

BRYAN MAKES MANY SPEECHES

Spoke Twenty-Three Times Yesterday, Talking from Five Minutes to One Hour.

TELLS WHAT TAFT DID NOT DO

Did Not Discuss Bank Deposits Guarantee in Nebraska—Answers Gov. Hughes.

Wahoo, Neb., Oct. 13.—Accompanied by all the Democratic candidates for state offices with the exception of one or two, W. J. Bryan today campaigned in his own state, and tonight at this place celebrated the first of his three days' Nebraska tour. Big crowds greeted him at every point, and when his day's work was over, he had delivered 21 speeches, varying in length from five minutes to one hour. His arguments were confined mostly to answering the statements of Mr. Taft and Gov. Hughes, who but recently visited Nebraska. The audiences were mostly farmers, and the Democratic candidate frequently moved them to loud applause. The route traversed was through numerous Republican strongholds.

ORATORS BY CARLOAD.
A carload of speakers was brought out of Omaha, and at each place visited by Mr. Bryan one was dropped off to complete the work of expounding Democratic doctrine. Mr. Bryan accused Mr. Taft of not making the speech in Nebraska that he had been making in other parts of the country. He did not discuss the guarantee of bank deposits, he said, "doubtless because he was informed that the people of Nebraska are in favor of the guarantee of bank deposits. His appeal was to the farmers, and it was based upon the fact that the farmers have had good crops and fair prices, but did the Republican party give you good crops? All who think the Republican party is responsible for good crops should thank the Republican party. Those who believe as we do, that the good crops are due to the fertility of the soil, to seasonable rains and to the warmth and sunshine, should thank the Almighty."

AGRICULTURAL PRICES.
He asked his audiences if the Republicans had given them high prices. "Are not the agricultural prices," he inquired, "as high in Canada as they are here? Are not agricultural prices as high in England as they are here? Have not values increased in Europe as well as in America? You must find some cause that it is as extended as the result which you are trying to account for and the influence of the Republican party is confined to the United States. The farmers should not be deceived by the argument now addressed to them, for a similar argument was addressed to the laboring men eight years ago."
He then spoke of the empty dinner pail, because, as he said, of the bottom having dropped out of it, and that the farmers were now being told that the Republicans are to give them a full pail.
The Republican party, he declared, had no plan that promises benefit to the farmer, but he is the victim of all the abuses that have grown up under Republican rule. "What do they say in their platform? Why," he asked, "they assumed to tell you that they say: 'What they say is so awfully bad that the Omaha Bee thought I said it and wrote an editorial against it.' Now, isn't that pretty hard to have a Republican platform so bad that it would be mistaken for one of my speeches? The Bee thought I said it, and law! how the Bee did say it! There was more truth in that editorial of the Omaha Bee than I have seen in it for the last 21 years."

AS TO REFORMS.
Discussing the question of reforms, the candidate said that he was not one of those who would not touch Bryan for that he had not fought for "it," he said, "you approve what they have tried to do, and if you believe it is good for the country for them to try to apply them, how can you doubt that it would be better for the country if a Democrat should try to apply them?"
In the opinion of Mr. Bryan, Gov. Hughes was not the kind of man to give advice to people who wanted remedial legislation. "Mr. Hughes, governor of New York," he said, "has come out here to tell you that our plan is ridiculous, and he has laughed all over the state and all over the west, laughed so heartily that the majority of our plan that he could not get himself in a condition to suggest any plan himself. It may be a laughing matter for Gov. Hughes, but it is not a laughing matter for the people of this country. All of you who think that we do not need a remedy can laugh with Gov. Hughes, for he thinks we do not need any; but if you believe we need a remedy you will not be satisfied with the speech of a man who proposes no remedy. And Gov. Hughes, who came out to make a speech and to give a remedy, is the same Gov. Hughes who vetoed the 2-cent passenger fare bill in the state of New York, a thing that your governor would never do, and that you are all in favor of, for you are all paying 2 cents now instead of 3. And yet, down in New York, where the population is smaller than it is here, after that bill had been passed by Republican legislature, Gov. Hughes vetoed it, and he is not the kind of man to give advice to people who want remedial legislation."
After speaking at Wahoo, Mr. Bryan returned to Fremont, where his train was switched to the line of the Union Pacific, and over which road he will resume his journey early in the morning. His first of 23 speeches being scheduled for North Bend at 8 o'clock and the last at Hebron at 8:30 at night.

GOV. FOLK SAYS SENATE IS ROTTEN
St. Louis, Oct. 12.—A special to the Republic from Golf City, Mo., says that

Lord Bacon Said, "Digest"

This is the Secret of Life in Business or in Health.

It is claimed that Lord Bacon struck the prime keynote of life when he wrote: "Some books are to be tasted, others to be swallowed, and some few to be chewed and digested."

He wrote of books; many who have followed him have written likewise of life. The man who digests his business makes success; the actor or actress who digests his or her art brings fame; the man who lives life and digests it as he should lives as was the intention of the Almighty.

It is not the food you swallow or taste that brings happiness to you; it is the food you digest.
If it is the food you swallow and taste, it will flow down and settle in the stomach, where it will immediately set to work upon the food and digest it. They are many times more powerful than the human digestive fluids, and thus repel Nature with those which which sickness, abuse or wrongful eating have exhausted.

The world's best chemists in Europe and America agree on the ingredients best adapted to perfect digestion. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are these ingredients presented to the stomach in the most pleasant and lasting form. Poisons and fluids soon lose their effectiveness through chemical actions and decay. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are made under terrific pressure, and their qualities are thus made lasting.

Forty thousand physicians prescribe and use these tablets, and every druggist sells them. Price 50 cents. Send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail free. Address F. A. Stuart, Co., 150 Stuart Building, Marshall, Mich.

Gov. Folk in a campaign speech there tonight said that the United States senate is more corrupt than was ever the Missouri legislature than was ever the Missouri legislature or the St. Louis assembly, in both of which Mr. Folk when county attorney of St. Louis, unearthed extensive bribery.

Gov. Folk said in part:
The next few years in the battle of the president against the enemies of the people, will be upon the field of the senate of the United States. There is no place in all this world where there is more to be done for the people against graft, greed and lawlessness than there. While there are, no doubt, many good men in the senate, there is undoubtedly more rottenness there than there ever was in the legislature of Missouri, or even in the municipal assembly of St. Louis. At least half a dozen senators have been exposed during the last year or two. Instead of being senators of the people, too many of them have been subsidized by special interests to represent them instead of the people.
"If the Democrats of Missouri wish me to continue in the United States senate the work commenced as circuit attorney of St. Louis and as governor of Missouri, I shall do so. The reforms that I have worked in St. Louis and in Missouri must be fought for in the United States senate if the reform work is to continue."

He Was the First President of Johns Hopkins University.

Norwich, Conn., Oct. 13.—Dr. Daniel C. Gilman of Baltimore, formerly president of Johns Hopkins university, died here suddenly this afternoon, aged 77 years. He had gone to his room to prepare for a drive after dinner, where he was found helpless on the floor by his wife. He arrived here yesterday for a visit with his sisters.

WRIGHT WILL ATTEMPT FLIGHTS FOR HEIGHT

Paris, Oct. 13.—According to the Paris newspaper Wilbur Wright, the aviator, has just made a contract with the syndicate that he has purchased the French rights to the Wright Bros. machine, that the syndicate will attempt some flights for height. There is no reason he is reported to have said, why he should not go up to a height of 2,000 feet.
He also spoke of trying some flights without the motor and without the derrick, which is now required to start his aeroplane.

MUST USE NEW BILL.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—Representatives of the eastern railroads have refused the request of the shippers that they be allowed to use their old 10-cent freight shipping receipts instead of the new uniform bill of lading and the shippers have asked the question of the interstate commerce commission.

FIRE AT BONNER SPRINGS.

Kansas City, Oct. 12.—Half the business portion of Bonner Springs, a watering resort 20 miles west of Kansas City, was destroyed by fire early today, causing a loss estimated at $100,000. Fire apparatus was sent from Kansas City to assist in extinguishing the flames.

CAMPAIGN LIE OUT OF WHOLE CLOTH

President Charged With Having Made a Deal With Big Labor Leader.

KEEFE DENIES THE STORY.

Head of International Longshoremen's Association Said to Have Been Promised Office.

New York, Oct. 13.—The Democratic national committee, through John J. Gordan, assistant chief of the press bureau at headquarters, tonight made public the following statement:

"It was stated at the national Democratic headquarters tonight that President Roosevelt, by promise of office, has succeeded in having one of the big men of the American Federation of Labor desert. President Gompers in his advocacy for the election of Mr. Bryan for the presidency.

The labor leader in question is Daniel J. Keefe of Detroit, president of the International Association of Longshoremen, and one of the vice presidents of the Federation of Labor.

"The Democratic committee alleges that Keefe and the president were closeted together for several hours in Washington on Saturday, Oct. 3, and the offer of being named commissioner-general of immigration made vacant by the death of Commissioner Sargent, was made in consideration of Keefe repudiating President Gompers and the executive council of the federation.
"Keefe on Saturday last issued a statement, in which he said: 'I am going to vote for William H. Taft.'"
"It is pointed out that on Sept. 23 last the executive council of the American Federation of Labor issued a circular, calling on organizations of labor to work for the defeat of Mr. Taft and Republican congressmen seeking reelection, and Mr. Keefe authorized his signature to be attached to it."

"The source of the Democratic committee's information was not divulged tonight, but the information was offered that if Mr. Keefe or President Roosevelt deny the charge another big labor leader now in New York will come forward with facts to prove that the offer was made and Mr. Keefe accepted it and has commenced to make good his part of the deal.
DENIAL BY KEEFE.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 13.—President Daniel J. Keefe of the International Longshoremen, Marine and Transport Workers' association, when informed to night of the statement made in the national Democratic headquarters in New York that he had been promised the position of commissioner-general of immigration in return for his advocacy of the presidential candidacy of William H. Taft, offered a vigorous denial. After having the statement read to him, Mr. Keefe said:

"I was not closeted with President Roosevelt at all. I did see him on Oct. 3, but it was only a four or five minutes' audience, at which several others were present. These included P. H. Morrissey, head of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and I think one of the others was Gen. Powell Clayton. There were others I did not know. I am of the opinion that every word that was said to me at that time was overheard."
"The president did not offer the position to me of commissioner-general of immigration, directly or indirectly, then or at any other time."
"The executive council of the American Federation of Labor did not to my knowledge send out any such circular as is referred to in the dispatch from New York, consequently I could not have endorsed it. On Aug. 15, more than six weeks before I saw President Roosevelt, I made identically the same statement which I made a few days ago in regard to William H. Taft's candidacy. My statement appears in the Detroit Free Press of Aug. 16. I was asked then by a representative of the Free Press if he signed or seen a letter sent out by President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, denouncing the Republican platform and urging labor to support Bryan and the Democratic ticket. I replied:

"I do not believe Mr. Gompers has issued such letter and if he has it does not meet my endorsement. If such a letter has been issued I have not seen it. I will neither support nor vote for Mr. Bryan. I am going to vote for Taft. I am an honorary member of one of our branches of the Association of Steam Shovel & Dredgemen."

PROMINENT FINANCIERS WILL BE AT MORSE'S TRIAL

New York, Oct. 14.—When the trial of Charles W. Morse, which is scheduled to begin in the United States district court here today, several of the most prominent financiers in the country will be called on to tell their experience in connection with the American ice company and it is likely that the operations of the company which they lost large sums will be laid bare in detail.

Among those who have been subpoenaed are Charles M. Schwab, who held 11,900 shares in the pool; John W. Gates, with 10,000; John C. Carroll, 10,000; Isaac Guggenheim, 20,000, and F. A. Otto and Arthur P. Heinz, with 13,000 among them. Phillip J. Britt, lawyer, who was not in the pool, but who was a shareholder in the company in large, has also been asked to testify.
Morse will be placed on trial with Alfred H. Curtis, indicted for charge violation of the national banking law in connection with the troubles of Bank of North America which control and of which Curtis is president.

In this phase of the case, the witnesses will include W. F. Havemeyer and other directors, all of whom are prominent in Wall street.

CHINA POOR MARKET FOR AUTOMOBILES

Washington, Oct. 14.—The well-known Chinese aversion to a change of any time honored custom is responsible for the fact that China will never become a great market for motor cars, according to Vice Consul General W. Roderick Dorsey of Shanghai. He points out for example that in Shanghai with 50,000 population there are but 14 cars, only five of which are owned by the natives. It is declared that China will not become a market for motor cars until the Chinese take more freely to this mode of locomotion, but getting them interested is slow work.
