DISPENSATION OF THE FULLNESS OF TIMES.

Forcible Address of Prest, Joseph F. Smith in the Ogden Tabernacle Yesterday.

JOS. SMITH'S DIVINE CALLING.

Through Whom the Gospel and the Gifts and Powers of the Priesthood Were Restored.

Ogden, Utah, Oct. 16.—Hundreds were unable to gain admittance to the Ogden tabernacle yesterday afternoon; it being entirely inadequate to accommodate the large number of people who assembled to hear President Joseph F. Smith, who delivered a most forcible address on "The Dispensation of the Fullness of Times." The meeting was given under the auspices of the Seventies quorums of the Weber stake.

The services were commenced by the tabernacle choir singing "Sunset." The opening prayer was pronounced by Elder Fred Foulger. A solo entitled "Lord of Creation" was sung by John Shufflett. The choir sang "God Is My Refuge."

President Smith prefaced his discourse by referring to the previous lectures that have been given at the tabernacle, touching on the Gospel in the days of the Savior, followed by the apostasy which had become complete by the third century after the Savior's crucifixion. Because of this apostasy from the faith of Christ, the inhabitants of the earth were in a spiritual darkness, which necessitated the restoration of the Gospel in this dispensation of the fullness of times.

President Smith said in part: The restoration of the Gospel was brought about through the Prophet Joseph Smith, the founder of the Church, who when but 14 years of age, and being of a spiritual mind was desirous of accepting the true church, and sought the Lord to learn which was the true Church. While supplicating the Throne on High, he was enveloped in a heavenly vision, and beheld two personages of glory in the air before him, and one, pointing to the other, said, "This is my Beloved Son, hear ye him," and the other personage told him not to account any of the churches, as they were shipped God with their mouth, but that his hearts were far from him, but told him to go and prepare himself for usefulness as God was about to usher in a new dispensation and to establish His Church upon the earth never more to be thrown down or given to another people. The speaker then referred to the restoration of the Gospel to the Prophet Joseph Smith, giving him power to administer in the ordinances and preach the principles of the Gospel. That was the foundation of this dispensation, the communication between Heaven and earth, and from that time on the Lord gave many revelations to the Prophet Joseph Smith and his successors in the presidency.

The speaker referred to the delivery of the Prophet of the golden plates which were translated by the power of God. Their contents in part are given to the world in the Book of Mormon, which is testified to as having been delivered to the Prophet Joseph Smith by an angel of God, by three witnesses who up to their death never denied the truthfulness of the same, and bore a true testimony of the divine mission of the Prophet Joseph Smith.

The restoration of the Aaronic and Melchizedek Priesthoods in this dispensation through the Prophet Joseph Smith and Oliver Cowdery, empowering them to administer in all the ordinances to the Gospel both for the living and the dead, giving them power to seal on earth all of the gifts, powers and blessings, and all of the things be seated in heaven, and conferred upon them, and thus in turn conferred the Priesthood on others, and thus the Gospel was restored to earth, which is the power of God unto salvation to all those who believe and obey the laws and ordinances thereof.

President Smith here testified that the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is built on the rock of revelation, that God is an unchangeable being, of body, parts and passions in a celestial condition, and that He loves His children in this dispensation of the fullness of times the same as in former dispensations, and desires that all mankind shall be saved by obedient to the laws and ordinances of the Gospel. He closed his discourse by bearing a fervent testimony to the divine mission of Joseph Smith, and admonished all present to do the will of the Father, that they may know of the doctrine, whether it is of God or of man.

The choir sang, "In Thee, O Lord, Do I Put My Trust." Benediction was pronounced by Elder H. H. Goddard.

NEED OF NEW TABERNACLE.

In President Smith's talk yesterday morning he expressed regret that the tabernacle was not sufficiently large to accommodate all who desirous to be present, and hoped that the day was not far distant when the Weber stake would have a new tabernacle of such proportions as to hold all who might apply for admission.

FIVE YEARS FOR SWAN.

County Frauds Man Given the Limit by Judge Howell.

(Special to the "News.")

Ogden, Oct. 16.—This morning W. R. Swan appeared before Judge Howell for sentence, having been found guilty of defrauding Weber county out of $257 on a fraudulent bounty certificate. When asked by the court if he had anything to say before sentence was pronounced upon him, the defendant remarked that he had nothing, whereupon the court sentenced him to five years in the state prison. Attorneys Magnus and McCormick immediately gave notice of an appeal to the supreme court on the ground that the action was brought under the wrong statute; that it should have been brought under the law of 1903, which makes the offense charged a misdemeanor rather than a felony, which would reduce the sentence to six months in the county jail with a fine of $100. The sentence pronounced is the maximum under the law of 1898. Swan's bond on appeal was placed at $750, in default of which he was remanded to the custody of the sheriff.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

Naming of Dr. E. M. Conroy for Mayor Arouses Considerable Enthusiasm.

STRONG PLATFORM ADOPTED.

A. Bragonej for Recorder, J. C. Davis, Attorney, J. R. Riley, Treasurer, Mrs. H. L. Wade, Auditor.

Ogden, Utah, Oct. 16.—The Democrats of Ogden in convention assembled Saturday afternoon, named what is admitted by many to be a very strong ticket. The names of the nominees follow:

Mayor—Dr. E. M. Conroy.
Recorder—Albertus Bragonej.
Attorney—John C. Davis.
Treasurer—James H. Riley.
Auditor—Mrs. Hattie L. Wade.
Judge—T. D. Johnson.

The convention was not largely attended but harmony and general good feelings continued throughout the deliberations.

The naming of Dr. E. M. Conroy for mayor is conceded to be a strong point in favor of the Democratic ticket. He is one of the most favorably known men in Ogden City and has a host of friends in all classes. Dr. Conroy was not at the convention when his nomination was made, but was here in the morning and escorted before the convention. He was greeted with tremendous applause and delivered an eloquent speech, throwing some very hot shots at the Republicans. He said in part: "In my experience the field of politics is not a field of roses. I certainly appreciate the honor that you have bestowed on me this afternoon. I have tried hard to keep from being put in a position of this kind—not that I think there is any doubt about the result (great applause) for I believe the city of Ogden is tired of boss rule. I think I see before me this afternoon men and women who are here because of patriotic motives, because they have some self-respect and some respect for the institutions of this country and of this city in particular. I do not look around me and see people who have come here for the filthy lucre that is in it, people that were bought and paid for, else they would not have been there. I have no fight with the gentleman who was nominated the other day for the position of mayor of Ogden City. He is a bright young man, but certainly deplore the means that were taken to obtain that nomination. "I tell you, ladies and gentlemen, when it comes to going into the primaries and buying up, one by one, the delegates who are to come here to nominate a man who is to occupy the position of mayor of this city, things have come to a pretty pass. I do not want this nomination personally. I have declined it, but I cannot look you honest Democrats in the face and say that when you have put your trust in me that I will turn it down. (Great applause.) If there is anything in my name or my reputation for honor, for integrity, for truth, for righteousness, take it, plant it on your banner, and if I do not plant it on the ramparts of the enemy it is not my fault. "I think it is time that there should be something else in Ogden besides 'boss rule.' In the past days of Boss Tweed, it wasn't a circumstance to what it is in Ogden. I seek no political advancement, but I am a Democrat, first, last and all the time, and no party man. I am a citizen first, and a Democrat by principle. Democracy is the party of the people. I would not buy a victory, but I say to you in all candor and all honor: Take my name and use it, and, if elected, my integrity will be your right. Throughout, I will administer the affairs of the city absolutely honestly; there shall not be a stain upon my escutcheon when I have finished my duties in office. I will not be controlled by any party, but I will be controlled by my party against right and justice, I thank you."

The doctor's speech was received with much enthusiasm and his words made a marked impression on the delegates. The business of the convention was then resumed and the following city committee was chosen: First ward, H. S. Foster; Second ward, W. M. Ottinger; Third ward, James H. Hays; Fourth ward, William E. Hughes; Fifth ward, W. W. Browning.

The usual party emblem of the democratic roster was adopted.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

The report of the committee on resolutions was submitted as follows: "We, the Democrats of Ogden City, assembled, do reaffirm our allegiance to the Democratic party, and the principles laid down in the national platform adopted at St. Louis in 1904, and pledge ourselves to a progressive and economical administration of the city's affairs. "We condemn the principle of city patronage being given to the members of the city's government, as being both unlawful and prejudicial to the city's welfare, and pledge our nominees as opposed to the same; that merit and not personal favor shall constitute preference for service. "We favor necessary street improvements, and we are unalterably opposed to granting contracts for their construction to favored contractors at exorbitant prices; and believe in rigid economy in such matters. The wifely expenditure of the city's finances in such matters has become a burden upon the taxpayers beyond any necessity. "We are in favor of the ownership by the city of its public utilities, and especially its water system, and we appeal to the citizens of Ogden to aid us in obtaining the contract rights which the city has at this time instead of granting new franchises to any one, and pledge the Democratic party that its candidates, when elected, will in good faith take the necessary steps to obtain the ownership of the water system, to be controlled by the city of Ogden; and in the meantime will take such steps as will compel the present company to furnish water to the citizens of the city of Ogden. "We, the Democrats of Ogden City, reviewing the past two years of the administration of the Republican party, are convinced that it is necessary for a change of administration for the benefit of the taxpayers of Ogden City, and that economy, not extravagance of the public money, should be the motto for service."

The report was adopted, and this completed the business of the convention, which adjourned.

INFANT FOUND ON TRACK.

Body Had Been Dropped from Rear of S. P. Passenger Train.

A report was received in Ogden yesterday to the effect that the remains of a premature born white child had been found out on the line of the Southern Pacific laying between the rails. The discovery was made by a section hand who reported the same to the railroad employes at Lake Side who picked the infant up, and took it to the station house, then notified the proper authorities. As Lakeside is in Box Elder county the matter will be investigated by the authorities of that county. The presumption is that the child was born on one of the Southern Pacific passenger trains and dropped off the rear platform of the train by some one, but that matter will likely never be known, as there was nothing on the child to tell to whom it belonged.

INVEIGLED INTO SECRET MARRIAGE.

A young girl from the country, attending school in this city, was led into a very unfortunate affair this week. Shortly after her arrival in town she met an employee of the telephone company, and was persuaded by him into contracting a clandestine marriage. She was but 16 years of age, but claims that the young man influenced her to swear that her age was 18, by which means she obtained a license. Her absence from school led to an investigation, disclosing how matters stood. Her parents were notified, and at their instance the couple were arrested and taken before Judge Smith. The young lady was very sorry over the step she had taken, claiming that she was persuaded to it by the young man. The father declined to prosecute the young man but took his daughter home. The young man's name is Webb, and he hails from Salt Lake.
