NEWS OF THE DAY.

Russia and Austria have united in an effort to obtain, from Turkey, a recognition of the independence of Roumania.

The member for Kidderminster, in the House of Commons, has been unseated for corrupt practices in his electoral canvass.

The British admiralty court has awarded one hundred and two thousand dollars' salvage to those who brought the abandoned French steamer Amerique into port.

There was a big fire at Rother hithe, England, last night.

Great damage to property was caused yesterday, by a hurricane at Lowell, Mass.

The night express train on the Richmond and Cincinnati railway was ditched last night by a misplaced switch, nobody badly hurt.

Gerritt Smith has sent a thousand dollars to the Governor of Minnesota, for the relief of those who grasshoppen in Minnesota and his mouth full of cursing and Iowa.

The assessor's estimate places the total loss by the fire in Chicago last Tuesday evening, at five million dollars; total loss to insurance companies $2,244,970.

There is some talk of the early recognition of the Spanish republic by England, Germany and Russia.

It is said that the President of the Spanish government intends, as soon as the Carlists are subdued, to present a claim against France who travel that broad road in for two hundred and fifty million frances indemnity because of the plunder and plenty, and many
