

NEW BRANCH OF R. G. W. RAILROAD.

Work on Silver Creek & Texas
Feeder

TO BE FINISHED IN SPRING.

When Completed Will be One of the Finest Scenic Lines in the West.

F. E. Lomas, a constructive engineer on the Silver Creek & Texas branch of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad, in an interview in the Denver Evening Post of Thursday states that the new line will undoubtedly be open for business next spring. He said:

"The grade is more than one-half finished, and the most difficult places have been passed. When the road is finished it will be the finest scenic line in the State. Every road has canyons and passes, but the Silver line has a feature in the West Mountain valley that cannot be equaled. It is from two to eight miles wide, bordered by high mountains, and is one of the most beautiful agricultural districts in the State.

"But we are proud of the road, also, as an engineering feat. There is a loop near the Texas creek and that is far superior as a specimen of engineering skill to anything I know of. The road runs up one side of a little creek, crosses a third track, high up on the side of an overhanging cliff which projects so far that the upper track is directly over the one below. Then there is a spiral to reach a higher level, making a third track above the second. The three-mile part of the road is only 700 feet from the Texas creek station.

"Two weeks ago there was a big blast on our line and the Rio Grande ran special from Pueblo, Cripple Creek and Salida. Nearly 1,500 persons were there to see the blast fired. Orman & Cook, the contractors, bored a tunnel fifty feet into the mountain and then constructed a T-shaped cross-section twenty feet long. Into this was placed 750 pounds of black powder and 300 pounds of dynamite. The opening was closed with sand and boulders. When the blast was fired, it tore out the whole side of the mountain. It was probably the largest blast ever shot in this State and saved the contractors over $1,000 in labor. The blast cost $1,600 to fire.

"What the Rio Grande will do about the other spur which were contemplated at the same time they decided to build the Texas creek branch, I do not know, except that they have engineers out, and railroad contractors looking contented when they are asked about the work. I think some of the new spurs will be built next summer."

HEAVY ORDER.

Pennsylvania Places Contracts for 150,000 Tons of Steel Rails.

Philadelphia, Oct. 12.—President Gaston of the Pennsylvania Railroad company today awarded contracts for 150,000 tons of steel rails, for which the company will pay $22 a ton, or a total of $3,300,000 for the entire order. The contract, it is understood, is divided among the Federal, Carnegie, Cambria, Pennsylvania and National Steel companies.

Convention Concluded.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 12.—The Woman's auxiliary of the Order of Brotherhood of Trainmen concluded its convention tonight. The new grand executive board consists of: Mrs. Mary C. D. Dunlap of Denver, Agnes McLean of Boston and Lena Stanford of St. Louis. Medames Walston and Downing were elected grand mistress and grand secretary and treasurer respectively. The next biennial convention will be held in Cleveland.

Railroad Y. M. C. A.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 12.—The first session of the tenth international conference of the railroad department of the Young Men's Christian association was held in the auditorium of the Pennsylvania railway Y. M. C. A. headquarters in this city. Delegates are in attendance from all sections of the United States and Canada. The Russian government is also represented.

To Consolidate Offices.

The offices of Engineer L. B. Merriam and Resident Engineer D. C. Dunlap of the Union Pacific will be consolidated on the 15th of this month, and Mr. Dunlap will have charge of the Union Pacific work under way on the road between Cheyenne and Rawlins.

SUCCESSFUL RUN.

Engineer Oliver Choules Passes
Thirteenth Mile Post of Matrimony.

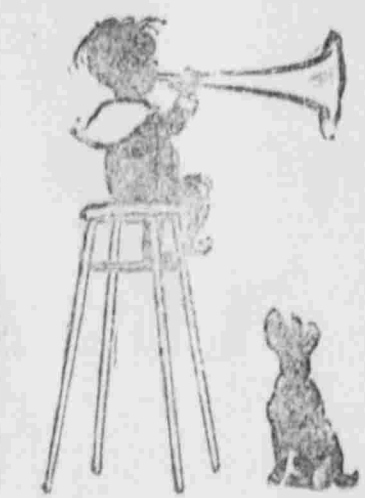

Engineer Oliver Choules of the Oregon Short Line had the lever down in the corner and the throttle wide open last evening as he steamed past the thirteenth mile post over the broad-gauge matrimonial track of the Hymen limited. Since the initial run exactly thirteen years ago last night the Hymen limited has been running on schedule time and has never known what it is to be lagged or to be delayed by a hot-box.

Everybody in Salt Lake railroad circles knows the pioneer railroad man Choules, who started in as a wiper on the old narrow-gauge Utah & Nevada in 1874, to later work his way up until he reached the right side of the cab in 1886.

Indicative of the esteem in which the veteran engineer is held by his friends, 425 west First street, last night to celebrate the occasion and wish him all the joy that is his portion. The invited guests were received by Mrs. Wheeler and Miss Munnie Abbott and a very delightful evening was spent in music and the discussion of a sumptuous repast that was served in the dining room.

Among those who were present were: Conductor Walsh and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Zillah Smith, Mrs. J. W. Wilson, Miss Rachel Lewis, Miss Jennie Smith, Miss Minnie Abbott, Mrs. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan, Mr.

SPIKE AND RAIL.

The special to Bingham yesterday afternoon carried 150 passengers.

The Oregon Short Line officials will return from the north today.

Two hundred people took advantage of the excursion to Ogden last evening over the Short Line.

R. E. Morgan, commercial agent of the Nickel Plate in town, having run over from his headquarters in Omaha. He is accompanied by James Webster, who holds a similar position with the same road in Chicago.

Clyde and Murdoch yesterday shipped twenty-one cars of cattle and seven cars of sheep from Heber to the Malheur Commission company, Chicago.

The consignment was routed via R. G. W. D. & R. G. and B. & M. Seven cars of cattle were also shipped by John Hendrickson of Nephi via the same route.

EX-POLICEMAN IN TROUBLE

Horace A. Heath Made Defendant in the Divorce Court.

Wife Accuses Her Husband of Cruelty and Failure to Support Himself and Children.

The parties were married in this city on December 12, 1888, and have two children. For cause of action Mrs. Heath charges that for the past five years the defendant has neglected to provide for herself and children, notwithstanding the fact, she declares, that he is a strong, able-bodied man, capable of earning a good living. It is further set out that the defendant habitually remains away from home until late at night, and that his habit is to abuse plaintiff with the use of vile language. Only recently, it is charged, the defendant told his wife to go to hell. On the 15th of last month, it is further charged, the defendant brutally held his wife's hands for upwards of an hour, until she became sick and hysterical.

Plaintiff, in addition to a decree of divorce, asks to be awarded the custody of their children. No alimony is asked for.

Separate Maintenance Suit.

Eliza A. Kilbourn yesterday filed a separate maintenance suit against Moron Kilbourn in the Third district court, alleging that since the first of this year the defendant has failed to provide for herself and her six minor children. Plaintiff further alleges that the children cannot go to school because they have no clothes to wear, and she prays that the court require the defendant to pay her $25 a month alimony.

SUNDAY SCHOOL REUNION.

Officers and Teachers of Granite Stake
Meet at Forest Dale.

The Old Farm House at Forest Dale was the scene of a very happy social gathering last evening, the occasion being the reunion of the Sunday school workers of the Granite Stake, and they were out in force, together with the most of the stake and ward authorities and many invited guests. The affair was arranged and ably conducted by Stake Superintendent George M. Cannon and his assistants, Richard E. Horne and Asahel H. Woodruff, and while the program was imprudent it was a meritorious and interesting one from beginning to finish and did not close till near midnight. The principal feature of the program was the rendering of Sunday school music, interspersed with humorous speeches and songs, and brief addresses from the stake superintendent. President Frank Y. Taylor, Dr. J. M. Tanner and others. Delightful refreshments, cake and fruits were provided in profuse abundance, served by a bevy of young ladies under the direction of R. S. Horne. While the lunch was being enjoyed, the Little and Mill Creek Guitars and Mandolin clubs discoursed sweet music.

The Sunday schools of Granite have an able and earnest band of workers, and are united on the object of making the schools of that stake "the best in Zion," and last night's social was intended to make all better acquainted with each other and interested in each other's work, and the affair was a thorough success in that regard.

THE SCANDIA CHORUS.

New Musical Organization Effected in Salt Lake Last Night.

An important Scandinavian musical organization was effected in the Fourteenth ward assembly room last evening. There were present at the meeting about fifty persons, principally members from the Harmonien and Svea choruses.

The new organization will be known as the Scandia Chorus and has for its purpose the study of music under the direction of Prof. Arthron Lund. Olaf Nilsson is its chairman and Hugo Peterson its secretary. Those who have already enrolled themselves as members comprise the select voices from the two existing Scandinavian choirs. While the organization comprises a Scandinavian membership the study of music will be entirely in English.

The first lesson was given by Prof. Lund last night and regular work will be continued every Monday night. It is the intention to make a specialty of operatic and oratorio music. The chorus will shortly make its bow before the Salt Lake public for the purpose of augmenting the Scandinavian meeting house fund.

Social and Personal.

Last night the pupils of Prof. Cook gave a piano recital at the Ladies' Literary club, and the affair was most creditable and enjoyable throughout.

Miss Emily Jessup assisted, delighting her audience with two beautiful vocal selections, "At Parting," and "Still as the Night." Herman Schettler, violinist, with Prof. Cook gave the sonata for violin and piano in E minor by Mozart.

The rendition by the pupils was excellent throughout, and reflected great credit upon the instructor.

A pleasant party was given at the Fifth East street hotel last night, the guests joining in making the affair delightful with Mrs. Keith, Mrs. King, Mrs. Harding and Miss Marcot.

A reception was given at the residence of Robert Neelin last night, in honor of Joseph Neelin, the occasion being his 54th birthday. Relatives to the number of about forty assembled, and the reunion was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Chas. E. McCullough leaves next Wednesday to join her husband in Manila.

Mrs. F. S. Richards, Mrs. Joseph Richards and Mrs. Dewey Richards entertain at cards next Saturday.

Mrs. Whitney, Spencer, Richard Young and Ensign occupied a box at the performance of the "Mandarin" in the Ogden opera house last evening.

W. C. Spencer and his daughter Lula went to Ogden yesterday and visited with friends and relatives. They attended the opera with J. L. Herrick and wife and Frank J. Stevens and wife and saw the "Mandarin" from a box.

Prof. J. J. McClellan, who went to Ogden yesterday morning to rehearse with the musicians of that city, enjoyed the society of his numerous friends during the afternoon.

Prof. Radcliffe was noticed in a box at the opera in Ogden yesterday evening. He spoke very flatteringly of the work done by the company.

Prof. and Mrs. McClellan will be at home at 54 east First North street after this week.

The opening of the "social" season at Christensen's will occur on Wednesday evening next, on which occasion an augmented orchestra will be in attendance, and all the Christensen brothers will be present.
