

SIX PRISONERS ARE ARRAIGNED

Clark Brothers and Graham Enter
Pleas of Not Guilty

TO TWO SERIOUS CHARGES.

Murray and Baker Pleaded to Housebreaking—Case Against H. L.
Long is Dismissed.

Six prisoners appeared before Judge Morse today for arraignment. James and Albert Clark and Z. Graham were arraigned on the double charge of grand larceny and receiving stolen property. They each entered pleas of not guilty to both charges. On April 28, it is charged, that the young men robbed C. P. Johnson of $75 in a saloon on Commercial street. Atty. Wanless appeared for the Clark brothers, and asked that their bail be reduced from $500 to $200. Judge Morse denied the request, but gave Mr. Wanless permission to make a similar request upon Judge Lewis, who is acquainted with the testimony in the case, he having heard the habeas corpus proceedings instituted in behalf of the prisoners.

Dan Murray and Arthur Baker entered pleas of not guilty to two separate informations charging them with housebreaking. The first information charged them with breaking into room 21 at No. 11 Broadway on April 10, and the second information charged them with breaking into room 21 of the same house on the same date. Their confederate, Leroy Danes, was not arraigned this morning owing to the absence of his attorney. He will be arraigned tomorrow.

The case against H. K. Long, who, with George Logan, was charged with stealing a suit of clothes from H. Eckstein, was dismissed upon request of Dist. Atty. Elchorn for the reason that the evidence did not show that Long was connected in any way with the crime, but was merely in the store when Logan stole the clothes. Logan entered a plea of guilty on Monday, and is now serving a term in jail for the offense. Long also entered a plea of guilty so that he would not have to wait until fall for trial. He withdrew that plea today, however, and entered one of not guilty, whereupon the case against him was dismissed and he was discharged from custody.

A SPIRITED ELECTION.

Bosch Beats Nichols for President of Typographical Union.

The Salt Lake Typographical union held an annual election last night, and the same may get into the courts before the tripping occasioned by the wave subsides. There were two candidates for the national convention which meets in Washington next August, viz, J. E. Bosch and C. A. Nichols, and the rivalry between the two men for the honor was very keen. So there was a record breaking attendance and the result was the election of Mr. Bosch not only to go to Washington, but as president of the union. It was evident by a Herald-Tribune fight in which the Herald man crossed under the wire first by several lengths.

Mr. Nichols claims that the election of the one man to the two offices was unlawful, and will protest the same. Moreover, cards bearing a statement to the effect that Mr. Nichols had been elected to a firm ever since 1894 were circulated among members of the union and others, urging this as a reason why he should not be honored by the union. Mr. Nichols says he never transacted any business with the firm in question at any time. He has consulted an attorney in regard to the matter and will lay it before the county attorney today, with a view to action for defamation of character.

Last evening's election for the full roster of officers resulted as follows: President, J. E. Bosch; vice president, C. M. Carter; secretary-treasurer, S. M. Stenhouse; executive committee, J. Hart, A. V. Fitzgerald, George Ensign, William Nelson, H. B. Freeman; trustees, William Ringstad, John Ryan, R. G. Shearer, J. E. Bosch; delegates to national convention, J. E. Bosch, J. Hart, R. G. Shearer, A. E. Gregory, John Osborne, H. C. Holdsworth, A. T. Dunlop, W. G. Rogers, J. E. Bosch; printing trades council, A. E. Graham, H. C. Holdsworth, John Osborne; delegate to T. U., J. E. Bosch; alternate, F. L. Hart.

A Little Early Riser
now and then at bedtime will cure constipation, biliousness and liver troubles. Dr. King's Little Blue Pills are a few little pills that cure by arousing the secretions, moving the bowels gently, yet effectively, and giving such tone and strength to the system of the stomach and liver that the cause of the trouble is removed entirely, and if their use is continued for a few days, there will be no return of the complaint. Sold by all druggists.

A Sure Thing.
It is said that nothing is so sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Those who are tested to that, Mrs. C. B. VanMetre of Shepherdstown, W. Va., says, "I had a severe case of bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but nothing helped. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It is infallible for Croup, Whooping Cough, Grip, Pneumonia, and Consumption. Try it. It is guaranteed by Z. C. M. I. Drug Store. Trial bottles free. Reg. sales 10c, 15c.

Alleged Robbery to be Investigated on Saturday—Grice Arraigned.

The case of John Foote, charged with robbing Arthur Koch of $205 in cash and a diamond pin valued at $75, was called in Judge Dineen's court this morning, but after an extended argument by the defendant's counsel, the case was continued until Saturday morning in order to give the accused an opportunity to procure a material witness here from Pocatello. Atty. Dana Smith, counsel for the state, intimated that the accused did not want the witness here, and also intimated that the defendant's counsel was making the motion in the hopes that the complainant would leave the town and the case would then be dismissed. This was fully refuted by the state, and the defendant's counsel made no argument. The court finally continued the case until Saturday.

The notorious Sam Grice was arraigned on the charge of grand larceny and pleaded not guilty. It is alleged that Grice stole a horse and saddle from a man named Reid. In default of $500 bonds, Grice was taken to the county jail. The case was set for Saturday morning, but the probabilities are that it will be continued until Monday of next week.

PREST. YOUNG'S STATUE.
Will Likely Find a Place in the Hall of Statuary at St. Louis.

Announcement of the placing of the statue of President Brigham Young in the hall of Statuary at St. Louis, the St. Louis correspondent of the New York Times has this to say:

Officials of the Louisiana Purchase exposition have been surprised recently to learn that an effort is being made to start a campaign to keep the statue of Brigham Young out of the Hall of Statuary in the exhibition. Some protests have already been received from religious organizations in Utah and other western states, and apparently there is a determination to send more of them. The objection to the statue, of course, is on the ground that Brigham Young was a violator of the law against polygamy, and that he once opposed an American army that was sent out to subdue the "Mormons."

It is recognized by the exposition officials, however, that Brigham Young was one of the chief figures in the development of the Louisiana purchase. It was through his mastery plan of colonization and irrigation that a great portion of the west was opened up for settlement. The real potency of his ideals is now beginning to be recognized and asides from his leadership of the "Mormons."

When the region surrounding Salt Lake valley was regarded as a desert on which human beings could not find sustenance, and, in particular, that to the north was thought to be too cold to furnish agricultural land, he devised a plan whereby the various valleys could be developed. As soon as Salt Lake became self-supporting, parties of "Mormons" were designated to go to the communities, and to establish a new community. This was self-supporting. It was added by the central body of the "Mormons." As fast as one region was conquered another party would be sent out still further afield.

In conquering the various valleys the system of irrigation that was tried in Salt Lake valley was developed. The great communities digging canals and ditches that would keep their lands properly supplied with water, so that they need not depend on the rainfall, which was known to be a doubtful thing. It was in this way that the "Mormon" settlements were pushed southward into New Mexico and Arizona, northward as far as Colorado and Nevada, eastward well into Colorado and westward into Nevada. This "Mormon" movement is still going on, and the government has taken up the plan of irrigation to reclaim the great sandy deserts of Arizona, New Mexico, Wyoming, Utah and Nevada.

It is for this reason that the officials of the exposition believe that the statue of Brigham Young is entitled to a place in Statuary hall, and there is little doubt that it will be placed there. The statue will be a fine one, and will tell the feeling that still exists in Utah for the Gentiles in Salt Lake joined with the "Mormons" at ceremonies incident to the unveiling of a statue to Brigham Young.

AMUSEMENTS.
W. H. Crane and his New York company arrived this morning from San Francisco, where they have been doing immense business in "David Harum." There has been a large advance sale here, and tonight's audience will, no doubt, be a notable one.

The advance sale for the performance of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," at the Grand next week, continues tomorrow morning. "East Lynne" is still running along to good business, yesterday's audience being very large.

Munger Myers of the Salt Palace has returned from Denver with the announcement that the Salt Palace will be on the big circuit of the world. The place will be the main vaudeville show on route east and west, this summer. The formal opening will take place on the night of May 29, the special features being Dravell and Landers, the specialty artists, Anderson, the male Patti, and Saninella, the contralto.

Mr. Myers attaches no importance to the claims made by Mr. Imhaus, who wrote to the "News" several days ago that he was booking attractions for the Salt Palace in San Francisco.

The formal opening at Calder's Palace will occur on Decoration day, May 30. The place this year is under the charge of Mr. J. Bergerman, who announces that it will be conducted as a first class family resort. The railroad line will continue to be free of charge, and the popularity of Calder's ought to insure a prosperous season under Mr. Bergerman's management.

BIG SUIT UNDER THE ELKINS LAW
Denver, Colo., May 21.—A Republican special from Gunnison, Colo., says that suits have been commenced against the Colorado & Southern railway by the Baldwin Coal company for damages in the sum of $400,000 through alleged violation of the constitution of the state by granting "undue and unreasonable discrimination and preference" to a rival coal company in the way of furnishing means of transportation for its product.

President Frank Trumbull is made a party to the suit and is charged with owning an interest in the alleged favored company. The defense has filed a denial and pleads that it is not obligated to furnish transportation facilities on the plaintiff's tracks, which run from a branch of the road to the mine.

SALT AIR IMPROVEMENTS.
Dressing Rooms Being Moved Bodily To North Side.

A gang of men and teams have started work out at Saltair on the moving of the dressingrooms on the southwest side over to the north wing. The undertaking is somewhat of a large one and will take nearly two months to complete.

This step has been taken by the executive committee as it is thought that the benefits to be derived will be much greater than the building of a plank walk as was first decided upon that the outfit for the contract will be a wise step. The dressingrooms on the southwest side now stand high and dry. This long jetty is to be cut into sections, the piling along off close to the bed of the lake and the whole outfit by means of jacks, teams, rollers and an engine, will be transported across to the north wing, where it will extend into comparatively deep water.
