REMARKS
BY
ELDER EBASTUS SNOW,
At Logan, Sunday Afternoon, Feb.
uary 5th, 1882.

REPORTED BY G. E. GIBBS.

I am asked to occupy the few minutes yet remaining. If the Spirit gives me mercy I will pursue the train of thought that has passed through my mind and Brother Richards has been speaking upon the spirit that has gone abroad upon the remnants of the house of Israel who occupy this land, the American Indians whom we understand to be the descendants of the Nephites, the Lamanites, the Lem-uelites and the Ishmaelites who formerly possessed this land, whose fathers we have an account of in the Book of Mormon. Those who are most familiar with their history and with the history of our settlements in these mountains for the last 80 years—the manner in which we have sent our colonies to locate upon the land of the Laman-ites: the manner in which we have treated with them to obtain their consent and approval to occupy and improve the land which they claimed the manner in which we have moved the manner to maintain ourselves and to build the towns and cities which are now colored by our people throughout this mountain region; the manner in which we have sent out missionaries in advance of our colonies to open up the way, carrying with them the spirit of the holy gospel, the spirit of peace, the spirit of love and brotherhood, to endeavor to impress them with the belief that we were not men of blood, but that we were a people who cherished and cultivated the spirit of peace. The course we have taken when difficulties would arise between them and our settlements, which course we would arise through the indiscretion of thoughtless and selfish men, to settle the same in a friendly, peaceful way, thereby avoiding bloodshed and war; and the spirit in which we have chastised them when it became necessary to do so, not in malice nor revenge, but as a father would chastise his wayward child, and then as soon as possible pour into their wounds the oil and the wine to heal them up again—those who are best acquainted with our labors in this direction will best appreciate the results.

I have had much experience during the last 20 years in this direction, and have by means of the "spirit of the gospel," averted much war and bloodshed.
Wherever our colonies have been sent in advance, their influence has been felt for good—no colony has yet been sent that has failed to establish confidence and a bond of friendship between the natives and our colonies; but it has also tended to restrain the uprising in their hearts to war against the white race, and has thus promoted peace to our general government, and the laying of our enemies to the contrary withstanding.

We know there are to-day, as there have been, men who are jealous and full of green-eyed jealousy, ever ready to misrepresent the purest motives of the best people on the earth; and acts of love and honesty and commendation are construed to be those of conspiracy and wickedness. And we know too that among the class of "villagers and devils" are many of the clergy, some of whom have come among us as followers of the meek and lowly Jesus, to bring to us glad tidings of our fathers in sheep's clothing they do the work of their master, and therefore they scatter broad castles and defamations. And many newspaper scribbles, who are ever ready to pander to popular sentiment, whether it be right or wrong, who know not the facts in the case, take up and republish the lies of the untruthful and misrepresentations of the wicked men who are seeking notoriety at the expense of truth and justice.

The history of Utah Territory gives the full story of these misrepsentations. There is no part of the American continent that has been peopled and redeemed from its degraded condition with so little bloodshed as Utah. There is no other State or Territory where the general government has expended so little money or so little force, where so few lives have been lost in settling a country and maintaining peace with the Indians as Utah. To-day the American nation is a nation of peace, and the spirit of "Mormonism" that has been diffused through this mountainous country in the maintenance of peace, and the saving to the nation of millions of treasure as well as thousands of lives.

And the wisdom of the Lord, through His servant Brigham Young, in sending colonies into Arizona and on the several branches of the C. & O. also into the San Juan country, as well as on our outward borders, may be witnessed to-day by the Indians that is exerted by our people to check the spirit of war and bloodshed among the Navajos and the Utes and the Apaches. The colonies have exerted their influence during the last four or five years in Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona has been, to my certain knowledge, greatly mitigated by the presence of our colonies on their borders, and by the labors of our missionaries among the Indians. During these years I have spent considerable time in visiting those colonies, and have therefore been brought in contact with many of the nations of the different tribes, when they have been visiting colonies and missionary stations.
And so has Elder Woodruff, and some others of the Quorum of the Twelve. And I am a witness to this fact, that in every instance where the influence of our missionaries and our colonies have been exerted upon these fallen people, their chiefs have been imbued with the spirit of peace, and they in turn have exerted their influence on the side of peace to allay the uprising of their more bloodthirsty brothers.
And when they have been almost on the point of joining distant war like "men engaged in hostilities" against the Government, and have come to us to know our views and to seek our counsel, our advice has always been in the interest of peace, the spirit of kindness; we have always taught them to restrain their hostile feelings, and have portrayed to them the benefits of peace, for the destruction of long suffering, and advised them to endure what they considered wrong rather than to attempt to redress their wrongs by violence, and have exhorted them by taking up arms against the strong and powerful government of the United States, and by de-State shall have been redistricted to provide for a special election. The notice to reconvene was lost, years ago, and the bill then passed without division. It is as given yesterday.

Memorials against the treatment of Jews in Russia and polygamy in Utah were presented. A night session was ordered for Monday instead of Tuesday.
The next day, into committee of the whole, Horro, of Michigan, on the chair, upon private claims. The first bill on the calendar was to authorize the restoration of Thomas Little to the army rank of captain.
McCook, of New York, in opposing the bill sent to the Clerk's desk to have read the affidavit of Thomas Little, which was taken from the files of the War Department. The language of the affidavit was so gross, many ladies left the galleries, and the reading was stopped by objection from Springer, of Illinois, and Moore, of Tennessee, on the ground that it was obscene, and it was stricken from the record.
From the files of the War Department, and by an overwhelming vote, the enacting clause of the bill was stricken out, thus defeating the measure.

The next bill was one authorizing the President to place Wm. P.
Chambliss, late Major of the Fourth Cavalry upon the retired list. On this bill the Democrats refused to vote, thus leaving the committee without a quorum, whereupon the committee rose. The recommendation of the committee as stated in the bill was to place Chambliss upon the retired list. A general war all through these eastern mountains and Arizona was imminent last September and October, and had not doubtless been broken out, had it not been for the presence and influence of our colonies extended along their immediate borders, which have provided over by careful, wise men, and their intercourse and labors among the Indians; and for the conservative influence of these chiefs and leading Apaches that Brother Woodruff, who has preached the gospel to two years ago, and whom I and some half dozen of our brethren visited and sawed with three years ago last summer, which had the tendency to restrain the uprising of their more hot-headed brethren and of quelling it. They did more than all the armies of California, New Mexico and Eastern Arizona in bringing about peace.

The influence of those friendly Indians, who had listened to the counsel of missionaries, and who leading men in that country, and to Bro. Woodruff, who went through the mountains to hunt up the bandits, had hidden, and who where procuring ammunition and other things for war—I say, their influence was felt for good, as was fully attested by their success in bringing the hostilities to a close in the vicinity of Cooley's ranch and elsewhere, and in allaying the warlike spirit among the Indians generally around Camp Apache, and thus averted a general war.

I know these things are true. I was posted every day, being at the time on the Little Colorado, and in company with President Jesse N.
Smith, who was in communication with our brethren on the borders of those hostile Indians, who had messengers going and coming every day to and from their bearing counsel of peace, and I know that the counsel of our people ascended to the Father in the interest of peace, that the counsel of peace might prevail among them; and I know too that the influence of those friendly Indian men and missionaries, whom we have located on the San Juan River, between the Navajos and the Utes, and who have been there during the last three years, as also those on the south of the Navajo reservation, and between the Navajos and the Apaches on the Little Colorado, and the Little Colorado, and the Little Colorado,
I know that their influence and counsel upon the Lamanites in the interest of peace, and the influence of our interpreters and discreet Indian men and missionaries, whom
we have located on the San Juan
River, between the Navajos and the
Colorado, and the Little Colorado,
I know that their influence and coun-
dian men and missionaries, whom

Colorado, and the Little Colorado,

I feel it a pleasure to be able to speak knowingly of these things and hope that this spirit of peace may extend throughout the land.

Shocking Disaster.

CHESTER, Pa., 17.—About 8 o'clock this morning an explosion occurred in the pyrotechnic works of Professor Jackson in this city. The building was badly shattered, took fire and was consumed. At least 15 buildings were lives were lost, and many persons seriously wounded.
The dead are being laid in the City Hall and the wounded cared for in the various drug stores, so no accurate list can be obtained now.

The following is the list of the killed and wounded: Killed—John Lambuth, Thomas Dailison, Thos.
Amerson, Alex. Phillips, John Pollock, Joseph Keller, G. Taylor, Jas.
Dunsmuir, Daniel G. Taylor, F. W.
Williams, colored, Anti John Barber, Wm. Wood, fireman, John Dolores and Edward Stropshire. All the killed lived here fifty years or more in the old portion of the mansion, where it seems it first took fire, and when the flames were playing on the flames and a large crowd surrounded them, the explosion occurred, scattering destruction far and wide. The number killed is between 15 and 20, about 20 dangerously and
