There was a good house at the Grand last night to witness the opening ensagement of the company rendering "Under Sealed Orders." The players are nearly all satisfactory, Mr. Whittaker, the hero, and Miss Kelton, being the best received. There is a little blood, a little thunder, and a great deal of meamerian in the play, but it is all harmoniously commingled and an inter-ssting exterialnment is made out of it. The same bill goes tonight.

The sale for the "Texas Steer" enragement at the Theater is now on... The advance sale for Stuart Robson berins tomorrow morning. Robson's friends will doubtless be out in force to see him in "Oliver Goldsmith,"

GOOD GAME ON TODAY.

Second Teams of the Y. M. C. A. and All Hallows Matched.

A contest between the second teams of the Y. M. C. A. and All Hallows was scheduled for this afternoon at Walker's field. The contesting elevens have been very anxious for a long time to come together on the gridiron inasmuch as each claim the title of "second championship" of this city. The re-sult of today's battle will very likely settle the dispute. The Y. M. C. A. put in a couple of hours at hard practice last night and expressed confidence in their ability to win. On the other hand their addity to win. On the other hand the All Hallows feel certain that vic-tory will perch upon their banners for they claim to have an inexhaustable supply of "secret plays" that are cal-culated to bewilder their opponents. The teams lined up as follows:

Sporting Notes.

The Y. M. C. A. first football team is making wonderful strides in im-provement. The numerous hard practice games of late is doing the bu tice games of late is doing the ousiness. Tonight the team will try out three new men who are said to be cracker-jacks in the business. No games have been arranged for in the near future, although last night telegrams were re-ceived from the D. W. C. and D. A. C. of Denver, asking for games. The mat-ter is now under consideration and an answer will be sent to each of the clubs in a day or two. will be offered as is customary at the end of each season.

In a day or two. Harry Pendergraft, the well known Harry Pendergraft, the well known pitcher for the Rio Grande Western baseball team, was in the city yester-day, having returned from Pocatello. Last night he left for his home in Washington, Kansas, where he will re-main for the remainder of the winter. Pendergraft stated that he will return to Salt Lake next season and play here.

Stomach Bitters Stocked of heavyweights. If he is successful his team will play any or-world's record for a mile and a quarter over a circular track of 2:04, being hung up by Charentus in the Empire City handicap. This was the future of the day. The seven horses faced the starter, with Imp, the favorite at $ to 5. They were off on the first break to a good start and Imp and Potente made unning head and head for a mile, whe Imp drew away and showed the way around the far turn by an even length. Potente dropped back, beaten and De-canter and Charentus challenged the eader.

The latter gradully crept up to even terms with the leader at the last fur-long pole and a hard drive to the wire followed. Charentus winning by a short head. Pink Coat raced through in the stretch and took show money, a length behind Imp. The Woodlawn handicap, the other fixture, went to the outsider, Chuctanunda, at 25 to 1. He led all the way and won by a neck from Gold Heels with the favorite, Glen Elde, back In the ruck.
