SABBATH MEETINGS.—On Sunday morning Bishop T. Callister, of Fillmore, Pres. Joseph Young and Elder Woodruff addressed the congregation.

In the afternoon, Elds. as Thomas Taylor, A. Milton Musser and George Q. Cannon were the speakers.

THEATRICAL.—The performances on Saturday afternoon and evening were quite successful, the latter drawing a crowded house. "Under the Gaslight" shone in all its glories, and afforded delectation to the audience. "Enoch Arden" was well received in the evening. Madame Scheller's impersonations were characterized by that grace, chasteness and artistic finish which she always displays, and she was well appreciated. A marked feature of the evening was the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" by Madame Scheller, Mr. Hardie and the company. Miss Cookbrook was to have taken part in the solo, but was rendered unable to do so by a violent cold; she appeared as a graceful and statuesque-like standard bearer to the company, supporting the "old flag" while the spirit-stirring song was sung. The proscenium boxes were also draped with the Stars and Stripes. The singing and the beautiful picture presented, elicited the warmest applause. The farce of "Too Much for Good Nature" was excellently played.

This evening, the beautiful drama of "Lucille, the Story of a Heart," will be presented with the excellent cast who appeared in it before. "Too Much for Good Nature," making a most excellent bill. The Management have been compelled to postpone the presentation of "Cinderella" until Thursday, it being found impossible to complete the preparation for its production in time for this evening.

IN TO CELEBRATE.—Some two dozen of Bishop Sharp's men who are engaged in opening a passage through Devil's Gate, Weber Canyon, for the railroad, got behind some mule flesh on Friday evening and came down to the city "to celebrate" on Saturday. The "boys" look well and feel well, and "celebrated" in a quiet and excellent manner without the aid of "Valley Tan." They went back yesterday afternoon.

GONE TO ECHO.—President Young left this morning to visit Echo and see the progress made on the road. He was accompanied by Hon. Joseph A. Young.

GENTLE SHOWER.—To-day, a gentle shower, but of brief duration, fell and cooled the parched foliage, adding to the beauty of Nature's green. Yesterday and to-day, although the sky has been cloudy and overcast, the heat has been oppressive.

TELEGRAMS.—The following telegrams received by President Young have been courteously placed at our disposal:

Provo, July 4th.
The Provo canal is a success. We got the water on the Provo bench to-day. It works admirably.
D. H. KIRKBY.

South Pass, July 4th.
President Young:
We arrived safe at South Pass yesterday, all well.
J. G. HOLMES.

President Young:
The steamer Minnesota left Liverpool June 30th, with 400 adults. The total number on route is 2,430. We are all well.
H. B. CLAWSON.

The number stated as being en route must be understood as stating adults; the total number of souls would be considerably greater.

STRAWBERRY PARTY.—Last evening Col. F. H. Head and lady entertained a number of our leading citizens at a strawberry party. A most pleasant evening was enjoyed together, the "feast of reason and the flow of soul" ministering to the intellectual, while the kind attentions of the host and hostess supplied tempting dainties to the physical being.
