house of the Third South, between Main and West Temple streets, and stole six boxes of candy. That same night, Sunday, they entered a State Street blacksmith shop, creating a scare and other trouble. The following night, they entered a seed store on Third Street, between Third and Fourth South streets, and out of pure malicious mischief destroyed a number of grain bags before stealing a lot of fishing tackle from the store, which they later sold to a switchman in the Oregon Short Line yards.

Their next crime was at the store of the Salt Lake Soda company, where they secured a shotgun, several badges and a number of stamps. They confessed, too, to the robbery of Frank Smith's barber shop on Main street, where they made away with 14 razors. A number of stores entered by them had been robbed of candy, and practically their last offense before taking the horse and buggy was breaking into Sherwood's market, 749 South State street, where a quantity of cheap jewelry was taken.

Blaine Rydman is a son of O. R. Rydman, residing at 36 Church street. Powell lived at 627 West Temple street, and has one brother in the State Industrial school and another on parole from that institution.
