Died of Heart Disease.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Irvine will be pained to learn of the death of their daughter, Kate, in the seventeenth year of her age, the sad event having occurred at their residence in the Nineteenth Ward yesterday afternoon. Last Friday afternoon, as the young lady was walking in the hallway of the house, she was suddenly attacked and swooned away. Her mother succeeded in resuscitating her, and when she had regained consciousness, she, upon being questioned, complained of a soreness in her throat, and an examination revealed the fact that the symptoms were similar to those of diphtheria. Proper attention was given her, and her throat, in the course of a day or two, grew apparently well, though it was not considered safe to permit her to go outside, or expose herself in any way to the danger of cold. About noon yesterday she partook of nourishment, and seemed to be getting on all right. A few minutes after 5 p. m., her mother, who had just stepped down into the kitchen in the basement, heard heavy, staggering steps on the floor of the room above, and started upstairs to see what it was. Just then her daughter appeared at the top of the steps, having come from her room. A deadly pallor was on her face, and with an exclamation, "Oh, Ma!" she fell forward into her mother's arms, as it ultimately proved, dead. A physician was summoned who pronounced the fatal cause to have been paralysis of the heart.

Miss Katie Irvine was born February 17, 1897, being sixteen years and eight months old at the time of her demise. She was a lovely, talented young lady, and was quite accomplished for one of her age. She was secretary of the Nineteenth Ward Primary Association, and was held in very high esteem by those who knew her. The funeral will take place at 4 o'clock this afternoon, from Brother Irvine's residence, and a short service will be held at the bereaved and stricken family.

Marriages.—Our pleasure at learning of worthy young Latter-day Saints forming matrimonial alliances, and of their being united according to the laws of the Church is only qualified by our regret and sorrow at hearing of those who have been born in the covenant being "unequally yoked with unbelievers." The first we can commend with a good heart, the latter we can only condemn and deplore. The first is the fruit of careful training on the part of parents and wise and obedient actions on the part of the young people themselves; the other the sorrowful result of parental neglect or youthful perverseness.

Of the class of marriages we take pleasure in endorsing is one that occurred in the Temple at Logan, on the 14th inst., between Brother Joseph H. Abbott, an exemplary young man of the Salt Lake Stake, and Miss Janet J. Burdick, also of this stake. Another which has taken place in the same sacred edifice to-day, the contractor parties being Brother Mark Spencer, son of the late lamented Daniel Spencer, and Miss Janet J. Burdick, daughter of our respected townsmen, Brother David James.

The young people start out upon their matrimonial career with the blessing of God's servants and the good wishes of all their friends, in which we most heartily join.

Court Proceedings.—In the Third District Court to-day the suit of John E. Baugh vs. E. A. Ireland was dismissed, the cost of plaintiff, on his own motion.

United States vs. John Kennedy, passing counterfeit money; plea of guilty entered, and sentence of one year's imprisonment imposed.

Sentence Suspended.

This afternoon Egan was indicted for grand larceny, in having stolen a horse from Park City, was brought into court, and stated that he wished to withdraw his plea of not guilty. He then entered one of guilty, and Mr. Varian informed the Court that the case was not an aggravated one, even if it could be proven, and that the officers of the penitentiary stated that the health of the defendant was not such that he could longer be kept in confinement. For these reasons he asked that sentence be suspended, and the Court so ordered and Egan was liberated.

Simpson Pardoned.—Last evening, Thomas Simpson, a non-"Mormon" who was convicted of polygamy about six months ago in the Third District Court, and sentenced to two years' imprisonment, was released from the penitentiary, having been pardoned by President Cleveland. The pardon reads as follows:

WHEREAS, At the March term, 1885, of the United States District Court of the District of Utah, Thomas Simpson was convicted of the crime of polygamy and sentenced to two years' imprisonment in the Utah penitentiary at Salt Lake City; and

Whereas, The said Simpson is said to be an honest, hard-working man, who has since been engaged in the business of farming, and has acquired a fair amount of property, and is now living with his wife and family in England during the full time of his association with her; and

Whereas, It has been ascertained through the conviction that the woman with whom he has been living as his wife had a husband in England during the full time of his association with her; and

Whereas, The United States Judge and District Attorney who officiated at the trial have both recommended his pardon;

Now, therefore, I, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States of America, in consideration of the premises, divers other good and sufficient reasons me thereto moving, do hereby grant to said Thomas Simpson full and unconditional pardon.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto signed my name and caused the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed.

Done in the city of Washington, this 12th day of October, A. D. 1885, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and tenth.

By the President, B. F. Bayard, Secretary of State.
