TO SNUFF VOLCANOES.

A STARTLING DISCOVERY MADE BY AN AUSTRALIAN.

Volcanoes can easily be extinguished, says the New York Herald. A New Zealand man claims (and there are many who agree with him) to have succeeded in snuffing out volcanoes by means of which a severe reprimand the case was dismissed and Drysdale released from custody.

THE ELKS' CIRCUS.

The Elks' lodges of this city are to give a burlesque circus at the Grand Opera House in the near future. The affair promises to be a huge success. They will not pretend to put up an up-to-date performance. The members of the lodge will take part in the great performance which will be a round of fun for two and a half hours. Already the various parts in which they are to play are being prepared and it is doubtful if a greater burlesque could be imagined than this coming circus event.

STOLEN HORSE RECOVERED.

Friday night last Sam Jost had two fine work horses stolen from his pasture. He reported the matter to the sheriff, who has been investigating it ever since. Yesterday afternoon one of the horses was seen on traders alley and Mr. Jost was sent for and identified the animal as his. The man who had it said he had traded for it in Salt Lake Saturday, and furnished the sheriff with a good description of the man he got it from, who also had the other horse with him in Salt Lake. Sheriff Bailey went to the capital to locate if possible the other stolen animal and the thief.

COLORADO PORTER ARRESTED.

Dock Tanner, proprietor of the Senate clubroom, had Daniel Webster, the colored porter, arrested on the charge of stealing a pistol and $25. Last evening Tanner left the club to get supper at his home nearby and told Webster to keep good watch on the place until he returned. When Tanner came back he met Webster at the bottom of the stairs, who told him that the money bill was broken open and the money

YOUTHFUL BURGLARS.

Last evening Deputy Sheriff Seabright arrested Frank Cunningham and Thier Thompson, two boys aged about 16 years, on the charge of having burglarized Phillips' store on the corner of Madison and 1st streets, and having stolen a quantity of goods. The boys were taken to the station and while taking the young culprits to the station Thompson broke and ran, getting away from his captors. He was re-arrested this morning by Officer Herrick and succeeded in getting away again. Cunningham recently came from the east and has been in the charge against him, while Thompson is an Ogden boy and has given the officers no little trouble in recent years.

MRS. SHIELDS' KILLED.

Mrs. Elizabeth Shields, mother of Judge Shields of Sacramento, Cal., and one of the judges of the fruit exhibit during the recent session of the irrigation congress, was killed in a runaway accident on Sunday morning by being thrown from her buggy. The word was received this morning by Hon. Fred J. Kiesel and has occasioned much sorrow among the lady's many friends here. Mrs. Shields was considered one of the best authorities in the United States on horticultural products.

HAD HIM BUT LET HIM GO.

G. Y. Perkins, en route east from the coast, had his pocket picked on the train here this morning resulting in a loss of $35 and some valuable papers. Mr. Perkins left the train going to his pocket and caught hold of him, but later released him till he went after the police. When he returned the thief was not and no trace of him could be found.
