HOLIDAY SPIRIT MARKS THE DAY

Resorts Provide Special Features To Entertain Pleasure Seeking Crowds.

NO FORMAL CELEBRATION

Memory of the Sturdy Band Kept to The Forefront By Purveyors of Amusement for the People.

In memory of the achievements of that indomitable band of sturdy pioneers who faced the dangers of the desert plains and finally on July 24, 1847, entered the Salt Lake valley, this day has been set apart as a holiday by the legislature of the State of Utah, And well may the people of the present day honor the memory of those heroes who comprised the early settlers or who comprised the early settlers or this glorious state—men and women whose merve rever fultered, whose faith in the religion for which they had been persecuted to the death led them on even to the building of a commonwealth destined to become second to none in the galaxy of states. The present generation is reaping the harvest of their early hardships and labors; well may they remember, with greateful beauts, what their forgathers. labors; well may they remember, with grateful hearts, what their forefathers underwent, that this community might be—that contentment and happiness and peace might reign in the hearts of those who should come after them.

NO FORMAL CELEBRATION. While the day is a holiday, no special While the day is a holiday, no special preparations for a celebration have been made in Salt Lake City. In a number of towns throughout the state arrangements have been made for big celebrations, especially at Logan, Richfield, Spanish Fork and Sunday. At the latter place a regular old time celebration is scheduled, including orations, national airs, patriotic recitations, etc., and the same is the case at Logan.

In and about Salt Lake preprations have been made for celebrating the day at the various resorts, and special at the various resorts, and special events will be the features at all of them. Preparations have been made to are for the large crowds which are expected will visit the differet places of resort, and every facility for an en-joyable day has been insured to all who visit them. AT WANDAMERE.

At Wandamere, the "Dreamiand of the West," an extensive program has been arranged. The special feature of the day will be a card of horse races, for which many of the most speedy animals in the state have been entered. animals in the state have been effect. A baseball game between the Wandamere team and a feam from Bountiful is also one of the attractions for the day at the resort, while other events of an interesting character will be included in the day's athletic sports, concluding with a ball at the pavilion in the evening. the evening.

AT SALTAIR,

At Saltair the usual bicycle races, At Sattair the usual bicycle races, bathing, boating, and other special attractions will occupy the large crowds which are expected at this resort. Bathing in the salt water is perhaps the main attraction at the beach, and the water is said to be delightful at present. Ample arrangements have been made to care for the traffic today, and no recurrence of the lattrains of the Fourth will be permitted in getting passengers home.

AT LAGOON.

Lagoon offers a league baseball game to the lovers of sport, and on this occasion the Occidentals, the colored team of Salt Lake, makes its first appearance as members of the statlengue, playing with the Murray team. Fresh water bathing and the usual attractions of the Fermington resort with ections of the Farmington resort will ubtless draw big crowds for Pioneer

SALT PALACE,

A special race program at the Salt Palace saucer track will be the main attraction at the city resort, with the regular dancing program in the pavition. A big crowd is looked for at this resort, and preparations have been made to take care of all who come.

LIBERTY PARK.

Liberty park will be visited by hunheds who are seeking sylvan shade-and quietness after the week of turmoil and work. There will be in the park he usual attractions of boating, etc., and a pleasant time will be enjoyed on

EMIGRATION CANYON.

The new Emigration canyon resort is now on the list as a regular and determined competitor for public favor, and a first class car service, added to the attractions of mountain scenery and ozone, coupled with trout and chicken dinners, are offered the patrous of this mountain resort. A brassrous of this mountain resort. A bras-band in an automobile was drunming up the attractions of the Emigration canyon resort yesterday, and the fact that the resort is located in the same canyon through which the plo-ners or '47 passed on that eventful day 'il years ago, will serve to give the place an interest not possessed by any of the other resorts, and it will doubts of this mountain resort.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY WOULD HAVE SAVED HIM $100.00.

"In 1902 I had a very severe attack of diarrhoea," says R. N. Farrar of Cat island, Lat "For several week I was mable to do anything. On March 18, 1967, I had a similar attack, and took Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which gave me prompt relief. I consider it one of the best medicines of its kind in the world, and had I used it in 1902 believe it would have saved me a hundred dollar doctor's hill." Sold by all druggists.
