PROVO, May 12.—The case of William Giles vs the Rio Grande Western railway is being tried in the First district court. The suit was brought to recover $1000 damages alleged to have been sustained by plaintiff on account of the railroad running along the street in front of his place, making ingress and egress difficult and damaging his house by jarring and cracking it. The jury went to Springfield this morning to make an examination of the locality.

In the case of Perry A. Thomas et al vs Springfield city, in which judgment was obtained for $200 on account of a buggy running off a bridge and injuring Mrs. Thomas in the fall, Judge Himelrich reduced the judgment to $1000. Plaintiffs were granted a week to consider whether they would accept the judgment or ask for a new trial.

Cases in which the United States is plaintiff and the following parties defendants have been dismissed by U. S. Attorney Varian: John (Globe), J. W. Locke, (Globe), A. M. Gordon, (Globe), Andrew (Herald) et al, J. P. (Globe) et al, J. L. (Globe) et al, H. W. Williams et al (two cases), Emma J. Clark et al, Edward W. Fox et al.

The following cases are for trial in Justice's court: Bill and Elvira Madson, malicious mischief in killing Nels Ommerson's dog; Thomas (Herald), assault on the person of one D. H. Bunnell; Giles Holden, running a job wagon without a license.

Animals which have died during the winter throughout the county, with the advent of warm weather are making manifest their presence in a dumb but most effectual manner—through the nostrils. The number of those carcasses about Spanish Fork is especially numerous.

Payson has filed a first class official map of the city with the county recorder. This is the first official city map of the county.

The enthusiasts to be responded to at the session of the B. Y. A. Alumni Association are as follows: "A child again, my head I lay upon the lap of the sweet day," by W. H. K. King; "Woman's Education," by Mrs. Twiss Taylor; "Our Alma Mater," by Dr. R. H. Allen.

John Wright, an aged citizen of Pleasant Grove, died on Tuesday last, leaving to mourn his loss a wife and five children. He was a native of Cambridge, England.

W. D. Roberts has returned from Chicago. He was present at the opening of the World's Fair.

C. A. Clark, recently of the firm of Haveresop & Clark, starts next week on a tour of the Pacific Coast states, and will probably determine on his future location while on the trip.

E. C. Montebello, proprietor of the Putney Works of this city, has returned from a successful business trip to the southern counties.

OH, WHAT A WAR!

A "News" Correspondent Tells of the Navajo Uprising.

About an Everybody Believed. Loveless and Greedy White Men at the Bottom of the Trouble.

Correspondence Deseret News.

BLUFF, San Juan Co., Utah, May 10th, 1893.—As many startling stories are afloat in relation to Navajo depredations I have no doubt that our friends back in Utah are anxious to know the facts. Some Colorado papers contained an account of some killing done near this place. This is entirely false. We are on the best of terms with our neighbors, the Indians.

After the San Juan gold boom was over it left some bad men in this and other parts of our otherwise quiet country. A couple of young men were doing quite a flourishing business trading the people's stock to the Navajo for ponies. The culprits claimed they owned 200 head of cattle on this range. The Indians questioned them very closely about this thing, but being fully assured that things were all right they, the Indians, traded for in the neighborhood of sixty head. But as the trading progressed, the Indians became apprehensive, owing to the reckless manner in which they disposed of the cattle, sometimes giving two head of cattle for one small $5 mule. Some friendly Indians reported the facts and the men were promptly arrested and brought before a justice of the peace where they waived examination and they are now in Provo awaiting the action of the grand jury, hoping that the Indians will not appear against them, for the Indians when summoned to appear before witnesses told such a plain, straightforward story that it is no wonder the white settlers are excited. Examination. One particular witness was examined on his own account as he had traded them a pony for a cow and the latter was either unworried or else ran back and buy new owner in his Indian way, waiting his pay. It was quite laughable. Another one who took pretty good English broke out in a strain of wailing and profaned quite fluently, calling one of the prisoners all manner of bad names. He was the one who acted as interpreter in the trading and had not them a rule for ten head of cattle, giving a small blanket to boot.

The people have got back nearly fifty head of their cattle, the Indians having shown quite a willingness to help bring them back. However some of the cattle were lost in the trading and both parties will lose considerably through this unlawful transaction. It is to be hoped after all this trouble and expense to the county that the Indians will not be turned loose as some have been before from these parts. Frouther is the most serious of the law-breakers in San Juan county of any part of Utah, and it ought to receive the proper help from law-abiding citizens and while it is not impossible to have some trouble with Indians on our borders, it is probable that other elements are at work, and these are dangerous characters, for they not only steal but they are willing at all times to excite the Indians to commit themselves, so that it may be possible to get them wiped out. The Indians understand this, however, pretty well. If white men will quit spending their time gambling with the Indians, quit selling them liquor, and let their squaws alone, I will watch for the entry of all men so far as Indians are concerned.

I suppose it is correct about one man being killed near Farmington on the San Juan River. I do not know the cause; the agent has taken the matter in hand. Another "gentleman" who got into trouble with the Navajo became too familiar with a squaw, who seems to have not been quite true to her marriage vow. Her husband at first and interested and the "gentleman" took a shot at the aggrieved husband, trying to frighten him. It failed, and the "gentleman" had to part with $500; he felt quite happy to get off at that modest request with his life spared.

There is another humbug showing. It is no doubt well intended for Colorado. Let our friends in Utah rest quiet and stay at home. The hard little cow hanging over us will pass over all right if we study economy and let speculation alone. If anything rich should turn up you have your friends who can inform you correctly and you can then come and get your chunk. Newspaper gossip is cheap and a paper that can produce news five miles away with 100 miles in the nearest telegraph office of things that happen or rather don't happen, I hope will not get into the habit of making up news and trying to lead into making we were all liable to be killed.

WHY THE DESERET NEWS SHOULD BE SUBSCRIBED FOR IN PREFERENCE TO ANY OTHER PAPER.

1.—It is the organ of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and the authorized medium through which the views, wishes and instructions of the Church Authorities are expressed and given to the people.

2.—It is always ready to defend upon its advocating or denouncing the right side of every question proper for public journals to treat upon.

3.—It is devoted to the interests of the Latter-day Saints, and has from its inception, valiantly defended their rights and advocated the principles in which they believe, and every Latter-day Saint should therefore feel under obligations to do his part in helping to sustain it.

4.—It is not published for speculation, and never has been, but for the good which it is capable of accomplishing; the profits, if any there be derived from it, being devoted to extending its sphere of usefulness and benefitting the community.

5.—It is doing its utmost to establish home industries, among which are paper making and type-casting, stereotyping and electrotyping—branches necessary to the development and independence of the community, but which, during their infancy (which in this Territory they have not yet passed), can only be carried on at a pecuniary loss.

6.—There is no danger of any subscriber to the News falling to get what he subscribes for through failure of the business and a suspension of the publication—a result to the loss of hundreds of newspaper subscribers every year.

7.—It is printed in readable type, so that even the aged can peruse it without difficulty or danger to their eyesight.

8.—It is free from objectionable advertisements, so that no person need fear that his children will have their minds corrupted from having access to it; in fact, it returns thousands of dollars worth of the best paying advertisements annually, because it is devoted to the moral and spiritual interests of its readers instead of to getting gain at their expense.

9.—The News is not regulated by public opinion nor the hope of gaining subscribers or advertisements. It advocates that which is right and condemns that which is wrong, regardless of results, financial or otherwise.

10.—It never names its readers by pointing out columns of self-praise for news items.

11.—The News practices no deception and resorts to no subterfuge to induce people to subscribe, but on the contrary, prefers to stand on its own merits, as the people's newspaper, with a promise only to do its utmost to give its patrons the full value of their money—a promise which it has endeavored to faithfully keep in the past.

12.—In conclusion, if a Latter-day Saint can afford to subscribe for only one newspaper, that paper should be the Deseret News; and if more than one, the News should invariably be the first.
