CITY COUNCIL SESSION.

Special Correspondence. Provo, April 19 .- At the meeting of council held last evening. the city Mayor Roylance presented a communi-cation urging that some steps be taken at once to increase the street sprink-ling. He also recommended that the streets be cleaned. Chairman Gray of the committee on fire department ex-plained that men had been hired to sprinkle the streets and that sprinklers would be out Monday. Chair-man Johnson of the committee on treets and alleys stated that the streets would be cleaned as soon as men could be obtained, with these explanations the communication was accepted and filed The city recorder presented his finan. cial statement for the quarter ending March 31, showing cash on hand amounting to $16,595.99.

The committee on fire department reported, recomminding that S. H. Jones, Leo H. Bean, James W. Gray and W. K. Farrer be employed to sprinkle during the pleasure of the council, at $3 a shift of eight hours for man and team. Report adopted.

City Marshal Henry was granted a leave of absence to go to Montana to invistigate the death of his son, reported to have taken place in a railroad accident. The committee on fire department reported placing an order with Newel Knight for a 150-galion, wide tire, sprinkler for $450.

An ordinance amending sections 163, chapter 29, of the revised ordinances of Provo city, was passed. The ordinance permits ice cream parlors to keep open on Sunday, which is not specific-ally permitted in the old ordinance.
