Members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. A special train was run from Salt Lake, bringing about 150 members from that city, making about 700 present at the conference, which was one of the most successful meetings ever held in this city by the society.

The reunion of the Netherlands missionary society was held at the Fifth ward meetinghouse Saturday evening with a reception and social, which was largely attended. A program, consisting of speeches, musical selections and dancing was given.

WOODMEN MEMORIAL SERVICES.
Ogden, June 1.—The annual Memorial services of the Modern Woodmen and the Royal Neighbors were observed yesterday at the First Presbyterian church with a very large attendance. The sermon was preached by Rev. John E.
Carver, who took for his text, "The Gracious Talent of Remembrance." After the services at the church members of both of the orders visited the city and Mountain View cemeteries, where the graves of the departed members were decorated.

TABERNACLE SERVICES.

At the regular Sunday services at the Ogden tabernacle yesterday afternoon Sylvester D. Bradford was the principal speaker. He used for his theme a regular gospel sermon, speaking upon the progress of religion, science, art and literature, and in part said that the most progress made in all these during the past thousand years had been made within the last 100 years.
The present period had been the most eventful one of the history of the world.

A special musical program was rendered which included a solo, "Abide With Me," by William S. Wright; organ solo, S. E. Whitaker, and selections by the tabernacle choir.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.

While returning home Saturday afternoon from the fair grounds, Mrs.
Julia Story was struck by a horse and thrown from the buggy. The horse frightened at a passing street car and started to buck. Mrs. Story became frightened and to protect herself she jumped from the buggy, and broke her left leg between the ankle and the knee.

She was removed to the hospital in the ambulance where the injured member was set. She was later taken to her home.

WANTS METHODIST CONFERENCE.

The chamber of commerce of Ogden at a meeting held Saturday evening decided that Ogden should join with Salt Lake in petitioning the next general conference of the Methodist church to be held in Utah. The cities asking for the conference next year are Des Moines, Denver and Salt Lake.

FUNERAL SERVICES.

The funeral services over the body of Ben Hopkins, who was killed last Monday by falling from a scaffold at the Springs on Decoration day, were held at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The services were under the auspices of the Woodmen of the World.
The deceased leaves a wife and three children.

AUTO RACE.

Harmon Peery won the automobile race between Ogden and the Hot Springs on Decoration day. L. H.
Becraft was given second place and J. C. Jensen won the first place for "runabouts."

NINETY DAYS FOR WIFE BEATING.

Ogden, June 1.—Ninety days on Ogden's rock pile for beating his wife was the result for C. H. Lee in Judge Murphy's court this morning.
Lee was accused by his wife several days ago with having brutally assaulted her at their home in Lincoln avenue between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth streets. When brought into court this morning, Mrs. Lee, who had asked that the case be dismissed, refused to testify against her husband, and Lee had nothing to say in his own behalf. However, Detective Pender, who seemed to be primed with several facts which upset the plans of Mr. and Mrs. Lee, was called to the stand. He testified to the vicious assault Lee made upon his wife and after hearing the detective's recital, Judge Murphy imposed sentence as indicated above.

Edith Bowen, and L. L. Daines and Miss Inez Maughan, associates.

FUNERAL OF MRS. LINDQUIST.

The remains of Mrs. Josephine Lindquist, wife of N. E. Lindquist, 64 years of age, who died in Ogden Sunday last, was buried in the Logan cemetery Friday afternoon after the funeral services.
The following persons, all of whom were personal friends of the deceased, spoke words of comfort to the large family and friends present: Elders H. J. Nelson, Gustave Thomason, Thomas Morgan, Andrew Elanson, Bishop Skanvick, Anders Petersen, and Bishop Newbold.
Appropriate music was furnished by Frank Baugh, who sang a solo; M. J.
Ballard, and a quartet composed of Robert, William and Alex. Smith and Miss Batt.

PIONEER DAUGHTERS.

At the home of Mrs. Victor Crockett last week another neighborhood organization of the Pioneer Daughters was effected with the following officers: President, Sara A. Turner; vice presidents, Grace B. Wardrup and Abbie R.
Scholes; secretary, Cornelia M. Qualle; and treasurer, Oretta D. Merrill. The company will be known as the Ezra T. Benson company. Mrs. Mitchell was sustained as an honorary president of the central organization.

DIVORCE AND OTHER SUITS.

Petrea A. Nielsen has filed a complaint against Martin Nielsen, charging him with failure to provide and on these grounds asking court to dissolve their marriage, which took place at Logan in 1905.

on Saturday evening, May 22, a grand reception and ball were given in honor of the graduates in the opera house.
The spring just past will go down in history as one of the coldest and driest known in this valley in a great many years. There has been only one rain of any consequence during the entire spring, which came May 3.

PARK CITY.

DEATH TO BE INVESTIGATED.

Mystery Surrounds the Passing of Mrs.
Walter Sweetman.

Park City, May 29.—Mrs. Walter Sweetman, otherwise known as Rose Fox, died here Thursday afternoon under mysterious circumstances and the matter will be investigated by a coroner's jury. The jurors summoned were R. G. Sutton, P. H. Watson and W. S.
Wesland. The jurors have examined the witnesses in the case.

The woman's body was this afternoon shipped to her home in Lehi for burial tomorrow.

Mrs. Sweetman was taken sick Thursday morning, Dr. Le Compte was summoned. He remained with her until 10 o'clock that morning and left her in an improved condition. She died suddenly at 12:30 o'clock. After the woman's death burns were found about her mouth and an ugly bruise upon her back, which may have been caused by a kick or a blow. Dr. Le Compte said that the burns might have been caused by the use of antiseptic tablets, but the bruise upon her back could not be accounted for.
