

TO WED AN AMERICAN GIRL.

Prince Ye, of Corea, is to marry an American girl. Her name is Miss Olive Buckner and she is a southern society belle. This is the first wedding between an American society girl and a Japanese prince. Prince Ye is the second son of the king of Corea.

street, where they will shortly be at home to their friends.

Tolbert Elliott leaves today for West Point to take examinations for entrance to the academy.

Miss Althea Wheeler is home from college. She will leave some time next week for a few weeks' outing at Brighton. Miss Georgia Wheeler will accompany her.

Miss Mary E. Glimmer has arrived from Boston to spend the summer with friends and relatives.

Miss Gene Kimball is in the city from Minneapolis and will be the guest for a short time of Mrs. D. P. Walker.

Miss Grand Lewis and her mother, formerly of Ogden, have taken up their residence here permanently and are at home to their friends at 823 east Second South street.

Mrs. C. A. Stain has gone to Logan for 10 days to visit friends.

Mrs. J. W. Connell of Ogden is visiting her mother, Mrs. Charles Stowe, at 357 south Twelfth East street.

Mrs. Henry of Oakland is in the city visiting her uncle, Dr. Whitney. Mrs. Henry is well known here, having visited friends many times in her girlhood, when she was Miss Mary Whitney.

Mr. Hardy of Kentucky is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Callie, of Fort Douglas.

Mrs. Emma Ellerbeck and family left this morning for Brighton, where they will occupy their cottage for the rest of the summer.

Capt. E. A. Wedgewood and his son Bruce left Wednesday for a vacation trip to Portland and San Francisco.

Mrs. C. E. Richards and children leave this week for Colorado Springs.

Miss Leo Front went to California Thursday morning, where she will spend a month visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Clifford R. Pearsall has been entertaining her cousin, Miss Nellie Moore of Kansas City. Miss Moore left Friday for Montana to visit relatives and friends.

Mrs. Lindsay B. Rogers will leave Monday with her children for a short visit in Nova Scotia.

Miss Mary Wightman leaves shortly for Los Angeles.

Mrs. Joseph A. Anderson left Monday with her children for a month's visit with relatives and friends in Star Valley.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. Fred Odell are back from their wedding trip and are at home with Judge Howard's family for a few days.

Miss Margaret Lizaran leaves tomorrow for a month's stay in California.

Miss Emma Ramsey and Miss Jennie Sands returned Wednesday from a successful southern tour. Miss Ramsey will rest a few days in this city before going to Idaho and the north.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Moore and Mrs. Charlotte Dunstan Pletcher leave next week for a three weeks' visit in Yellowstone park.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE LIVES

OGDEN SOCIAL NEWS.

One of the leading social events of the week took place Tuesday evening at the home of Dr. Dalymphe when Mrs. Kate Welmer was married to John S. Noble. The wedding was a quiet one, there being present only the relatives of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Brown, of the Episcopal church. A sumptuous wedding supper was served and the bride and groom left on the early morning train in Supt. Noble's private car for California, where they will spend a few weeks. The bride is one of Ogden's leading society ladies and highly accomplished. The groom is superintendent of the Salt Lake division of the Southern Pacific and one of the city's most influential citizens. Mr. and Mrs. Noble will return to Ogden to make their future home after their tour of the coast.

Miss Gladis Seymore, of Salt Lake, is visiting in Ogden for a short time, the guest of Miss Sarah Larkin.

At the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reese Williams, on west Patterson avenue Tuesday evening a pretty wedding took place when Miss Annie E. Miller and James Williams were married. There were present about 75 of the young couple's friends, who witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Bishop Ensign. After the ceremony the guests adjourned to the dining room, where they partook of a bounteous spread and the evening was spent at music. The home was prettily decorated with cut flowers. The contracting parties are well and popularly known. Their presents were numerous and beautiful.

Monday evening, in the Ogden tabernacle, Prof. Squire Coop, assisted by Miss Cannon Leane, of Paris, France, several local soloists and the Ogden tabernacle choir, will give a recital. The array of musical talent secured for the evening's program is one of the finest ever presented to an Ogden audience. Prof. Coop's exceptional ability alone should draw a large attendance.

Misses Edith and Winnie Wether- spoon entertained a number of their friends delightfully Wednesday evening.

One of the pleasant events of the week was the old folks' party, given at Glenwood Park Wednesday. There were present the aged citizens from all parts of the county, who joined in merry-making, dancing, feasting and real enjoyment of all kinds.

Miss Aretta Agre has returned home from Northfield, Minnesota to spend the summer with her parents.

Miss Rosabell Sison and Herman D. Van Sickle, two well known young people of Ogden, were married this week. Judge Howell performed the ceremony.

Miss Kitty Fitzgerald, daughter of Supt. Fitzgerald of the S. P., has gone to California to spend a couple of months' pleasure.

Mrs. W. H. Cheevers returned home Monday from a pleasant California trip.

Mrs. Edward Wertheimer, of Pine Bluffs, Arkansas is spending the summer in Ogden with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Kuhn.

Saturday afternoon last Mrs. A. B. Canfield entertained a few of her lady friends at her cozy home on Monroe Ave. The time was pleasantly spent at cards. Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Farley winning the prizes. The guests were ushered into the dining room, where all sat down to a delicious repast. Those invited were Mesdames E. Richardson, L. J. Wright, Amos Day, E. Crayshaw, Smith, E. T. Reid, G. Orman, A. Day, L. Greenwell, L. Farley, W. Anderson, M. J. Hewlett, Phil Kohn, L. C. Canfield, A. Greenwell, and Miss Ray Greenwell.

PROVO SOCIAL NEWS.

Mrs. Fanny Stewart very charmingly entertained on Monday evening. The guests were: Senator and Mrs. Reed Snoot, Senator and Mrs. C. E. Looze, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Grove and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Westwood.

Mayor Taylor was the victim to a very elaborate surprise party on Wednesday evening.

The details of the event, while being secretly planned, resulted in a series of supreme enjoyment and cultured entertainment. It was one of the most charming events that our society has attempted, being perfect in every way.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Farrer have taken up their summer residence at Spring Dell.

Prof. and Mrs. A. C. Lund gave a very pleasant musicale at their elegant rooms in the Dalley Flat. Miss Emma Ramsey was the soprano of the evening, which explains in a more perfect way the enjoyment of the ideal evening than any words can explain. Musical selections were rendered by Prof. Reid and Miss Jennie Sands. The guests of the evening were: Mrs. Myatt, Mrs. Moehler and Miss Wilson of Iowa. Miss Emma Ramsey, Miss Jennie Sands, Miss Lydia Thurman and Mr. Clair Reid.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McChrystal and son and daughter are taking a summer vacation at Provo. They are guests at the Hotel Roberts.

Miss Lillie Chipman of American Fork is visiting Provo friends.

Mrs. T. W. Muehlenbruck went to Stockton Friday to visit with her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Schwab were Salt Lake visitors this week.

The old folks of Provo enjoyed a delightful outing at Castella on Friday last. Every one received perfect attention from the managers of this popular resort.

Mrs. Jas. Slik was in Provo on Thursday having left her usual retreat in the canyon for a few days' visit here.

EUREKA SOCIAL NOTES

Eureka—The ladies of Mammoth Hive No. 7, I. C. F. M. will give a grand ball at Hassell's hall on the evening of July 21, for the benefit of the families of the destitute miners of Hannan, Wyo. The Payson orchestra will furnish the music and the ladies will serve refreshments during the evening.

Officer Joseph Phillips took a day off

Thursday to go to Saltair and warble with the Cambrians.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ball returned Monday from a 10 days' sojourn with relatives at Lehi and American Fork.

Misses Bertie Hendriod, Agnes Shea and Mary E. Sullivan returned this week from Mant, where they have been attending summer school.

Miss Elita Dixon left this week for Boise City, Ida., to spend the summer with relatives.

The Carnation ball given by the M. G. M. society Wednesday evening was a grand social success, and everyone present had a splendid time.

Agent Cooper of the R. G. W. Ry. at Spanish Fork was the guest of Agent O. D. Betts this week and visited the different mining properties of Eureka.

John Baker, Charlie Delahorde and John Davis left Sunday for a 10 days' trip to Strawberry valley.

Mrs. R. S. Robertson and daughter came out from Salt Lake Wednesday. They have just returned from the east, where Miss Robertson has been attending school for the past two years. They will spend the summer at their home in North Tintic.

Miss Eliza Bonner returned from Mant this week after taking a course at the summer school at Mant.

Two wagon loads of Eurekaites drove over to the Victor mine Monday night. Joseph Treloar. All were made welcome and sprang a surprise on Mr. and Mrs. by this popular couple, and a pleasant evening was passed with music, song and social chat. Refreshments were served during the evening and the merry party returned in the wee sma hours.

The ball given by the young people of the L. D. S. Church last Friday night was well attended and the building fund increased.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hulsh and Miss Marcella Sullivan were the guests of Payson friends the forepart of the week.

Mrs. C. C. Stiffler returned to her home in Silver City Thursday after a long sojourn with Ogden and Salt Lake City friends.

Mrs. W. C. Dewar returned from a three weeks' stay in the capital city, Tuesday night.

LEHI SOCIAL NEWS.

At the I. O. O. F. hall on Tuesday evening the members of the Royal Neighbor lodge of Lehi gave a very pleasant social. Dainty refreshments were served and the evening was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Alice Royal and Mrs. Rebecca Standerling have returned from Redcloud, Neb., where they have been visiting for some time past.

Miss Juliet and Miss Luella Cutler left this week for Waverly Washington, where they have gone to spend a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Cutler, Jr.

Mrs. Hulsh of Payson has been spending the past week with friends in Lehi.

Miss Emma Woodhouse left Lehi Saturday morning for an extended trip into Idaho. She will also visit the Yellowstone park before returning home.

Mr. John Thomas is in from Fish Springs.

At the home of Mrs. Emma Briggs on Friday evening, a delightful surprise party was given in honor of Miss Maud

Briggs of Lewisville, Idaho. All kinds of games, music, etc., was enjoyed, and dainty refreshments were served. Miss Briggs left Saturday morning for her home at Lewisville.

Miss Emma Ramsey, Mrs. Ramsey and Miss Jennie Sands spent Sunday and Monday with friends in Lehi.

Miss Ida Ross left this week for Idaho Falls, where she has gone to spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Bolen, formerly of Lehi.

Mr. Charles Karren of Magrath, Canada, is in Lehi. Mr. Karren will spend the remainder of the summer in Lehi and will return accompanied by his family in the fall to Magrath.

Mrs. Joseph S. Broadbent is visiting with relatives at Mapleton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McAfee of Springville are spending a few days in Lehi.

BRIGHTON CITY SOCIAL NEWS.

Saturday evening, the 11th, the first theological class of the Third ward Sunday school was entertained by its teachers, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Baird. The spacious lawn was tastefully decorated with Chinese lanterns and presented a very brilliant picture. The evening was thoroughly enjoyed by all, in singing, recitations, games and dancing. Refreshments in the shape of cake and ice cream were served. The pupils of the class departed for their homes at a late hour, feeling assured that their teachers were working earnestly for their benefit both spiritually and temporally. There were present about 40.

Mrs. Ann Summers of Evanston and Mr. Seth Hoopes of the Chila valley, Ariz., were the guests, during the week of their brother, J.W. Hoopes and wife.

The genial smile of D. R. Wright of Ogden was noticed on our streets one day during the week.

Apostle Clawson was a visitor in our midst last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Reynolds of Salt Lake City are visiting relatives in this city and Lake Side.

The stake Sunday schools enjoyed their annual outing at Saltair Thursday. This event is anxiously looked forward to by all the school children, and a good many of our fathers and mothers also join them in their jolly excursion to the lake.

Mrs. B. Mifflin, who has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Bowring, the past month, returned home this week.

Prof. E. W. Nichols is spending a week with his brother out on the Lucin cut-off.

Mrs. Walt Madsen was visiting friends in Millard one day this week.

BRIGHTON NOTES.

E. D. Richards & C. E. Richards were guests of the hotel this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Emlaw of Grand Haven, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Emlaw of Salt Lake made a visit to the resort this week.

David D. Le Compte, Mark McChrystal, W. Percy Brown, Fred Septo are stopping at the hotel.

Mrs. J. J. Maas of Salt Lake City and Miss Helen Bamberger and Julian Bamberger arrived at the hotel on Wednesday, where they expect to spend part of the season.

She stoops to Conquer when she uses Pearline and stoops to a painful struggle with dirt when she uses old fashioned methods and cheap Washing Powders

None Conquer dirt than Soap

I prefer Pearline and use no other. Find it more convenient than soap for washing and especially so for housecleaning and dishwashing. Mrs. Rev. C. C. B.

Experience With Various Soap Powders Creates Preference for Pearline

Have used — and — but prefer Pearline my housecleaning affords me an excellent opportunity of testing it, and I am highly pleased. Mrs. Rev. C. C. B.

The women who are the most particular about their housework are the ones who are the most enthusiastic about

Pearline

WALKER'S STORE.

Entire Stock of Parasols at Prices You Like to Pay—Just Half Regular.

MONDAY AND WEEK.

INTERESTING NEWS surely. You probably have not yet bought a parasol—they've not been wholly necessary until now. For that very reason we have still an attractive stock to choose from. New and fashionable parasols—every one came for this season's selling. Black taffeta silk with chiffon trimming, plain or with hemstitching and some handsomely embroidered; black and white effects in stripes, checks, dots; fancy silk parasols of many kinds. All white with dainty trimmings or plain. In short a parasol to please every one.

Prices begin at 75c and go by easy steps up to $40 each. We want to close out entire stock, so a whole week's sale at HALF THESE PRICES.

CHILDREN'S PARASOLS. Silk and cotton in all pretty styles. Entire stock—25c up to $3 each. Monday and week—HALF PRICES.

Women's Tailor Suits Half Priced.

These are—and should be—rejoicing days for the economically minded. Many and many a woman who believes "a penny saved is worth two earned" will anticipate even the fall dress need and share in this sale. Note how broad is variety—from practical to very dressy—and only half price to pay. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday—

Gray brilliantine suits, serpentine braid trimmed; front panel in skirts, jackets tucked and trimmed with braid, $18.50 regular, reduced to—$9.25.
Black and white shepherd check suits with tight fitting long jackets, self covered button trimming, excellently tailored, $25.50 suits for—$12.75.
"Noil" home spun suits with long tight fitting jacket and plain skirt; strictly tailor style, $47.50 suits reduced to—$23.75.
Light gray mixture cloth suits, silver ball buttons, cloth and silk trimming, tiny pockets on front of jackets, suits silk lined thruout. Reduced from $42.50 to—$21.25.
Two tone bourette grenadine suits with cut steel, silk and passement enteries trimmings, silk lined, reduced from $50 to—$25.
Blue French twine cloth suits, with black silk lace and white coral lace trimmings on waist and skirt, reduced from $32.50 to—$16.25.
Black French mistral suits, with a novel idea in small plait effect carried out for trimming over entire suit and silk lined thruout, reduced from $75 to—$37.50.
Blue voile suits with entire silk foundations, beautifully made, sold at $77.50, $87.50 and $97.50—reduced to—$38.75, $43.75 and $48.75.
Cream boutonne cheviot suits, loose weave, trimmed with black and white lace, reduced from $65 to—$32.50.

All the Handsomest Wash Shirt Waists in Stock Grouped to go at Two Prices.

Up to $12.75 for $5.75. Up to $8.50 for—$3.75.

The handsomest in this stock are the handsomest made. Depend upon that. The most charming waists, those called the exclusives, have all been picked from stock to go into this offering and in something like one hundred scarcely two may be found alike. Beautiful white linen waists with fronts, collar and cuffs of elaborate drawn work all done by hand, fine mull with dainty lace or fine embroidery trimmings, swiss, lawns, serims, and some others. A splendid chance is this to get your dressiest shirt waist for little. Two groups and two prices to facilitate the selling.
Those that were $5 to $12.75 go at—$5.75.
The $7 to $8.50 at—$3.75.
Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Surely Now's the Time to Buy Silk Petticoats—

Sixty Most Charming Ones at One Third Off Prices.

In this lot of sixty, twelve styles at least of silk petticoats can you find? Some have several tiny ruffles on a deep flounce, others the two and three ruffle effects, still others with accordion ruffles and tiny ruching to finish, graduated flounces of different depths and so on. Many richly trimmed with lace, cut-out embroidery, ribbons, hemstitching, tucks and cords. Black and colors. A three days' sale—Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday—at a splendid saving that should be well pondered. Silk petticoats are not often so underpriced.

Sold regularly at $10 to $30 each.
ONE THIRD TAKEN OFF THESE PRICES.

French Convent Hair Braids At Less Than Half Usual Prices.

Direct from the largest importing house in America. There are no finer hair braids to be had. All are made of natural long hair, not combings, and woven on short stems. The demonstrator will be here for a short time and sell at—LESS THAN HALF USUALLY ASKED FOR EQUAL GRADE OF BRAIDS.

Expert Demonstration of the "Fin de Siecle" Hair Mounting Device.

The "Fin de Siecle" comb is well known to many women in this part of the country. It is a simple yet very practical device over which the hair may be arranged in all the new and effective ways of dressing. High, medium, puffed, braided and in the low coiffure style. An expert demonstrator is here to teach all purchasers.

MONDAY AND WEEK.

Walker Brothers Dry Goods Co.

Again Splendid Reductions On Clearance Groups of Lace Curtains and Portieres.

Taking the lots together there isn't a better assortment anywhere. Ample variety. But, broken lines. Which means limitation in the matter of not many of a kind pairs. Some only one, others two or three pairs alike. Monday and week again a clearance and half price or even less.

Ruffled curtains and lace, formerly sold at $2 to $3 a pair, one priced—$1.25.
Stuffed and lace curtains that were $5 to $7.50, one priced—$3.50.
Some choice lace curtains, broken lines of $4 to $15 a pair grades—HALF THESE PRICES.

Tapestry portieres, broken lines of $5 to $25 a pair kinds—HALF REGULAR PRICES.

All $2.50 rope curtains, one priced—$1.25 each.

All remnants of cretons, denims, silk-olines and swiss, up to 20c a yard grades, clearance price—5c.

HAMMOCKS, TABOURETTES.

All the $1.50 hammocks, regular size, with pillow, reduced to 50c.

All $2.50 hammocks, with pillows, reduced to $1.50.

All children's hammocks, $1.25 regular, for 50c.

Chinese hand carved tabourettes, with only tops $10 to $20 regular, reduced to—HALF PRICES.

IN NOTION STORE.

Feather dusters—the best selected ostrich feathers—6-inch to 27 inches long, and sold at 25c up to $2 each. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday—ONE-THIRD OFF THESE PRICES.

Picture dusters, made of fine selected down, three days instead of $1.25 each—50c.

Some shell side combs, different shapes, 60c, 75c and $1 a pair kinds, three days—40c a pair.

A CHARMING "NEGLIGEE."

Nothing is so comfortable on a warm day as a cool, loose garment. But they should be pretty and becoming, as this dainty thing is. Made of thin pink silk, knitted, hung on a yoke, with a fashionable deep cape collar, made of tucks and insertion, and edged with cream lace. It can be made of bagstie and will be just as pretty.