SCHEME TO GET WISCONSIN HERE.

Planning for California Trip and May Play in Salt Lake.

HOPES OF MANAGER RISER.

Iniversity Team May Have a Chance To Play Last Year's Champions-Poings in Eastern Leagues.

If the scheme that Manager Riser of the University football team is nursing just now, materializes, lovers of football hereabouts will have a chance to witness one of the best teams in the country do a few things with the pig skin on a local gridiron

Manager Riser has heard that the Wisconsin eleven is framing up a trip to the coast this season, and is making efforts to get the team to stop off in efforts to get the team to stop off in Salt Lake long enough for a game. Whether the Wisconsin crowd comes or stay home depends entirely upon the decision of the faculty. If the answer is "yes" they come, if "nay"

It is their scheme to play the University of California on Christmas day and then play the Leland Stanford team on New Year's day.

The boys here are enthusiastic over the prospects of a whiri with the husky the prospects of a while with the fluctory crowd from the east as they believe it would do them much good. Manager Riser is now in communication with the manager of the Wisconsins to the fifth round but he lacked the staying of his younger antagonist.

CLIFFORD WINS AGAIN. Knocked Out Dal Hawkins in the Seventh Round.

Butte, Mont., Sept. 18 .- Dal Hawkins of San Francisco was knocked out by Jack Clifford by a short arm right hook to the jaw in the seventh round. The fight apparently was Hawkins' up to the fifth round but lacked the staying of his younger antagonist.

GUN CLUB SHOOT.

Eight Members Participated in a Contest Vesterday Afternoon.

Eight members of the Salt Lake Gun club journeyed down to the traps yesterfact to indulge in a little contest at shooting at blue rocks. A number of good scores were made, but J. F. Sharp carried off the honors again. He made a straight score of 46. Out of a possible the made 48. Uncle John Sharp came cert with a score of 42. mext with a score of 42.

Bailding of Shamrock S.

London, Sept. 18.—Confirming the dispatches of the Associated Press on the subject, the Yachting world today

All the plans for building the Shamck III are in a forward state, and a certain that she will be ready for suching much earlier than either of Sir Thomas Lipton's previous chal-signs. The mild steet for the plat-ing will be specially manufactured with the view of securing minimum eght and maximum strength and reability. Although she will not be besity such a costly vessel as her preconsors, no expense will be spared deh will in any way increase her

On the highest authority the Asso-atel Press is able to say that there is no truth in the report published in the United States by a news agency Justerday that Sir Thomas Lipton's allenge for another series of races to the America's cup will consist of a four-line note, ending with Sir Thomas expression of his "entire satisfacon in all respects with the admirable angements of the New York Yacht club on past occasions."

The name of the woman in question is lies Jaycox of 405 West Fifty-sixth street. New York City. While the years champion was still in Denver the prote to him was still in Denver she wrote to him stating her opinion and arked Corbett to call on her when in New York. This the young chamman that she was laboring under a delusion, and that all the children of his parents had been accounted for. Mrs. Jayen told him how her brother disappeared from home some years ago

EVERY CHILD BORN INTO THE WORLD WITH AN inherited tendency to distressing, disfiguring humours of the skin, scalp, and blood, becomes an object of the most tender solicitude, not only because of its suffering but because of the dreadful fear that the disfiguration is to be lifelong and mar its future happiness and prosperity. Hence it becomes the duty of mothers of such afflicted children to acquaint themselves with the best, the purest, and most effective treatment available, viz., THE CUTICURA TREATMENT.

Warm baths with CUTICURA SOAP, to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales and soften the thickened cuticle, gentle ancietings with CUTICURA OINT-MENT, to instantly allay itching, irritation, and inflammation, and soothe and heal, are all that can be desired for the alleviation of the suffering of skintortured infants and children and the comfort of worn-out, worried mothers. A single set is often sufficient to cure when the best physicians fail.

Young Corbett thinks she may indeed be a distant relative, but is not worry-ing himself much over the fact. The other day he received a letter from the woman who desires to claim kinship, and in it was a four leaf clover, being the expression of a wish for the success of the champion in his coming battle. #### Story of a Negro Fighter Who Whipped Himself in a Bout.

"It is often the unexpected happens in a prize fight," said a veteran sporting man the other day. "The chance blow and the 'hit me now' proposition are frequent occurrence, but the most ridiculous termination of a prize fight I ever saw, or even heard of, was right took in Now Orleans. It was a fight here in New Orleans. It was a fight between a pair of lightweight negroes, between a pair of lightweight negroes, and each had a considerable following. Brown, a city fighter, was always favorite over Jenkins, with whom he was matched. I will never forget the meeting. It was in a weird tumble-down old place with rough wooden benches, built in shaky tiers about a 20 foot ring. The posts of the ring were heavy cedar affairs, not even stripped of their bark, and with several ugly leoking, stubby knots adorning every surface. The place was lighted with smoky kerosene lamps, and was reeking with tobacco smoke and perspiring admirers of the 'pugs.' From spiring admirers of the 'pugs.' From the first sound it was all Brown. He fairly smothered Jenkins in every clash, and at the end of the first round his backers were shricking four to one his chances, with few takers. Jen kins, however, managed to stay on his feet for three rounds. In the third he was on the ground when the gong an-nounced the end of the round. He was carried to his corner by his dusky sec-onds and propped up in his chair. His eyes were closed and both arms and less were limp and useless.
"By dint of heroic treatment and co-

plous doses of whisky that would eat paint off an iron fence, he was restored to shap that permitted his standing up when the gong sounded a resumption of hostilities. In the meantime tions of his seconds, and had ever lighted a cigar during the two-minute rest. As the gong sounded he sauntered to the middle of the ring and gave a very praiseworthy exhibition of buck and wing dancing. Poor Jenkins was swaying about with his arms to his s'des and his eyes closed. He was 'out' except for the fact that he was still upright. Brown wound up his introduced vaudeville specialty with a cake walk, and then settled down to the serious business of the evening. Winking wickedly to his shouting foiowers, he took a position about three paces from Jenkins. He bounded into the air like a wild beast and with a terrific rush he swung his right for his helpless victim's jaw. Unfortunately for Brown, he also ducked his head as he delivered what was to be the last blow in the fight. The fates were kind to Jenkins. Just as Brown hurled him-celf through the air the groggy, beaten fighter unconsciously staggered out of harm's way. Brown plunged across the ring, past Jenkins and his woolly pate hit full on one of the cedar posts with a force that well nigh wrecked the ring. He rolled over on his back and ong after the count of 10 he was still stretched out unconscious. knocked himself out, but Jenkins was the last one in the building to learn that he had won. Jenkins has never since, as far as I know, had any pugilistic aspirations, although in this, his only fight, he was a victor. The story of the trouble of stakeholders in this battle is another charge and I have no battle is another chapter, and I have no doubt the police could tell an interesting sequel of how the place was raided and Brown's head was not the only one broken."—New Orleans Times-

DELECATES TO THE CONVENTION

Those Who Will Frame County Ticket for the Republicans.

SAID TO FAVOR REED SMOOT

Interest in Long Term Commissionership Contest-Result Will Re Told in Convention.

Delegates to the Republican county convention were elected in all the districts of the city and county last night. In some districts there were spirited contests for supremacy and while it is problematical which side won, it is quite generally conceded that the honers went to those who are believed to be favorable to the election of Hon Reed Smoot to the United States senate. There was also considerable interest in the long term commissionership contest, the result of which, however, will best be told when the delegates get together in convention. Fol-lowing are the names of the delegates and alternates elected:

New York, Sept. 19.—In an editorial article today the Times warmly advocates the development of the tion school system in the United King-dom upon the lines already success-fully followed in New York, Chicago and elsewhere in America, cables the London correspondent of the New

It is refreshing, concludes the edito-rial, in the midst of so much barren discussion upon education from every point of view except the good of the children to find an educational move-ment so wholly admirable in itself and with such promise of genuine useful-

Colombian Rebels Search British Ship New York, Sept. 19.—The steamer City of Parra, which has just arrived from Panama, had on board Capt. J. C. Moon of the British steamer Palena, ays a dispatch from San Francisco to the New York American. The captain is quoted as having said his vessel was stopped at sea by the Colombian rebel gunboat Boyaca and searched, notwithstanding the captain's protests. He will make a report of the matter to the British consul The rebels suspected that the British steamer was carrying arms from Valparaiso to the Colombian govern-

BRADFIELD REGULATOR OO., Allanta, Ga.

Is the joy of the household, for without it no happiness can be complete. How sweet the picture of mother and babe, angels smile at and commend the thoughts and aspirations of the mother bending over the cradle. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so full of danger and suffering that she looks forward to the hour when she shall feel the exquisite thrill of motherhood with indescribable dread and fear. Every woman should know that the danger, pain and horror of child-birth can be entirely avoided by the use of Mother's Friend, a scientific liniment for external use only, which toughens and renders pliable all the parts, and assists nature in its sublime work. By its aid thousands of women have passed this great crisis in perfect safety and without pain. Sold at $1.00 per bottle by druggists. Our book of priceless value to all women sent free. Address
