FRAGMENTS.

In every circle there has been a day of small things.

There has been no session of the Police Court today. Judge Smith will probably be back from Idaho by Monday.

The newly organized Business Men's association will hold a meeting in the Washburn hall tonight. The members say that business of importance will be transacted.

The joint city and county building committee are contemplating a junction tour to California for the purpose of investigating the large public fire structures on the Pacific coast.

The United States has taken an action against the Union Pacific Railway company and the Texas and Pacific Railway company in the Third district court in quiet battle to certain lands situated in Summit county.

The French-Canadian assault case, mentioned in these columns on Wednesday, has again been continued. The promised arrangement to have the case tried next, this is a matter apparently built on "shifting sands."

Ten corners' jury which held an inquest at evening over the body of James J. O'Connell, whose sudden death at the Gladstone block was mentioned in last night's News, brought in a verdict to the effect that the deceased came to his death from heart failure.

There have been three more releases from the penitentiary. James H. Hulse, William Bell and William H. Hulse. They were sent up from the First district Court at Provo for three years on September 20, 1892, upon conviction of burglary.

MELINDA D. CLINTON, this afternoon, in the Third district court, brought suit against George Jones and M. Jones to recover the sum of $1000 on a promissory note, with interest at 10 per cent. Hulse and Clinton are the plaintiff's attorneys.

A man leather pocket book containing a Union Pacific railroad pass in favor of E. J. Doolittle, resident of Lake City and Glen's Perry, and a number of other papers, was found up on the streets this morning and taken to the police station, where the owner can recover them.

MAHON, BUCKNER is under arrest on a charge of embezzling the sum of $1000 belonging to the Singer Sewing Machine company, by whom he has been employed as a canvasser or collector. The case was taken on for hearing in Commissioner Pratt's court at 3 p. m. today on the belief that an effort will be made to compromise it.

There is under investigation in the local field office the case of John C. Dugan, S. B. Miller and J. C. Dugan, who are charged with the embezzlement of the publication there were four persons and adverse claims, which have all been disposed of. The case is now in the hands of the attorney general.

month's practice. He further reports that many friends have been made on the islands for the Gospel and that the future prospects are hopeful. The difficulty is that the common people are in everything dependent on their chiefs. Elder Samuel continued there until his return. Among the work accomplished was the translation of tracts setting forth the leading principles of the Gospel to the Tonga natives. These tracts are distributed freely and will be of much use, as the inhabitants generally are able to read. Elder Samuel arrived home on the 18th of December, 1892. Elder O. D. Merrill is in charge of the Tonga mission.

STORY OF CRUEL TREATMENT.

An Ex-Soldier Marries a Woman whose Mother He Thought was Sick. The Result.

Mrs. James Lee, the wife of an old soldier, who has for some time past resided on a street in the Third ward, died last night at the police station this morning and related a story of domestic infidelity and unchastity to Assistant City Attorney Cook that caused him to at once arrive at the conclusion that she had been a much abused and ill-treated woman and that her husband was the cause of all her troubles. She stated that she married Mr. Lee two years ago last August and was not long in ascertaining that she had been married to a drunkard, who she subsequently learned married her with the expectation of getting a rich woman in-law whom he expected to support him. She says further that when Mr. Lee found he could get nothing from her mother he became very cruel towards her and that his abuse was continuous. He had been employed by Mr. Ryan on the water works but had been discharged on account of his drinking proclivities and was now obliged to support himself. Recently her mother had rented the house for her in which she was residing and while there her husband had treated her like a brute in every manner that she could live with him no longer so she wanted to be protected by the police while her husband's goods were taken out of the building and placed in a wagon preparatory to being sent to Southern for his mother's sake where she intends to take her abode.

Chief of Police Paul sent Officer Armstrong up to her house as requested.

A Furniture Firm Assigns.

The old-established firm of Barrett Bros., furniture dealers of Main street, assigned this afternoon for the benefit of their creditors. A typewritten notice directed the creditors to the court house, this information, "Wm. C. Lett, assignee."

THE COAL SWindle.

How It was Operated in Connection with the Presentation of a Christmas Gift.

Some days ago Joseph Thorpe decided to surprise his brother, H. F. Thorpe, with a Christmas gift in the shape of a ton of coal. He accordingly ordered and paid for a ton of the commodity which was at a part of it at least sent to its destination by the steamer, Elberton Bros. It subsequently transpired that the supposed ton was a very small one, and Councilman H. F. Thorpe, who is now under investigation. The coal was returned and weighed under his direction and found to be less than 1000 pounds or just 70 pounds less than was paid for.

The arrest of the driver, E. H. Deal, followed, and this afternoon he placed out guilty to a charge of the coal or swindle. The coal company and the driver both appeared to be anxious to compromise and there seemed to be no objection to the case being dropped. The case was taken up for the case, but Assistant City Attorney Cook said that one who had selected the part of the coal and the proposition to find out who the guilty party was. The case was continued until tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Early Morning Burglary.

Major Wilcox's house, in the eastern part of the city, was entered by a burglar at 2 o'clock this morning. As a result a watch and six handkerchiefs are missing. The robber was seen descending with his booty but has not been seen since. He was wearing an under and a jockey cap and was about five feet seven inches in height.

Look Out For Them.

William Smith, James McCarty and James McDermick, all recently released from the penitentiary, were arrested by the police yesterday afternoon and taken to the city hall and searched. One of the trio had a large pistol loaded all around in his possession. A constitution was held as to what is to be done with them. On order of Chief Paul and Captain Donovan they were placed in the patrol wagon and driven out of the city as far as the Hot Springs with instructions never to come back. They entered the gloomy penitentiary of the Third ward, muttering curses at the manner in which they were treated. They are a tough gang. Look out for them.

Forgot to Come Back.

A Mrs. Hyde residing on Victoria avenue gave a fellow a $10 bill to go out and get change for her today. He went, but up to the present time apparently forgotten to return and now the police are looking for him.

Our Business Representatives.

New York, Dec. 30.—Senator Allison, Senator John A. Logan, and Representative of the United States at the Russian monetary conference, arrived on the steamer Lathi today. Speaking at the conference, Mr. Allison said, "If anything is accomplished, and he did not care to say anything till he could sit down and think it over. When asked if it had been correctly reported as saying that unless the demand of the United States on the silver was agreed in Europe need not expect any reduction on tariff, he answered: "I cannot say anything now until I have time to refresh my memory."

FOR HONORARY MONEY.

The Populist New Scheme for the Advancement of the People.

TURKEY, Dec. 30.—The Populist convention to inaugurate a new plan for making money has failed. High rates of interest and bankers' charges cause many thousands of industrious men to lose their homes through the foreclosure of mortgages. The scheme is to create a state loan commission through which all loans shall be negotiated. Money would pass through the state treasury and payment be guaranteed either by the state or country, thus doing away with brokers' charges and securing a low rate of interest. Governor Lowry in his annual message will recommend the scheme.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—By the steamer Lathi tomorrow will go to Europe 100,000 ounces of silver and 50,000 ounces of gold.

THE Northern Pacific Oil Rights. NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—The committee appointed by the stockholders of the Northern Pacific railroad to look after the property has a resolution to assign and full report will be made public in a short time. It is learned that the committee has the road in a good condition physically, and the only trouble seems to be the rapid improvement of non-paying branch lines. The directors are held responsible.

Domestic Trouble. WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Frank Schwartz, a local agent of the Southern Railway Co., admitted last night on account of domestic infidelity.

Both Dying. ATLANTA, Dec. 30.—Senator Calhoun's condition is considered critical by the doctors. He is confined to bed and one side is paralyzed. In the next hour the wife is paralyzed and her mind affected. She is not expected to live many days.

Robbing a Railroad. ERIE, Pa., Dec. 30.—Dolphins on the Lake Shore road have arrested twelve persons who were wanted for so many months, members of a gang who have been systematically robbing the road between here and Dunkirk. N. Y. Over $10,000 worth of freight has been stolen.

NOT IN A CHURCH.

Revival Services Interrupted in a Terrible Manner.

McABTAIN, Ohio, Dec. 30.—Particulars have been received of a shocking affair at a country church in Galia county. Revival services were in progress. Clark Watkins caught his sister-in-law, Mrs. Peter Watkins, walking with a man with whom her name was unpleasantly connected and a dozen others were present. The church was almost completely wrecked.

A Fortune. DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 30.—Ludwig Kalin, a German, died, with an estate of $150,000 and assets considerably less.
