An Omnibus Suit,

y Telegraph to the NEWS.]

NEW YORK, July 6,-The latest phase f litigation instituted against the National Opera Company by the former members of the company, is the oringing of an "ominibus" suit by the creditors for the purpose of combin-ng all claims in one action. This suit was brought in the Supreme Court. An accounting is asked for and it is ought to ascertain the liability of all the stockholders of the company. The injunction was returnable to-day, and half a score of lawyers representing various interests were present. The ourt adjourned the hearing two

ERIE, Pa, July 6.—The terrible fire, which swept the little town of Claren-don on Monday, was supplemented today by another VISIT OF FIRE, which threatened to wipe out what remained of the village. A strong wind fanned the smouldering pile into a firme and turned towards the town again. The oil well of Patrick Connors was first seized upon and the flames rapidly communicated to the buildings of others, until five derricks and fixtures were a mass of flames Assistance came from Warres and succeeded, after a terrible fight, in grining mastery over the fire, the burning cit, which covered the ground, making the fight a severe one. A count of the buildings destroyed Monday, foots up to 281. There are but sixteen houses left in the town. One hundred tents, which were sent by the gov-ernor, are being used by some of the homeless. It is now known that one child perished in the flames and one or two persons were BADLY BURNED. QUEBEC, July 6 .- Between 12 and 1 o'clock to-night a fire broke out in the barracks at the citadel and it has extended 300 yards enveloping nearly all the buildings facing the entrance

There is great consternation among the sidents in the neignborhood. 12:30 a. m .- All the available fire force in the battery are blowing up the building to prevent the fire from reaching the magazine and the trumpeter is sounding the bugle as a signal of danger and for all hands to keep clear. The fire originated in the cavairy stables on the northeast corner of the citadel, and all the horses, 26 in number, were either burned or suffocated. The Atlantic & Pacific and Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe say that the transcont pen al lines are compelled by their necessities to the same action. All the rates on these lines will be maintained as they are until such time as the legal authorities in the case actually make a rule that such rates ARE UNLAWFUL.

"The companies all," said one of the agents, "rely on the good sense and equitable consideration of the com-missioners. If the fourth section were enterced against us, with the compe-tition of the Canadian Pacific, we would not carry any freight. We are and Illinois Central were in session to-day considering the demoralization consequent upon rate cutting. A com-promise was effected by all agreeing to refer tickets improperly limited to Charman and Damels, the interested lines undertaking to redeem at tariff all cut rate tickets. An ADDITIONAL AGREEMENT was entered into abolishing the sale of tickets at reduced rates to parties of ten, fifty and two hundred, these issues having led to a vast amount of rate cutting. LEAVENWORTH, Kansas, July 6 .-Before the Pacific Investigating Com-fied as to the operation of the Kansas-Central and other branches of the Union Pacific subordinate to the main line, and as to the discrimination in favor of Kansas City, etc. Gen. James C. The services rendered by the man the witness alinded to, had been to explain the bill to members of Congress. Being a western man, he had considerable influence.

Criminal Cases. MORE "FIXING."

CHICAGO, July 6 .- Rumors to-day that the jury in the county commissioners' boodle cases had been "fixed" in the interest of defendants brought the case to a standstill. The court was adjourned for several hours to give the state's attorney time to get at the bottom of the matter. The result was a formal charge that four men had been slipped into the box who should never had been admitted. Geo. S. Tate, O. W. Ostrander, William Parks and Daniel Cudahee composed the quartette. It is stated Tate is an old triend of Warden Varnell, and a long time member of the same Ma-sonic lodge. Cudahee is said to be an alien, and the other two were summoned by Bailiff McGill solely at the instance of persons interested in the acquittal. The state's attorney wants them all rearranged, so some, at least, can be challenged. The judge postponed action until to-morrow. MURDERED FOR MONEY.

Institute of Instruction

BURLINGTON, Vt., July 6.-The session of the American Institute of Instruction opened with a large attendance. After the usual preliminary business, President J. M. Hall delivered the annual address. He said that a better time in educational ways had come, thanks to the American Institute of Instruction, and a still better time will come if to day we will but do our luties in making as good use of life as hose who preceded us did of theirs. Many teachers of the common schools are teaching more scientifically and more in accordance with the laws of mental development than one college professor in a hundred did thirty years ago. The speaker advocated computsory education, not as a cure-all out as one thing which tends to forward a permanence of republican institutions
