They Have Consulted Lawyers and Decided to Institute Suit.

The principals, superiors and teachers of the public schools held a mass meeting yesterday afternoon in the High school building. There was a full at-tendance, as they met to decide wheth-er or not they would institute a "friendly" suit against the board for pay during the period the schools were closed on account of smallpox. Principal Folsom of the Riverside was chosen chairman, and Miss Nellie Bowers secretary of the meeting. The committee which was appointed last Tuesday for the purpose of con-sulting attorneys in regard to the mat-Spokane. ter, submitted its report through Chair-man McCoy, who stated that the firm of Bennett, Harkness, Sutherland, Howat & Van Cott had been seen and arrangements made to institute and force the suit.
