FEDERAL COURT.

The United States court was in set sion for a brief spell this morning and Judge Marshall was in his old place on the bench. The most important trans-action was the issuing of a decree in the case of I. H. Shaver against the Salt Lake Realty company, queting certain recommendations which makes relative to the work for the title claimed by the latter to certain property in the southeastern part of the city. It comprises portions of Eighth South street in blocks 2, 3 and 4 plat F. Also part of Tweifth East street. It seems that the Realty comfor investigation. pany held a mortgage to this property arior to it being subdivided into streets The property has been used as one of the public thoroughfares for some time and the court has decreed that the Realty company has no title to it now. George Y. Wallace, Jr., and A. Hatch were admitted to practice in the Federal court, on motion of Attorneys Varian and Critchlow, Judge W. N. Whitecotton has resigned as referee in bankruptcy for Utah county and Elmer E. Corfman has been appointed in his place.

There will be a session of the court omorrow morning. Some of the more important matters to come up will be connection with the Ogden water litigation.
