Novas received in Salt Lake yesterday of the death of Lamartine C. Trent, Jr., who was a well known member of the High School football team three years ago, and also had numerous friends among the young people of this city. "Mart" Trent, as he was generally called, was stricken with an attack of heart disease at the Harris mine early yesterday morning. His death came almost instantly. Trent was at work on the 1,000-foot level loading ore cars when death overtook him. His fellow workers heard a groan, but ere they reached his side he had expired. L. C. Trent recently returned from Chama, N. M., and for the past two months has been in Salt Lake. He was notified by wire of his son's death yesterday and left on last night's train for Butte. Since returning from Butte, Trent has been working in the Harris mine, and was yesterday morning at the mine when he was stricken. Young Trent was 29 years of age and had been in the Harris mine for about two months.

TOM WAS WILD.

Started Prisoners at City Jail by Drunken Grabbings.

Tom King, the old time veteran around police headquarters, got on his usual spree yesterday and for a time made things lively for the other prisoners at the city jail. Tom managed in some way to get a bottle of alcohol from the cook's pantry, and after a few drinks he was in a short time very drunk. When in this condition, Tom snorts something like an elk and the noise will frighten almost everybody. Tom was not only drunk, but he was also a little bit of a mischief maker. He ordered all the prisoners out of jail, and had them cleaning up the jail yard. Then he set them to work in the kitchen, and had some of them out on the street. In the meantime, he was snorting around and making a noise like an elk. The prisoners were at a terrible loss to know what he was doing, and when they saw him in a bad way in a bad way, they were in a bad way. When they saw him in a bad way, they were in a bad way. When they saw him in a bad way, they were in a bad way.

PROF STEPHENS SUCCESSFUL.

Gets All Necessary Concessions for Side Trips on Coast.

Professor Stephens wires the "News" from San Francisco that he has been successful in getting from the Southern Pacific all of the concessions asked for in the way of side trips to the big tree country and other notable points of interest for the next excursion for the Tabernacle place which will be about the middle of March. But the professor will be home in a day or so and then will tell all about it himself and set out the details of the trip. He will be at the end of the line for the biggest outing of the kind the city has yet undertaken.

Stephens' Assistant at Hot Stove.

A child of Mrs. Geo. T. Benson, when getting his usual Saturday night bath, stepped back against a hot stove which had been turned on, and was badly burned. The child was taken to the hospital, and the mother was notified. The child was taken to the hospital, and the mother was notified.
