"Marital Trouble"
It is all very fine where young people are courting, having the pleasant tale of a lady, attending balls, parties, places of amusement, and at last popping the question with a slight pressure of the hand, meeting of the lips, and the day appointed to be made one solid party and pleasure continue until a family of children are brought into the world, then there is constant anxiety for their health and comfort, and at any time when one of these bright-eyed, rosy-cheeked children is troubled with Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, or any Croupy Symptoms, the bottle of FALL'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND and TAR is immediately procured, a few doses administered, the disease annihilated, and then everything again moves along smoothly. EVENING NEWS.
May 9, 1878.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Feller's Hill.—The pupils of a number of schools are spending the day at Feller's pleasure gardens.

Attention Firemen!—Special brigade meeting, to-morrow evening, at 7.30, sharp.

H. H. HARDY, Secy.

For Bear Lake.—President D. H. Wells started this morning on a visit to some friends in Bear Lake. He expects to return about the middle of next week.

Information Wanted.—Of John Bonner, who left Liverpool for Ogden, April 10th, per S. S. Wyoming, by his brother George Bonner, Midway, Provo Valley, Utah.

Whose Letter?—If Alice White, of the 16th Ward, will call at this office, she can get a letter, with the London post mark, addressed to her, care of DESERET NEWS.

Base Ball.—To-morrow afternoon the relative merits of the Deserets and Reds, will be thoroughly tested and it is generally believed, notwithstanding the result of the last game that the latter will defeat their opponents. They certainly feel more confidence in themselves, and know that at the game played recently the Deserets were better than usual, while their own playing was not up to the average.

The Reds have a first class team and stand as good a chance as any for the flag and purse this season.

The Mantle Temple.—The following, by a correspondent in the Enquirer, will be of interest to those who are watching the progress of the House of the Lord in Mantle:

"The heights of the four terrace walls will average 17 feet above the grade, and each wall is about 1,000 feet long, and in all contain 2,400 cords of rock, as at present built. They give the broad yards of rock and debris have been excavated and moved away. The depth of the excavation at the east end is 45 feet. The foundation of the building is 63 feet above the level of the grade. The width of the building is 95 by 172 feet long, is to be 82 feet from the ground to the square tower is to be 100 feet square at the base, the east one will be 170, and the west one 169 feet high. The water supply the temple and grounds will be brought in wooden pipes from a spring situated about a mile east of the place, it having a fall of 75 feet to a reservoir, and 100 feet from the reservoir to the tower terrace."

Miss Adams' Reappearance.—The Theatre last night was not so well attended as the performance merited. Miss Adams has lost none of the charming art she has always possessed, of making herself a favorite with the audience, and it was the general verdict that she has improved materially since Felt Lake saw her last. Her appearance was refined and artistic, her acting beautifully pathetic. Her little daughter, Maud, is a wonder. Like her mother, a born actress, she not only has a prepossessing address, but her education is as clear and perfect as her acting is free and unrestrained. She plays with the manner and presence of mind of an experienced actress. Mr. Croble was as good as ever. Miss Cogswell and Mr. Sutton did very well, and so did Messrs. Wilton and Perister, though the latter would have improved his part if, when he found he had lost his audience, he had exhibited a little more feeling; he manifested no more emotion than if he had lost a nickel. The orchestra rendered splendid music in fine style. Mr. Croble's cornet solo was particularly good.

To-night, "The Stepmother" will be produced, and a matinee to-morrow afternoon. Miss Adams is deserving of public patronage.

Condolence.—We regret to learn of the death of two children from diphtheria within three days, in the family of Brother William Calder. We deeply sympathize with the bereaved household.

Miles' Sentence Deferred.—The sentence of John Miles has been postponed until the 21st inst. Arguments on the application for a new trial will then be heard, also. It is singular that this should happen on the prisoner's birthday; on that day Mr. Miles will be 25 years old. Is it chance?

Sunday School Benefit.—Remember the entertainment in the 17th Ward, this evening. The young ladies and gentlemen of the Sabbath school have prepared, and will present two excellent dramatic pieces, which will be varied by an olio containing the choicest selections of the favorite opera, "Pinafore," to be rendered by an efficient corps of vocalists.

The bill is one that will draw well. Go, everybody.

"Enquire" Items.—Grasshoppers are damaging crops at Spanish Fork.

Saturday night's frost nipped the tender vines.

Oren Lewis, of Payson, broke man on the Utah Southern, while coupling cars at Lehi, on Monday, and was severely injured.

Last Saturday, the wagon of Hiram Evans, of Provo, was captured by the wind, and himself dragged some distance beneath it. He was picked up unconscious, his head and back being severely bruised.

Personal.—Messrs. Jno. H. Pierce ("Ranger") correspondent of the Omaha Bee, and Wm. M. Patton, of the Omaha Evening News, are in town and staying at the Walker House. These gentlemen are partners in the publication of a monthly magazine called The Western, containing choice American and European literature, original and selected. Its contributors are able authors and its selections are made from the standard magazines. These gentlemen desire to establish a branch office here and advertise for an agent in this evening's News.

Arrived.—The first company of emigrants for the season with the returning missionaries, in charge of Elder Chas. H. Nibley arrived here all well last evening. They left Liverpool on the 19th of April, numbering 175. They arrived at New York April 30th, and left the next day in the evening, reaching Omaha last Sunday at 10 p. m., where the U. P. officers kindly detained the train for them five hours, thus saving them twenty-four hours delay on the journey. They left at 11 p. m. the same night, and came right through without accident or difficulty. There were no births, deaths or losses by the way; those passengers booked only to New York came through with the company to Salt Lake, and no sickness of any moment was experienced. Their trip was very pleasant, Elder Nibley feels well and gives a good account of his company and of the treatment suffered from the U. P. and other railroad officials. Welcome home!

SUNDAY SCHOOL MEETING.

The usual monthly meeting of the Deseret Sunday School Union was held last Monday night, in the 14th Ward Assembly Rooms. Superintendent George (Goldard) presiding.

After the opening services Supt. Goldard said, that arrangements were being made for a Grand Jubilee on the 24th of July in the Tabernacle, the proceeds of which were to be used for the completion of the New Tabernacle, and as the singing of these songs by the Sunday School children was proposed to be one of the principal attractions, he called for the choice of the meeting, which should be held when the songs No. 18, No. 2 and No. 10 were voted in.

Superintendents Reynolds, Evans and Tuckett gave some instructions in relation to the procession of the Sunday Schools on the occasion of the welcome to President D. H. Wells. After which Superintendent Goldard asked the question why we were going to have a procession, and said it was to welcome President Wells back from the Penitentiary, who preferred to go there rather than betray his God. He asked all present to turn out on the morning and show they were on the Lord's side, and asked all those who would consider it a privilege to pay a cent each to help to pay President Wells' fine to make it manifest, when every hand went up.

14th Ward Choir and Glee Club performed and sang for the occasion.

J. C. CUTLER, Assistant Sec'y.

The wires are loaded with lengthy comments on the California constitution.

A nihilist printing press has been discovered at the office of the Ministry of Public Communications in St. Petersburg. Eight officials have been arrested.
