

CRIMES AGAINST WOMEN.—It cannot have escaped even the most casual attention that sexual crimes are having a wonderful increase in this country; if not that in fact, then they are certainly more faithfully reported than ever before. The Woman's Journal makes a horrible weekly summary of them, with a view to impress the public with the fact of woman's wrongs. "We are not writing," it says, "to blame men unduly as Darwin says, they act after their kind; we are only intent on showing the fallacy of the theory of masculine protection, and the necessity that women should have increased power, social, civil, legal, political and ecclesiastical, in order to protect themselves." A woman correspondent of the same paper, believing that the half is not told, gives these instances of the many unpublished crimes of this character. A lovely young girl was shunned and derided at school, because she was an illegitimate child. So she went out to service in a family where she hoped to be more sheltered. The mistress of the house used to leave this beautiful child of 14 a one for days together with her unprincipled husband, and the consequence was that she was led astray by him and gave birth to a daughter before she was 15. The payment of $800 settled the difficulty for him. Another young girl of the same age, going to boarding school, was outraged in a sleeping car; a handkerchief wet with chloroform being placed over her mouth and face by a man who had a birth in the same compartment. She was too much frightened and mortified to tell of it until a month had elapsed. Then, to me, rather than to her mother. It was decided to let the fearful crime go unmentioned, as it could not be avenged. Query: Should there not be an immediate demand for a different arrangement in sleeping cars?—Ex.

INDIAN HIGHLANDERS.—At the head of the force marched a detachment of native Highlanders, whose appearance was altogether entertaining, not that their Scotch dress was badly copied or badly worn, but on account of the surprise which one felt at seeing warriors so black in a costume invented for the "fils les plus blonds de la blonde Angleterre." These Scotchmen of the Guikwar were, however, fine tall fellows, broad-shouldered, straight-hipped, and wearing, with much blustering, their enormous black caps covered with ostrich feathers instead of bearskin. A curious thing is that in this country, where the majority of the inhabitants are half naked, the Highlanders, more prudish than their Scotch brethren, have adopted calceons, made in pale rose silk, which have a surprising effect when worn by men of a natural sepia color.—Bombay Cor. Paris Temps.

THE COURSE OF EMPIRE.—Almost the only comment we heard Mr. Seward make on his defeat at Chicago in 1869 was: "Well, power has departed from the Atlantic states to rest hereafter in the Mississippi valley." Have not the events of the last fifteen years made Mr. Seward's prophecy true? What do we now see? President, Vice-President, Chief Justice, and all the chairman of leading committees of the House of Representatives from the west; none from the Atlantic states! New England, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, and the Carolinas are ignored.—N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

—The Virginia Legislature have the dog subject before them, and are wrestling with it. The Richmond Wig says Mr. Wall, "the father of the House," thinks the dog tax will not pass, because "the dogs, destructive as they have been to sheep in the past, have yet slaughtered more statesmen, and you may be certain in the future they will give them a wide berth." Of course neither sheep nor statesmen like to "go to the dogs."

—This is how the Albany (N. Y.) Argus illustrates the severity of the present hard times—"Four positions remain at the disposal of the comptroller in his office. For these positions there are between seven and eight hundred applicants. There is probably not an underserving person, not a case of imposture, among them. They present a most remarkable record of gentlemen too proud to beg and too poor to live. Nothing could more forcibly illustrate the severity of the times."

—Now Moody and Sankey are going to try to convert New York—not before it is needed. Let us devoutly hope that the converted will not prove two-fold more the children of — than they were before.

DIED.

At the residence of his daughter, Mrs. S. D. Shell, in the 17th Ward of this city, on Tuesday, February 8th, 1876, WILLIAM DYER.

Deceased was born in Devonshire, England, in the year 1804; emigrated to Utah in 1867; was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in the fall of the following year.

Millennial Star, please copy.

At Bountiful, Davis County, February 5, 1876, SARAH SALCOMBE, aged 79 years and 8 months.

Deceased was born in Gloucestershire, England; became a member of the Church on May 28th, 1855, being baptized by Elder James Green; was the mother of seven children, five of whom are now in England; was a kind, generous-hearted woman, an affectionate mother, and a faithful Saint. From the time of her baptism till she emigrated to Utah in 1855 she was a constant support of the Gloucester Branch and of the elders who visited there, who will remember her for her many estimable qualities. She died as she had lived, true and faithful, and the respect in which she was held was shown in the large concourse of people who followed her to the grave.—COM.

In Fillmore City, Millard County, January 21st, 1876, of inflammation of the stomach, LAURA ABIGAIL PAYNE, daughter of Reuben and Mary Ann McBride and wife of William Payne.

Deceased was born in Kirtland, Lake County, Ohio, June 27th, 1848; was a kind mother, a loving sister and child, and an amiable wife. She leaves a husband and six small children and many relatives and friends. Shortly before she died, she called her family and relatives around her dying bed to bid them farewell. When she beheld them mourning she smiled and said, "I am so happy. Don't weep; if you could see what I see, you would be happy too." She talked a few minutes to her children, her husband and relatives, and departed as if going to sleep. Her smile was that of an angel.—COM.

At Rockville, Kane County, October 28, 1875, MARTHA, and on January 26th, 1876, DAVID A., twin children of Charles N. and Maria Smith, aged respectively 1 month and 24 days, and 4 months and 22 days.

In Mill Creek Ward, Salt Lake Co., at his residence, Dec. 5, 1875, of debility, BENJAMIN SALKU LD.

Deceased was born March 7, 1812, at Tickhill, Yorkshire, England; embraced the gospel of Jesus Christ in Sheffield, Yorkshire, Sept. 22, 1846; was ordained a priest at the Sheffield Conference, Apr. 1, 1847. At the same year he and family emigrated to America, and stayed in the States to get a fit-out; emigrated to Utah in 1853, and arrived in Salt Lake City Sept. 11; was a mason by trade; went to work on the Temple for the rest of the season, and most of the next year; was ordained a high priest, Dec. 14, 1853; on the 8th of June, 1854, he with others went to survey and stake out the foundation of the Temple in Salt Lake City; in 1855 moved to a farm at Mill Creek, Salt Lake Co.; in 1857 went to work on the Temple for the season; after this he remained at Mill Creek up to his decease. He caught a severe cold in the Spring and lingered all the season till he died. He was a kind and indulgent father and husband, a man of integrity and good works, much respected by all who knew him, a man of peace and sociality, and one that loved the gospel with all his heart and soul. He leaves a large family, with many relatives and friends. He lived and died in full faith of a glorious resurrection, and without a murmur.—COM.

January 28th.

I have founded my business on the belief that the public are anxious to get their seed directly from the grower, and I therefore offer FREE to every man and woman in the United States who cultivates a farm, till a vegetable garden, or plants a flower garden, my large, illustrated Catalogue of Vegetable and Flower Seeds for 1876; it contains, in addition to the choice kinds produced in Europe, one hundred and fifty varieties of vegetable seed grown on my four seed farms. Customers of last season need not write for it. As the original introducer of the Hubbard, Marblehead and Butman Squashes, Phinney's Melon, the Marblehead Cabbages, and a score of other new vegetables, I solicit your patronage. All seed sold under three warrants. A hundred thousand catalogues will be issued and sent out the first of January.
