Almost C-mplete Ofservance of This Thanksgiving Day.

THE ANNUAL SQUARE MEAL

Also Comes to Some of the Unfortun ates Who Bump Against the World's Hard Places.

There was a general observance of this Thanksgiving day among the churches of Salt Lake. In most instances members of several congregations met in one church building and were addressed by one of the pastors. In all cases the services were much enjoyed, being very appropriate and instructive.

A one-hour Thanksgiving service was held at the East Side Baptist church, northwest corner of Second South and Seventh East streets, the Rev. Joel A. Smith conducting. The building was very comfortably filled with religious worshipers from the Iliff Methodist, Third Presbyterian, Phillips Congre-gational and East Side Baptist churches, who listened to an appro-priate sermon from the pastor. The speaker admonished his hearers to taise their voices in praise to God for His goodness to them during the past year, and to so order their lives and thoughts as to in the end receive the reward which comes to all doers of good, and to make themselves deserve their Maker's welcome: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of they Lord." There was some excellent singing during the ser-vice. alse their voices in praise to God for vice.

AT ST. PAUL'S.

Rev. Daunt Scott Conducts a Very Impressive Service and Gave Good Advice.

Special Thanksgiving services were held at St. Paul's this morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. Daunt Scott conducting them. The service opened with prayer and choral music from the church them. hymnal, after which Rev. Scott deliv-ered a brief sermon, choosing for his text the passage commencing "Every good and perfect gift cometh from God." The text, Rev. Scott said, was especially fitted for the foundation of a Thankaring for all indeed Thanksgiving sermon: for all, indeed, that we have to give thanks for comes from that one source-our government, home, joys, gifts, great or small. Thanksgiving does not mean a big ball given, or a big dinner. Men made ex-cuses for not attending church service that they work hard on week days and must rest on the Sabbath and holidays. Should they not rather rejoice to go into God's sanctuary and give thanks that they have work? There are many without that blessing to give thanks for. . Mothers say that their family of ilutie ones keep them from attending service. When they see rosy checked children playing about them in health and joy should they not go into church and give thanks for that blessing? The true thanksgiving is shown in daily lives rather than in prayer and praise We may attend service and be uplifted some vet world and coming into contact with worship to other gods. The declaration "God is love" should not be looked up-on as a mere plutitude. The thought of its reality should perpetually per-fume our paths. We should rest constantly in the thought that the "everlasting arms" are always about us and that gracious presences surround and protect is. The service ended with an protect ns. exhortation to each to offer up his life to God. The anthem, "Come, Let Us Sing Praise Unto God," was sung by the choir and was followed by "America" by choir and congregation.

prayer by Rev. E. G. Hunt, of the Heath M. E., anthem by the choir, "A Song of Thanksgiving," composed by Prof. Parks, of York, Nebraska, The singers were led by Prof. Quay, assist-ed by Prof. Wetzel, and their work was ed by Prof. Wetzel, and their work was exceptionally well done. Miss Cather-ine wells presided at the organ. The services were closed by the choir and congregation singing the American anthem, "My Country 'Tis of Thee."

AMONG THE CATHOLICS.

Regular Thanksgiving Mass Held in Observance of the Day.

Adherents of the Catholic faith ob-served the day in Thanksgiving mass, the services being well attended and much appreciated. As in all the other churches special reference to the ob-ject of the day's selection and distincion from other days marked the ser-

AT THE ARMY SHELTER.

Many a Thankful Heart is the Result of

Work of Lads and Lasses. The Salvation Army Shelter was visited this morning and there was found a busy scene in the kitchen and dining rooms. The dinner that was served to 250 men today, was spread in four rooms, each of which accommo-dated about 50. The men were ad-mitted in relays of 50 each until the bulk of the crowd had been disposed of and the doors were opened for those who came in late.' It was not merely a meal that had been prepared for the indigent men on the streets, but an elaborate Thanks-giving dinner, with turkey, cranberry sauce, cold ham, potatoes, celery, plum pudding with sauce, bread, tea and cof-fee. It was estimated that 75 pounds of plum pudding was consumed. At 12:30 the doors were opened to admit fifty of the large crowd of individuals who had come to receive the first square meal perhaps that they had eaten for a year. There were old men and middle-aged men; some who came on crutches, others limp-ing without crutches. But they ing gazed wistfully in at the through which came the odors of the kitchen that made them actually cry in anticipation. The attendants and officers at the shelter looked on in kindly satisfaction, while the hungry fellows devoured the tasty viands allotted to them. It was a benevolent enterprise. It was worth the pains it required to have seen one fellows walk away from the tawiping his eyes, and exclaiming it was the first good meal he had that It eaten for six months.

It was said at the shelter that out of this Thanksgiving movement had grown a shoe fund, by means of which all the destitute school children shall be Y. M. C. A. supplied with comfortable shoes and clothing. One of the officers said today that there was less need for hell ag people outright in Salt Lake than any other city he had ever visited. He found the citizens of Salt Lake to be charitable and kind, always ready to respond to a cry for help, While provision has been made to feed every worthy poor family in the city for one day, it is the purpose of the army to feed some of the familles in most destitute condition during some time longer. feed some of the families in the most destitute condition during some time longer.

The house was, beautirecipient's friends, sympathizers and well wishers. The house was, beauli-fully and tastefully decorated; stream-ers, representing all the colors of the rambow, hung in profusion from the celling and chandellers; potted plants, of nearly every description and var-iety occupied conspicuous places on the speaker's stand; a picture of the guest of honor hung on the west wall, and numerous motioes could be seen here and there. The program was a splendid one, being as follows:

WITH THE JUSTICES.

H. G. Button swore to a complaint in Justice Sommers' court last evening charging J. H. Miles, a jeweler who failed some time ago, with embezzlement. A warrant was at once issued for his arrest, and placed in the hands of a deputy sheriff. It is alleged that Miles failed to return a valuable gold watch which had been left with him. It is probable that the charge he will be prosecuted upon will be the unlawful appropriation of the watch.

CHRISTIANS GO TO OGDEN.

Salt Lake Team Scheduled to Meet Ogden Athietic Club Today.

The Y. M. C. A. football team left Salt Lake about 9 c'clock this morning on a Rio Grande Western special for the Junction City. Judging from the expression on their faces, the boys were confident of success in their battle with the Ogden team which was scheduled for 3 o'clock p. m. at the Ogden Driving Park. The line up of the Christians for this game is somewhat different than is has been heretofore. In the place of Allen at half back Sam Porter will be installed, and positions will be changed by Seare and Augustus. The Ogden eleven have been practic-ing hard, and if the y put up the game that has been anticipated it will be a good one. The line up of the Y. M. a good one. The line up of the Y. M. C. Four Congregations Represented at Services Conducted by Rev. W. H. Bagley.

The southeastern part of town was The southeastern part of town was formed into one district for today's ser-vices. This section included the First Congregational, First Methodist, First Presbyterian and Central Christian churches. The services were conducted at the Central Christian church, corner of Fourth South and Thield Four exact at the Central Christian chirch, corner of Fourth South and Third East street, commencing at 11 a. m. The Rev. W. H. Bagley of the Central church con-ducted the services, which were very impressive and interesting. Several beautiful hymns of praise were sung by the chair and concentration and the by the choir and congregation and the opening prayer was offered by the Rev. Alfred H. Henry of the Methodist church

Rev. Clarence T. Brown of the First Congregational church, was introduced and spoke very eloquently. He termed thankfulness a virtue from God which Inankrumess a virtue from God which is continually increasing. His remarks were divided into three divisions, viz.: First. Is the World Brighter? Second, Is the World Better? Third, Both are true, because God has blessed us in them. As this is the last Thanksgiving day of the present continy, he took day of the present century, he took his congregation back one hundred years and in very beautiful and impressive language compared our present surroundings with those of the people of the world during the last century. The modern inventions have added Im The monern inventions have added im-mensely to the pleasures of humanity, he said. The tallow candle was com-pared with the lights which we now have generated by electricity, and the pony express with the rallroads, tele-phone and wireless telegraphy. The medical world has also heled some medical world has also beheld many improvements, for example, the X-rays and many other modern inventons, by which the average length of life is increased one-sixth over the last of tury. Under the second division showed that the world was better now than it was years ago. Torture has gone and solitary confinement is fast becoming a thing of the past. The world is becoming aware of the fact that it is cheaper to raise men up than hold them down. Prison and jail re-form is the order of the day. His reference to the last unpleasantness with Spain and its happy ending was very impressive. He urged those present to be more thankful for God's blessings than heretotfore

WESTMINSTER CHURCH.

Rev. Bigelow Talked on Ph sical, Mater al and Spiritual Prosperity.

A Thanksgiving service was held this morning at the West Presbyterian church, on Fourth West between First and Second South streets. The Rev. F. E. Bigelow addressed a large congregation on the physical, material and spiritual prosperity of the country, and was listened to with rapt attention. Among other things the reverend gentleman said that the benefits from edu cation in America during the past year was more than double than that of any other country in the world. He further stated that there were unbounded rea-sons for thanksgiving in private life from the younger people to the adults, and from the middle aged to those farther advanced in life.

The other part of the program was a Scripture reading by the Rev. Mr. Wilkes, of the Second M. E. church;
