When the convention met this morning no definite plan had been decided upon as far as could be learned in regard to the operators' offer of advance. The two plans suggested yesterday, one that the whole matter be left to a committee, and the other that the national officers be instructed to find a solution of the complicated problem, still find favor among some delegates. The convention immediately after being called to order plunged into the discussion of the 10 per cent net in-crease, and the wage scale, in all its various phases was thoroughly gone into by the degelates. Finally a motion was adopted that a committed on resolution be appointed for the purpose of presenting to the convention something tangible on the wage scale, and also on the other grievances. The delegates were invited to give the committee sugvas made up of thirteen members as follows: President Mitchell, the three district presidents, Nicholls, Duffy and Fahey, and three delegates from each of the three districts.

Circleville, O., Oct. 13 .- The second day of Hon W. J. Bryan's campaign tour of Ohio began with a good meeting at Chillicothe at 8 o'clock this morning. He had a large audience and he spoke for almost twenty minutes, giving special attention to trusts.

The second meeting of the day was held at Circleville. The audience was

There was a young Republican of ability and character nominated for attorney general of the State or Ohio. When he entered upon the duties of his office he took an oath to perform those duties to the best of his ability, and in fulles to the best of his ability, and in the course of his duty, he was called upon to commence sult under the laws of his State against a great private monopoly, the Standard Oil company, and as soon as he commenced sult the ompany began its persecution and its

He contrasted the conduct of the affairs of the nation with the conduct of the legal business of his own State of Nebraska, where, he said, the Democratic attorney-general was obeying the law and prosecuting the trusts.

At Chillicothe, Mr. Bryan was in-troduced as the next President and in response he said:

"If the people will get out to the polls as early as they seem to be able to get out to meetings, and will show as much interest on election day as they are showing now, it is possible that the prophecy may be fulfilled. But it is in your hands and in the hands of others throughout this country upon whom the responsibility of citizenship rests. Chamberlain Bitterly Attacked.

New York, Oct. 18.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says:

Attacks upon Mr. Chamberlain have increased in bitterness and malignant spirit. The closing speeches of the liberal canvass are credited mainly against him, and Henry Labouchere's deliberate charge that Abel Thomas, member for Carmarthen, held incriminating letters and would have read them if Cecil Rhodes had been attacked by him, is reprinted in the opposition press. Mr. Hawkesley has denied the charge from the liberal platform but Mr. Labouchere is not satisfied at his attempting to force Mr. Thomas to arraign Mr. Chamberlain. Cecil Rhodes has, however, greatly improved his reputation by striking the right key in his addresses on South Africa and there are signs of public impatience over the persistency with which Mr. Chamberlain is attacked. Lord Salisbury is invariably drawn toward associates when they are under fire and Mr. Chamberlain is well nish certain to command the prime ministers support.
