For You, Madam,

Whose complexion betrays some humiliating imperfection, whose mirror tells you that you are Tanned, Sallow and disfigured in countenance, or have Eruptions, Redness, Roughness or unwholesome tints of complexion, we say use ELEGANT Magnolia Balm.

It is delicate, harmless and delicious article, producing the most natural and entrancing tints, the artificiality of which no observer can detect, and which soon becomes permanent if the Magnolia Balm is judiciously used.

Republican Panic in Illinois.

CHICAGO, 29.—There is a great political commotion—almost a panic in this city to-day, and the republicans who were recently counting on a 5,000 majority in Cook county, a few days ago, are discussing the chances of a defeat. With one of the best tickets ever placed before the people, and with weak candidates on the other side, they are neglecting their opportunity and are likely to stop trifling and put in sharp work from now on until the night of election. This state of affairs is partly due to over confidence and neglect to properly recognize the situation; but it is much more largely due to too much Grant bism.

While prominent republicans are busy making preparations for a magnificent reception, preparing to greet the victor, the republican committee find hard work to raise the little money necessary to pay election expenses.

Meanwhile, while sympathy and interference has captured the republican camp, orders to-day came from the National Democratic Committee to the effect that this city must be carried at all hazards in the forthcoming election for the democracy. Rumors of a large and a large having been tendered for that purpose are also certain that it is that to-day the democracy is headwaters are thronged, while the republican headquarters are nearly deserted. If the republican ticket is defeated it will be chiefly owing to the ill-timed and injudicious attempts of Grant's friends to turn the entire situation of the party to his welcome. The danger lies in the possibility of Illinois being considered a doubtful State in 1880.

An Acquainted Man Lynched.

The Tribune's Kokuk special says: The trial of Bill Young for the murder of Louis Spencer and four children, closed in Kahoka, Missouri, on Saturday, resulting in a verdict of not guilty. The culmination of the case, however, came to-day. Circumstantial evidence was strong, but was weakened by the fact of a detective's evidence. Although Young was acquitted, the belief in his guilt was very decided among the citizens, and they determined to lynch him. On Sunday afternoon Young married Lydia Bray, and on Monday evening the couple arrived here before going to Young's home, at Luroy. As their train passed through Kahoka this morning, Young and his wife alighted, and a mob of from 200 to 300 followed them on horseback and surrounded his house demanding his surrender. Young opened fire on the mob; shots were exchanged until he was wounded; eight men then forced their way into the house, took him out and hanged him. The excitement there is intense.

Thriving Business.

New York, 29.—Never has there been a more remarkable increase in the volume of business than that which the reports of the clearing house now disclose. The aggregate of exchange at nineteen cities exceeds $1,000,000,000 in a single week, and the aggregate at cities outside of New York is the largest ever known, exceeding by nearly $5,000,000 the unprecedented amount for the week preceding. In comparison with the corresponding week last year, the volume of business is 50.3 per cent. at all the cities, and 47.9 per cent. outside of New York. San Francisco alone reports a decline. Deducting San Francisco, the exchange at seventeen cities of the Atlantic States, outside of New York, amounts to $229,000,000, against $129,000,000 last year. A gain of 61.2 per cent.

Into the River.

Dr. Cogswell, of San Francisco, fell into the East River this morning in jumping for the ferryboat, and was killed by the falling.

Admiral Abernethy Dead.

Admiral John J. Abernethy died to-day, aged 75. He was for many years medical director in the U. S. navy.

Indian Starving.

WASHINGTON, 29.—A telegram was received at the War Department this morning from General McDowell, stating that the Hauapies Indians, Northern Plains, were starving and asking if they could be fed by the War Department. There being no appropriation available for such purpose, the matter was referred to the Department of the Interior.

The term for which this authorization was given will not expire until December 10th, but Commissioner Hay yesterday extended the time for 60 days from that date. Before the expiration of that date, the Hauapies will have an opportunity to make an appropriation for the Hauapies. They are not "Agency Indians," and no appropriation has ever been made for them specially.

A Sneak Property Feud.

ST. LOUIS, 29.—A. B. Wakefield, a notorious character here, who figured extensively in the grand jury investigations last spring in the alleged case of a woman with one of more of the police commissioners and gamblers' rings, and who used Governor Phelps' name with great freedom and claimed acquaintance and intimacy with many prominent and influential gentlemen, was convicted of perjury and sentenced to the penitentiary. The perjury consisted in giving false testimony before the grand jury regarding his relationship with gamblers.

Cracked Himself.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., 29.—United States Commissioner S. A. Mather, who has been prominent in the suppression of illicit distillers, has been indicted by the grand jury of the United States Circuit Court for presenting false and fraudulent accounts as United States commissioner for payment by the government of the United States for the same. Mather was arrested to-day, his commission revoked, and held in $2,500 for his appearance at the April term of court.

Confederate Celebration.

MACON, Ga., 29.—The Confederate celebration was unveiled to-day by most imposing ceremonies, in the presence of 25,000 people. The military display was very fine. Col. Thomas H. Hartsman was the orator of the day, introduced by Governor Colquhoun. He delivered an eloquent and patriotic address in which he counseled peace and fraternity, and the burying of all animosities of the past. It was received with immense enthusiasm.

WESTERN.

San Francisco, 29.—Charles L. Peterson, real estate agent, was shot dead by Garretts early this morning, near the United States mint. The murderer escaped.

W. H. Henderson, commercial editor of the Chronicle, shot himself twice in the head this afternoon at the Orion saloon, Kearney Street. His wounds are probably fatal.

A large grounded in the river at Sacramento this morning. It was attempting to get her out, the captain broke, mortally wounding the pilot Stanley and killing two deck hands.

The steamer Neveber, from Mexican ports, brings the crew of the whaling bark La Magdalena, Magdalena Bay. On the 2nd inst., the crew were drowned off Cape St. Lucas, in attempting to reach the Mexican coast for aid.

R. F. Morrow and O. A. Hulse, owners of St. Louis, the horse boat, made 2 1/2 on Saturday last, to-day refused $40,000 for the animal. St. Julian will probably be taken East next spring.

Gov. S. B. Julian will trot at the Oakland track to try to beat his own record.

It is now believed that Peterson, who was killed this morning, was shot either by or at the instigation of a woman, from motives of revenge.

GENERAL GRANT.

His Welcome Along the Road.

VIRGINIA CITY, 29.—Shortly after noon Grant visited the Union and North Consolidated Virginia shafts and inspected the machinery in company with Mr. MacKay and Mr. Fair. At 1 o'clock, the time advertised for the departure of the train, there was a great crowd of people at the depot, waiting to catch a last view of their guest. At 2 o'clock four cars came in sight, bearing the General and his party. A special train about 5 p. m. bound east. They were met at the depot by a number of citizens, who wished them a safe and pleasant journey home.

The Grant party arrived at Reno from Virginia City on a special train at four o'clock a. m. and departed at 5.30. Flags were flying at the depot, and the hotels were decorated. Grant did a reception in the theatre and shook hands with 1,500 people. The ladies had a reception by Mrs. Grant in the car. There was much enthusiasm. Senator Pownall deputed Mr. Carson to deliver a speech of welcome. In reply Grant said:

"It affords me great pleasure to see this bright spot in Nevada. I did not expect to see such agricultural land. I know what Nevada has done and is doing to bring about the general prosperity of our country. I thank you, ladies and gentlemen, for the greeting you have given me."

Louisville, 29.—Mayor Baxter received the following dispatch in answer to an invitation sent Gen. Grant:

VIRGINIA CITY, Nev., Oct. 29. J. C. Baxter, Mayor:

Your kind invitation to visit Louisville is received. I do not know when I will be going east of Illinois, but when I visit Indiana, I will extend my trip to Louisville.

A Lively Scene in Court.

LONDON, 29.—In the Lord Mayor's Court at the Mansion House to-day, at the conclusion of a case which had been adjourned for several days, a photograph of a semi-nude Zulu, the summons having been dismissed, Alderman Notlage, who is director of the London Stereoscopic and Photographic Company, which printed the photograph, arose and said: "On last Thursday, when I was not here—"

The Lord Mayor interrupted him and said: "The Court" (cries of "shame") accompanied by hisses and uproar.

Alderman Notlage—"I insist upon my right as a magistrate to be heard here." (Loud applause.)

The Lord Mayor—"Officer do your duty." (Amen.)

Alderman Notlage—"I repeat, I insist upon my right to be heard in reply to the observations you made behind my back last Thursday." (Applause and voices "Shame" to the reporters.)

At this point the Lord Mayor left the court amidst loud groans, hisses and cries of "shame."

Alderman Notlage—"The Lord Mayor has been pleased to say that he would soon to take profit out of such incidents as this."

The Lord Mayor returning, ordered the court to be cleared. A scene of wild confusion and tumult with groans and hisses ensued.

Alderman Notlage—"Should you decline to hear me, and you are supposed to be dispensing justice from that seat of mine, in the name of the citizens of London with having brought discredit on your office, and with having ruined the duty which belongs to that ancient chair."

The court was then cleared, amidst groans, cheers, hisses, cries of "shame!" and great uproar and excitement.

the officers of the company, and after an examination of the works of the company at the mouth of the tunnel, and a reception of the town and vicinity, a most sumptuous breakfast was served to the distinguished visitors and friends.

After breakfast, preparations were made for the trip through the tunnel, but before doing so, add while assembled on the porch of the mansion, much merriment was occasioned at the General's appearance in the costume of a miner. The visitors were now turned over to Superintendent Sheldon and Secretary Young, and under the generalship of Foreman Bluet the mouth was reached. The party were placed aboard the cars, and amid the cheers of the assembled concourse disappeared in the darkness. Quiet time was made under ground, shaft No. 1, one mile from the entrance, was reached in eight minutes, and in seventeen minutes, and the station of the north tunnel was reached in 35 minutes. The party left the cars and walked to the north header, the better to examine the underground workings and the power of the machinery required in driving a work of this character. The covered boxes of machinery, the steam, hot water from the Comstock mines were also an object of considerable interest. Returning to the cars the party were escorted to the face of the south lateral tunnel, where the 1,640 station at the Savage incline were there given in charge by the tunnel officials to those of the Savage Co., and were hoisted to the surface at Virginia City.

Throughout the entire trip the General evinced great interest in all the details of the underground management and work, being particularly struck with the immense energy that was everywhere displayed, and with the wonderful genius of Adolph Sutro in successfully accomplishing what (Grant) considered one of the greatest works of the age.

Gen. Grant and party passed Carson on a special train about 5 p. m. bound east. They were met at the depot by a number of citizens, who wished them a safe and pleasant journey home.
