SPANISH SURRENDER AFTER REFUSAL

Cook, Volunteer, Bi-Chiriqui & the others
For their Country—Peasant Wins He May Get Home by Christmas.

Ensign Peasant, whose interesting service from the Philippines appears in the columns of the "News," from time to time, has given the following to the editors:

U. S. BARBER, Manila Bay, Aug. 18, 1898.

Dear Family—Enclosed you will find a copy of the "News" for the information of the family. The news concerning our work in the fighting that the Spanish Marines during service and the others we have done, a division was made for the commander of the city on August 15, giving forty-eight hours to accept a capitulation. We were unable to do so.

Finally, some came this morning to inform us that the American forces had arrived.

All Americans had several days before taken away from the city to be sent to the rear, and were not allowed to remain. At a late hour, August 15, the last day of our service, we were ordered to march near Manila and stand by the command of the American forces, and to remain there until the next day.
