MEETINGHOUSE DEDICATED.

Smith Creek, W. Va., July 8.—In May, 1934, the elders and saints of the North West Virginia conference began preparing for the erection of a Latter-day Saint meetinghouse to be built in Pendleton county. Their efforts have resulted in success and we are all proud of the neat little structure.

On July 8 the dedicatory services were held under the supervision of President Lorenzo Matheson, assisted by Elders Thomas Ivan Davies, Geo. W. Sorenson and Jesse N. Walte. The house was crowded to overflowing, many having to remain out of doors. Perfect order was had and all seemed highly appreciative of the privilege of witnessing our services.

At 10 a. m. after the opening services of song and prayer President Lorenzo Matheson made a few explanatory remarks, showing the purpose of the Mormon mission. He then offered the dedicatory prayer, George W. Sorenson then spoke on "Church Organization and the Necessity of Revelation."

Dinner was served on the grounds by saints and friends. All who gathered there were given a most hearty welcome and were feasted upon roast chicken and other good things.

When dinner was over all assembled for afternoon services. The topics dwelt upon were "The Divinity of the Book of Mormon" by Elder Thomas Ivan Davies, "The Plan of Salvation," by Jesse N. Walte; President Lorenzo Matheson spoke very ably on "Prophecy and Necessity of Latter-day Revelation."

Services were resumed at 7:30 in the evening. The house was filled with young people who listened very attentively to the encouraging words of President Matheson urging them to prepare themselves for future usefulness.

The diligent labors of Elder Geo. D. Ward, who had the entire construction under his supervision, and Elders A. H. Casperson and George W. Sorenson who were his companions, deserve special mention. The three did a great part of the labor. The logging, quarrying of the stone and a great part of the skilled work was done by them. People are made to see that our elders are not only preachers but that they also have some brawn to expend in the cause they have espoused.

The local saints and friends aided very materially in the enterprise, donating liberally both in labor and means to the church, and entertained the elders at their homes while they were engaged in the work. The work at this place is slowly spreading; the elders feel encouraged in their labors and are doing good work to spread the cause of truth.

LORENZO MATHESON, President of North West Virginia Conference.

BAPTISMS IN MICHIGAN.

Under date of July 25, the Michigan elders write the "News" from Detroit as follows:

We are sorry to report the death of Mrs. Katie K. Gurber of Detroit. Miss Hattie Allor of Mt. Clemens, and Laura Sorter, daughter of Brother and Sister Sorter, who for a time lived in Idaho, now residing near Dundee, Mich. We are sorry to report the death of Bro. Robert Smiley, who leaves to mourn his departure, a wife and five children. He died July 19, and his funeral held at his home July 21, at 2:30 p. m. The saints and his friends were in attendance. Elder Abraham Anderson was the speaker.

We are proud with our work in this conference, as we can see some of the fruits of our labors.

VISIT COLORADO MISSION.

Denver, Colo. July 22.—While on a visit to Denver the writer had the pleasure of calling upon the Mormon mission headquarters 422 Sixth avenue. I was very warmly received by Elder George E. Perrin, who, in the absence of President Joseph A. McRae, has full charge of affairs. I was shown through the beautiful mission home which has every comfort the elders can wish for in the mission field. Elder Perrin said he thought the headquarters had been slighted in that so many Latter-day Saints came to Denver and failed to call at the mission headquarters. Those in charge are always willing and pleased to see visitors from Utah, and show them around the city. The writer found

The missionaries, both elders and sisters, greatly enjoying their labors in the ministry and doing a good work. The sisters are a strong factor in the mission work; they are fearless in defending truth and take pride in telling of their religion. Elder Perrin states that the missionaries are finding many good people in Denver.

The Colorado mission covers a vast amount of territory, and Elder Perrin said it was very hard to do as much as they wished, as the laborers are few and the work great.

Another Saint Laker, Eston M. Parry, enjoyed the hospitality of the mission house this week with the writer. Pres. McRae is a father to the young missionaries, and his good counsel is much appreciated.

ERNEST ROBBINS.

CONGREGATION IN SPOKANE.

Spokane, Wash., July 21.—The elders have established the first Mormon congregation here. It was organized in the city by Willard Holladay of San-taquin, Utah, who has been appointed conference president to take charge of the work in this district. His territory extends from Columbia river on the south to Ellensburg, on the west, British Columbia, on the north to Montana and northern Idaho on the east. It is intended to hold regular services in Spokane in the future and the use of the Academy hall, 1019 Riverside avenue, has been secured where services will be held Sunday afternoons. The new church starts out with about 24 members.

The work in the northwest is progressing nicely, and we are looking for many more in the future, under the able management of Elder Nephi Pratt, president of the mission.

JOHN WILLARD HALLADAY.

BAPTISMS IN MINNESOTA.

St. Paul, Minn., July 8.—A number of the saints and elders of this conference met at Reed's and held one of the most successful conferences that was ever held in Minnesota.

President German E. Ellsworth of the Northern States mission was present. Meeting convened at Central hall at 2 p. m., with President D. N. Neal in charge. The speakers were Elders Alanson Lewis, D. S. Neal and President German E. Ellsworth. A quartet by Elders McNeil, Hybee, Merrill and Brother Johnson, and also a duet by Sister Mary Moe and Elder Merrill were very successfully rendered. The second meeting was held at the same place at 7:30 p. m. The speakers were Elder Clark, who was visiting from Wisconsin, President Neal and President Ellsworth. All bore a strong testimony to the truthfulness of the gospel. At the evening meeting a duet by Sister Moe and Elder Hybee, and also a trio by Sister Moe, Elders Hybee and Merrill, were rendered.

While at Reed's, we had the privilege of hearing the superintendent of the Methodist Sunday school announce before her school that she had decided to cast her lot with the Mormons, which was accordingly did on the following day. About 200 of her friends and neighbors gathered on the banks of the Mississippi river and witnessed her baptism, and that of three of her children. They were baptized by President Neal.

While President Ellsworth was here, President Neal was released to return to his home. President Neal was a good man and he will be missed by the saints and elders here.

Elder Alanson Lewis was chosen to succeed President Neal.

This conference is in a flourishing condition and we contemplate baptizing several more honest souls in the near future.

"News" and Era are always welcome visitors.

LEON E. MERRILL, Secy.

STAKE CONFERENCES.

BLACKFOOT STAKE.

The eleventh quarterly conference of the Blackfoot stake convened at Basalt, Idaho, July 21 and 22, and was a very profitable and pleasant conference.

There were present, Elders Lorenzo R. Thomas and Don C. Walker of the stake presidency, and the following representatives from Salt Lake: Elder Ruger Clawson of the quorum of twelve apostles, Seymour B. Young, of the first council of seventy, and Andrew Jensen, assistant Church historian.

The attendance during the first day's session was not large, owing to the fact that the farmers are extremely busy with their hay crops at this season of the year. But during the two sessions on Sunday the attendance was good, the house being crowded to its full capacity, there being about 520 members present.

President Thomas reported the condition of the stake as a whole as being satisfactory, and the people prospering both spiritually and temporally. The reports from Bishops and presidents of the auxiliary organizations indicated similar conditions.

Short addresses were made by the members of the stake presidency and the brethren from Salt Lake, all of which were directed to the present needs of the Latter-day Saints in building up the stakes of Zion. During the afternoon session on Sunday Elder Clawson delivered a most interesting discourse upon the importance of parents teaching their children correct principles during their youth, and in living up to the principles of the Gospel themselves. During the same session Elder Seymour B. Young spoke of the necessity of a more strict adherence of the Word of Wisdom.

On Friday the 26th, the Relief Society held its conference at the same place, and it was one of the largest attended conferences of this organization that has been held in the stake. Sisters Beattie and Dusenberry of the general board at Salt Lake City, were in attendance and delivered interesting discourses upon Relief society work. Reports from the various organizations indicated that they were all prospering and that the organizations throughout the stake were becoming stronger and doing more effective work each year.

The Y. M. and Y. L. M. I. Associations held their regular conjoint session on Sunday evening, which was well attended. The program rendered was interesting throughout and the instructions given were timely and to the point.

J. H. CARRUTH, Stake Clerk.
