PRIMARY CHILDREN HOLD CONFERENCE

Memorial Services in Honor and Memory of Apostle A. O. Woodruff.

NOBLE YOUNG LIFE REVERED.

Corey Bros. Ship Construction Outfit To Canada—Funeral of Thomas Joyce Tuesday at Marriott.

Primary conference of Weber stake was held yesterday afternoon in the tabernacle and was attended by a large throng of children and parents and others. Sister Rose Canfield, stake president, presided, assisted by her counselors, Sisters Burton and H. E. Woodmansee. The general presidency was represented by Sisters M. L. Snow and Josephine West. Much wholesome instruction, calculated to impart and encourage good moral training, was given. Exercises by primary classes from each of the different city wards were rendered in a manner worthy of the little people and a fine stable alike to the little people and the adults. Besides those mentioned, assistance was rendered in the exercises by President Chas. F. Middleton and Elder Lorrin Farr.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.
Memorial services in honor of the memory and faithful service of Apostle A. O. Woodruff were held in all the wards of Weber stake yesterday. The country wards, which held meetings in the afternoon, turned them into memorial services, while the other wards, including those of Ogden, held them in the evening. In almost every instance, there was a large gathering of Saints met to honor the memory of a noble young life.

CONSTRUCTION OUTFIT SHIPPED.
The Corey Bros. Construction company made shipment this morning of nine carloads of teams and grading outfit to Calgary in northwest territory, Canada, where the firm has a large contract for building an irrigating canal. Warren B. Corey is in charge of the shipment. The company is negotiating for a special rate over the roads in the United States so as to enable them to ship laborers from this country at reasonable rates. As the work is a part of the development plan of the Canadian Pacific there are very cheap rates on in the Dominion.

A. B. Corey returned Saturday from Calgary where he arranged for the outfiting of an office by the company and also for the bonding of property, through the customs office.

FUNERAL OF THOMAS JOYCE.
Funeral services over the remains of the late Thomas Joyce will be held Tuesday at 2 o'clock, the Marriott meetinghouse. Remains may be viewed from 10:30 to 1 at the home of his son-in-law, G. T. Terry. A large number of Ogden friends will go out to assist in the last rites over the bier of the departed pioneer.

J. S. Parry, county attorney of Boxelder county, was in Ogden yesterday returning from a three weeks' absence at the St. Louis world's fair.

The Eagles held their annual outing at Glenwood yesterday, there being a large throng in attendance to participate in the various sports.

DEATH OF JULIUS ISAY.
Julius Isay, senior member of the dry goods and clothing firm of Julius Isay & Co., of this city, died yesterday evening at Colorado Springs, from a complication of diseases with which he had been suffering since September of last year, since which time he has spent most of the time away from Provo in a fruitless attempt to regain his health. He came here in September, 1903, and commenced business, and soon after suffered a slight attack of typhoid fever, which was followed by pleurisy and consumption. Mr. Isay was 41 years of age and was formerly engaged in business in Silver City and in Delmar, Idaho. He was highly respected by all his acquaintances gained in this city for his unassuming, gentlemanly qualities. A wife, who was with him in Colorado Springs, and two children, are left to mourn the loss of a devoted husband and father. The remains were shipped to Chicago for interment today.

WEDDING BELLS.
Marriage licenses have been issued to the following couples: First ward, L. G. West, 23, and Margaret Walker, 21, both of London.

William H. Jackson, 29, of Mammoth, and Gertrude Bauer, 26, of Chicago.

GARDEN CITY NOTES.

Deputy Sheriff Barnett and Assistant county attorney Anderson have gone up Spanish Fork Canyon with a search warrant issued from Justice Jordan's court in Springville, to inspect John C. Cronin's sheep herd with a view to locating about 100 head of sheep belonging to Isaac G. Shepherd.

William Britt, accused of stealing some emergency tools from a passenger coach at Colton, last week, pleaded guilty to petty larceny in Justice Xoon's court. He explained that he and another man, who had both been drinking heavily, went into the car and took the tools, which they pawned for 75 cents. They bought whiskey for the money, and in the afternoon of the same day Britt received some money from men who came down from a Rock quarry, where Britt had been working. He then returned the tools and took them back to the railroad agent, and explained what he had done, and the railroad agent had him arrested. Justice Xoon sentenced him to 10 days in the county jail.

SPANISH FORK.
Will Honor the Fourth.

Celebration to Excel All Former Efforts—Progress of Waterworks System.

Special Correspondence.

Spanish Fork, Utah Co., June 22.—The committee recently appointed to make arrangements for celebrating the Fourth of July, are working to make the celebration a decided success. It is the wish of the community that the Fourth shall be celebrated on a larger scale than ever before. The committee on program is to report this week.

The second ward meeting house will soon be ready for the roof. It is quite a pretentious looking building, and sets off that end of main street in fine shape.

The Bishop of the Third ward has arranged for a lecture to be given once a month in his ward on Sunday evening. Elder A. Saxey lectured on the "Apostolic Succession."

The first hay crop is turning out splendidly, being better than it has been for some years.

PROGRESS OF WATERWORKS SYSTEM.
The city is laying the mains for the waterworks, but it is feared that the water will not be ready for distribution at the time promised, July 4. It is to be hoped that the work will be completed, at least in that locality where it is quite sure there will be water takers, leaving the work on the bench for future consideration.

No need to fear sudden attacks of cholera infantum, dysentery, diarrhoea, summer complaint, or other ailments, Fowler's extract of Wild Strawberry in the medicine chest.

KANAB.
Tour of the Stake.

Kane County Affairs—Good Hay Crop—Wool Men Happy: Cattlemen Depressed.

Special Correspondence.

Kanab, Kane Co., June 21.—The presidency of this stake has just finished a complete tour of the stake in company with Elder Rudger Clawson, one of the quorum of Apostles, and Elder H. McQuinn, the quarterly conference at Glen-dale being the finishing event. To those only who have taken this trip is its magnitude appreciable, and while the visiting brethren expressed themselves as having enjoyed the journey they emphasized that it was a good experience to have had, and that frequently would rob it of its pleasures. The conference was well attended, as were the meetings in the various wards, an excellent spirit pervading all. Elders Clawson and McQuinn left immediately after conference for the St. George stake.

KANE COUNTY AFFAIRS.
The regular June term of the commissioners' court adjourned today, it being a session specially devoted to the adjustment of tax assessments and the fixing of salaries of the county officers. Tax rates were fixed about the same as have prevailed heretofore, and no material changes were made in the salary schedule. A special ordinance consolidating the offices of county clerk and county recorder was passed, and providing the statutory adjustment of the salaries of the county officers.

Haymaking occupies the attention of most of the farmers heretofore at present. The yield is fairly good, and but for the late frosts would have been fully up to or slightly above the average.

The handling and disposition of the wool clip has livened things up some little in business away, but the cattlemen find little encouragement in the present outlook, as they have made no sales so far this season, and to all appearances have no present promising prospect.

Hundreds of lives saved every year by having Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in the house just when it is needed. Cures croup, heats burns, cuts, wounds of every sort.

MOAB.
Splendid School Showing.

Moab in the Front Ranks in Educational Facilities—High School Building.

Special Correspondence.

Moab, Grand Co., June 26.—The little town of Moab is situated about 35 miles south of Thompson Springs station on the Denver and Rio Grande railroad, and 20 miles northwest from the western base of the LaSal mountains, having an altitude of 4,500 feet above sea level. The first permanent settlement was effected about 25 years ago. About 15 years ago when the writer first came to the valley, there were about 12 or 13 dwellings, including one small store. The public school at that time was held in a little log cabin, the seats being very plain. The most of them having been constructed from rough native lumber, the school at that early date was not in any way graded, but all classes were taught by the one teacher, at quite a small salary. Since that time the town has gradually improved until at present there are perhaps over 150 dwellings, a dozen thrifty business places, and the best of all, a large central school building that cost the district something like $9,000. The building is arranged for four different departments, with trustee's office and library over the main entrance. The district pays an aggregated sum of $1,050 for the five teachers employed, also $900 per year for a high school teacher, as the county is establishing a high school in our little town. We are certainly highly favored in the line of educational advantages. With the present facilities our children can procure a splendid common education, equipping themselves for the university, or special college training. At the close of the past school year, a special program was given at the Opera House, under the direction of the teachers. Principal P. M. Neilson, of Pleasant Grove, Utah, had the general charge of the exercises, the proceedings showed careful training, and were certainly very gratifying to all concerned. It is pleasing to know that nearly every citizen in our little community is willing and anxious to financially aid our schools, by voting, and contributing liberally to our school taxes.

At a recent meeting of the high school board of Grand county, a contract was awarded one of our young contractors and builders, for the erection of a modern high school building. The structure will be erected on a plot of ground adjoining the central school, and promises to be one of the attractive features of our little town. We look forward to the day when Grand county will stand in the front ranks, educationally speaking, of one of the foremost states in the Union. "By their works ye shall know them." We are not ashamed, but proud, of the scholastic condition of this little isolated "oasis in the desert," and cheerfully invite the world to come and see for themselves. We are not opposed to education in southeastern Utah, but are doing all we can to promote it, the expense thereof being carried and sent eastward, to the effect that the dominant populace of Utah is a clog in the wheel of education, is absolutely false, and without any foundation, at least it is emphatically so in respect to this part of the state.

One feature of special interest respecting our district school display at the St. Louis exposition. Report has been received here that our exhibit was forwarded from Salt Lake City entire, all being considered worthy a place in the display.

PANGUITCH.
Honor Nation's Birthday.

Another Business Failure—Crop Outlook Promises Good Harvest.

Special Correspondence.

Panguitch, Garfield Co., June 24.—Our people are again astir, making preparations to celebrate our nation's anniversary. A good time is expected. The city fathers have been improving the appearance of our streets by grading and removing the rocks so prevalent.

Yesterday it was reported that Hon. A. J. Hansen, the saw mill man of this section, had started for new fields far away in Idaho, leaving his mill in the hands of his bondmen or sureties. It is reported also that a number of creditors are mourning because of his failure to settle with them. The Panguitch Co-op has filed suit against him, and the sheriff has gone forth armed with writs of attachment to satisfy the claim.

Crops are looking fine, and an abundant harvest is anticipated, notwithstanding the shortage of water and the continued dry spell. The merchants report good collections and business seems fairly good.

Consumption

Nearly all early cases can be cured. Expert physicians tell us they rely largely on three things—fresh air, good food, and Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. If the case is advanced, recovery is more uncertain. Follow your doctor's orders. That's best.

"I had a terrible cold on my lungs. I feared I might have consumption. Nothing seemed to give me relief until I used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It acted promptly and cured me completely."—Miss Emma Miller, Fort Snelling, Minn. 25c, 50c, $1.00. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
