LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRICAL.—There was a very good house at the Theatre last Saturday night, and we welcome Mr. and Mrs. Waldron, and their appearance was a signal for hearty applause. The places presented were well performed, Mr. and Mrs. W. being called upon the curtain at the close of the first.

To-night there will be a rare combination of talent in the beautiful domestic drama, "The Old Maid." It is being the first appearance of Miss Kitty Blanche, a comedienne and comedienne of considerable reputation. Mr. McKee Rankin, the celebrated comedian and character actor, and Mr. Power, a young actor by no means unknown to fame. They will be supported by the regular stock company, and with such a combination a performance of rare merit is assured. Miss Blanche takes the part of "Fanchon," McKee Rankin, and Power will personate the brothers "Digger" and "Buck." We have heard it said that the quality, numerous old Dutchmen, immortalized by Irving, and Jefferson Rip Van Winkle, is in Mr. Rankin's repertoire and in one of his specialties; if so it should not be forgotten, as few places have been received with so much favor as this in Salt Lake City, which played here by and during the engagement of Mr. Heron.

WHO WANTS THEM.—Mr. W. D. Roberts left this afternoon for the East, for the purpose of bringing on more bees. All parties desiring bees, or pigs, fowls, etc., through his agency can send their orders immediately to R. L. Campbell, Esq., at the Historian's office in this city. Mr. Roberts expects to be back in three weeks, so that parties may expect to receive what they order through him by about April 1st.

NEW MEETING HOUSE.—This morning ground was broken preliminary to the erection of a new meeting house in the Tenth Ward. The building will be fifty-five feet long by thirty-four feet wide and eighteen feet from floor to ceiling, and will be built of brick. A large sum has already been subscribed by the residents of the Ward for its erection.

NARRATIVE MEETING.—The large and very attentive congregation at the Tabernacle last evening was addressed by Elder Geo. Q. Cannon; an interesting discourse was delivered in the afternoon by Elder Charles W. Peterson.

MEETING AT THE CITY HALL TO-NIGHT.—The members of the Society for the Improvement and Improvement of Stock etc., will hold a meeting at the City Hall to-night; a full attendance is desirable. All stockholders in the co-operative fish farm will find it to their advantage to attend the meeting this evening, as measures will probably be taken to set the project in operation at the earliest possible moment.

PURCHASING MORMONS.—Elder Angus M. Cannon, now on business in the Eastern States, writes as follows, on the 6th instant, from Canton, Mass.

"Some gentlemen assailed me yesterday afternoon upon the subject of our faith, &c., when I gave quite a house full the best I had. A Mr. Schaffer, who claims to be an old friend of Judge Z. Snow, as this is where Mr. Snow formerly resided, kindly offered me the use of his Opera House, and said that he would see it lighted. I accepted and had the satisfaction of addressing a very attentive audience for one hour and a half. I proposed stopping short of this time, but the people cried 'go on.' I had great freedom, and feel that my talk yesterday and discourse last night cannot fail to effect good. I say this in justice to the liberal spirit evinced by some of the people of this place. A number of gentlemen called upon me this morning and expressed their gratification to learn so much they had never before known about our history."

NETS, SPINNERS' BOOK ON Trout Culture. is for sale at Dwyer's News Depot, East Temple St. This book contains a full exposition of the author's method of trout farming, and as he was the first in America to give practical attention to the business, and is the largest and most successful operator in the country, it is reasonable to suppose that it will be found of great use to all who want to start a trout farmstead for it, and get posted.

FIROOZ'S CORRESPONDENCE.—The correspondent of the San Francisco Pioneer, writing from this city, on the 1st inst., says: "By the way, please don't send any of your surplus labor this way, as we have enough sturdy and competent masons among our own community, men from all parts of the world conversant with the business and willing to work for reasonable wages. If any of the surplus members of your labor market think they can make a bon strike by coming on here, I recommend them not to try the experiment. Show this letter to the Secretary of the California Labor Exchange, and ask him to post it up in a prominent place with a notice drawing attention to it."

In speaking of the "Joe Witch," as produced at the Theatre here, he says: "It was quite a success. The acting throughout was good, and the scenic and stage effects highly creditable, especially the last scene, which was one of the most gorgeous I have ever seen put upon the stage."

The late concert of Prof. Carless is mentioned as "the affair of the season. The singers, to the number of 200, were arranged very tastefully on the stage and the orchestra, comprising about thirty pieces, below in the proper place."

MAIL INTERRUPTED. will continue and several times of late, accounts of delay, which have strongly of wilful neglect, have been received from Sanpete. Recent R. Lowell, Esq., writes from Fountain Green, a few days since:

"We believe that we have been imposed upon in our mail arrangements. On Wednesday, Feb. 1st, and Saturday March 1st, and Saturday, March 15th, 1874, the mail carrier of Sanpete, after waiting at Salt Creek six or seven hours beyond his scheduled time, for the arrival of the Salt Lake City mail, was informed that there was no mail sack for Sanpete. I am confident that the sack for Sanpete has been left at Salt Lake City, regularly according to schedule time."

I do not see any advantage to the contractor, mail driver, nor even the mail horses, to drag our mail matter away down South towards Dixie, and have to haul it back again. We are aware that bad and muddy roads are the cause of delay, but after waiting until the northern mail comes in to be told, no mail sack for Sanpete, it is very annoying, indeed. We are in hopes that some one will persuade the mail drivers on the route, and show them the advantage to themselves and teams to deposit our mail matter at the Post office at Salt Creek, Utah Co., as they are doing they will accommodate the good, earnest people of Sanpete, and discharge their duty."

NVADA ITEMS.—The Gold Hill News of last Monday, says: "A man was killed in cold blood in Virginia last night. Another man in Gold Hill last night came near being severely killed for getting on a drunken frolic and kicking up a fuss in different saloons. He was arrested and confined in the station-house, and had his trial before Judge Putnam this afternoon. Mrs. Oram was also tried in the same Court, on the charge of cruelly beating and trying to hang her own child, a little girl of six years. Her husband made the complaint, and the little girl looked on the witness stand. The jury, in the shape of a drunken old man, James Storey county last night."

The same paper of Wednesday last has the following: "Miss Rose Evans, J. M. Hardie and Pierpont Thayer arrived in this morning, and Harry Courtland will arrive to-morrow morning."

They were to commence a short dramatic sketch at Fiske's Opera House on the following evening, with Romeo and Juliet.
